

BARON ROTHSCHILD DEAD

One of the Wealthiest Men in the World is Gone.

GAVE MILLIONS TO THE POOR

Philanthropist, Philosopher and Sportsman, and One of the Most Patriotic of Frenchmen.

Baron Alphonse Rothschild, head of the great banking house, died in Paris, May 26.

Baron Rothschild was recognized as one of the greatest financiers of modern times. He was at the head of the Paris branch of the great financial institution which controlled the private and public finances of Europe, and was one of the wealthiest of the Rothschild family, whose wealth has been computed at $450,000,000.

Baron Alphonse was more than a financier. He was a philanthropist, philosopher and sportsman, as well as one of the most patriotic Frenchmen who ever lived. His charities were not confined alone to France, but his wealth was used to relieve the needy in many parts of the world. An example of his anxiety to relieve distress was given only winter before last, when he gave $2,000,000 for the improvement of the homes of the poor of Paris.

Will all his business activity he found time for recreation and was devoted to racing. Other sports also claimed his attention in recreation hours.

Baron Alphonse was a member of the Academy of Fine Arts, of the French Institute, and a commander of the Legion of Honor. He left two children, Baron Edouard and Baroness Beatrix. He has two surviving brothers, Baron Gustave and Baron Edmond.

BANK CLOSES ITS DOORS

Loans Made by Cashier Without Consent of Other Directors.

The Canton, (O.) State Bank, with individual deposits of more than $600,000, closed its doors on the 24th. The directors state that the bank will not be able to resume business. The failure is alleged to have been brought about by heavy loans to W. L. Davis, vice president of the bank, by the cashier, Corwin B. Bachel, without the consent of the other directors of the bank. According to a statement made by counsel for the directors, more than 400,000 has been given to Davis for which no adequate security has been furnished. Davis has decided to the bank property valued at $200,000. The city of Canton has $75,000 on deposit in the bank. The Canton Young Men's Christian association and many school teachers were also depositors in the bank.

It is the first time in over 25 years that a banking institution in this city has failed. The bank was organized several years ago. The bank had a capital stock of $350,000, of which 60 per cent, or $210,000, is paid up. The larger portion of the depositors are citizens of small means, many of whom have all their money in the bank. The directors say they hardly expect to realize $200,000 on the securities.

DUN'S WEEKLY REPORT

Rails and Bridge Supplies in Demand—Building Trade is Active—Money Abundant.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s "Weekly Review of Trade" says: Improvement is reported in retail trade, although weather conditions are still far from ideal, and excessive rain retards agricultural progress sufficiently to cause conservatism among dealers, yet confidence in the future is the prevailing sentiment and leading dry goods jobbers are unanimous in anticipating a large fall trade. Manufacturing plants are busy, especially in heavy steel lines, except where usual repairs are being made or reasonable closing is necessitated. Building operations make favorable comparisons with recent years, and there is little controversy regarding wages or hours of labor. Foreign commerce at New York for the last week shows little change in comparison with the same period a year ago, exports decreasing $21,775 while imports gained $509,956. Railway earnings thus far reported for May exceed those of a year ago by 8 per cent, and after falling to the lowest point of the year prices of securities recovered materially.

Money is abundant and easy and commercial payments are more prompt in most sections of the country. In the iron and steel industry there is great activity on old orders, and general confidence in a vigorous demand during the second half of the year, but current buying is extremely light, except in a few departments. Hence the mills and furnaces are more active than the markets just now, which explains the apparent contradiction of reports. In steel rails and all other railway supplies and heavy lines for buildings and bridges it is often impossible to secure shipments with sufficient promptness, while pipe and tube mills that have orders are well ahead, but in some other divisions the situation is less satisfactory and more effort is being made to secure foreign trade. Coke follows the quiet tendency of pig iron, ovens closing as stocks accumulate. No diminution of strength is noted in raw wool, and the mills are also correspondingly firm in their views. Worsteds continue in greatest favor, but woolsens are not far behind.

Failures last week numbered 211 in the United States against 226 last year, and 19 in Canada, compared with 17 a year ago.

WILL BUILD SHIP CANAL

Lake Erie and Ohio River Will be Connected.

MORE THAN $500,000 PAID IN

President of Company Says That Work Will Be Started Within a Year.

A company to build the Lake Erie and Ohio river ship canal has been formed and has already begun operations. On May 4 a charter was secured at Harrisburg, through Charles A. Fagan and W. A. Magee, Jr., solicitor of the company, in which the following persons are named as incorporators: Edward J. Lloyd, George A. Kelly, Jr., William I. Jones, Henry Buhl, Jr., Col. Thomas P. Roberts, William J. East, Burd S. Patterson, George W. Stewart, Emil Swenson, Charles A. Fagan, George M. Lehman, James W. Wardrop and John E. Shaw.

The act of 1895 requires that the capital stock of the company shall be $25,000 for each mile of canal proposed to be constructed, of which $5,000 per mile at least must be subscribed. The distance from the mouth of the Beaver river to Lake Erie, the places between which the canal is to be constructed, is 107 miles, and the capital stock of the company for preliminary purposes has been made $2,625,000, which amount will be increased as soon as the company begins operations. The requirements that $5,000 of stock for every mile shall be subscribed was complied with before the charter was taken out, the subscriptions amounting to over $900,000.

This committee had a law passed authorizing a ship canal company to be organized to construct and operate a ship canal from the head waters of the Ohio river via the Beaver and Mahoning rivers. The committee also asked for a National charter. The charter, however, was not secured, although favorably acted upon by various Congressional committees. It is under this State law that the present corporation was organized and the charter secured.

CORN DAMAGED BY WORMS

Necessary to Replant Crop in Sections of the State.

The weather bureau's weekly bulletin summarizes crop conditions as follows: The weather conditions of the week ending May 22 have been generally unfavorable. Frequent and in some cases heavy rains have delayed work in Eastern districts and on the North Pacific coast, but improved the conditions of grains and grasses, while cool nights and cloudy weather have retarded germination and growth in nearly all districts. Further delay in corn planting is reported from Ohio, Indiana and Illinois and much replanting is necessary in the first and last named States, as well as in Iowa and Nebraska. Cut worms are damaging in the Ohio valley and portions of the Middle and South Atlantic States, while the crop is suffering from lack of cultivation in the last named district and in the States of the Lower Mississippi valley. Winter wheat generally continues promising. More favorable weather conditions during the latter part of the week have caused spring wheat to improve rapidly and this crop is now making satisfactory progress. The general condition of oats is satisfactory. The crop as a whole has made good growth although retarded by floods in portions of Ohio. Less favorable reports are received regarding apples. Prospects for this crop are deteriorating in Missouri, the bloom is not as full as usual in New England, dropping is reported from Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Southern Illinois and less promising conditions are indicated in Ohio.
