BIRDSEYE VIEW OF SALISBURY.

Something that Ought to Interest Salisbury People Who Have Located Elsewhere.

THE STAR has for sale a limited number of very fine pictures of Salisbury, size 22x32 inches, printed on extra heavy, smooth paper, from a very fine engraving. The sketching was done by T. M. Fowler, of Morrisville, Pa., who is an expert in his line and has been following his business in many different states of the Union.

The picture is very clear and distinct, showing all the streets plainly marked, and those familiar with the town can plainly recognize every building in it. The pictures have sold like "hot cakes" here, and a limited number have been placed with THE STAR to supply those at a distance, who may desire them.

Every former citizen of Salisbury ought to have one of these fine engravings, as they show the progress the old town has been making, which has been very great in recent years. But we cannot supply them all, and those who apply first will get them. The picture includes West Salisbury, the surrounding landscape and some of the farm houses in the immediate vicinity, also a large number of the principal buildings printed around the margin of the engraving, from special drawings.

Price, $1.50 per copy, plus 7 cents to pay postage. Address THE STAR, Elk Lick, Pa.

TO OUR LADY READERS:—Be sure to read the fashion columns that will appear in this paper from time to time. We can supply as many patterns of the styles shown as you may desire at 10 cents per pattern. Fill out coupons at bottom of fashion columns, enclosing 10 cents in stamps or money for each pattern wanted, and mail same to THE STAR, Elk Lick, Pa., and patterns will be promptly sent to you by mail.

HOME DRESSMAKING

By May Manton. A PRETTY SUMMER FROCK.

Misses' Short Waist 4991, Sizes 12 to 18 years. Misses' Kitted Skirt 4825, Sizes 12 to 16 years. Nothing suits young girls better than just such simple short waist frocks as this one. As illustrated it is made of pale blue chambray with dots of white, but the design is one suited to almost all seasonable materials and will be found satisfactory made from any linen suitings or from such attractive cotton fabrics as madras and heavier reppes. The waist is quite simple as well as eminently becoming, and is tucked at the back to give a tapering effect to the figure at the front to form a yoke, and includes regulation sleeves finished with a straight cuff. Material required for medium size, for waist, 3 1/2 yards 27 inches wide; for skirt 6 1/2 yards 27 inches wide. Patterns mailed by Fashion Department ten cents each.

ONE OF THE NEW WAISTS.

Blouse or Shirt Waist 4998, Sizes 32 to 42 bust.

No woman ever yet confessed to a sufficient quantity of shirt waists, and this one is quite certain to find a place in every wardrobe. It is made of ring dotted white madras and is exceedingly charming, but while white is especially smart this season, there also are many attractive colored materials, French percale, dimity, lawn and the like, which are equally appropriate. The waist is made on exceptionally desirable lines and includes the new sleeves that are full at the shoulders with straight cuffs. Material required for medium size 4 1/2 yards 27 inches wide. Patterns mailed by Fashion Department ten cents each.

A SIMPLE WASHABLE FROCK.

Girl's Russian Dress 4938, Sizes 4 to 10 years.

There is no dress better liked for young girls than this simple one made in Russian style, which is exceedingly becoming to childish figures and can be laundered with perfect success and with the minimum of trouble. As illustrated it is made of dotted batiste with bands of white edged with blue which matches the dots, but the model is one that can be utilized through the entire year, and in addition to being charming made from cotton and linen fabric, is much to be desired for the cooler days in cashmere, challie and the like. The dress is made with fronts and back only, the right front lapping well over the left, and the closing being made invisibly beneath its edge. Material required for medium size (8 years) 3 1/2 yards 27 inches wide with 4 1/2 yards of banding. Patterns mailed by Fashion Department ten cents each.

SALISBURY BOYS IN OREGON.

An Interesting Letter from Howard Livengood.

PORTLAND, ORE., May 22, 1905. EDITOR STAR:—Please send THE STAR to me at Portland. I have been here for six weeks, and I'm lost without it.

Ross and I are working on the Fair grounds at present. The Association employs about 2500 men. The whole thing could be put into a small corner of the St. Louis fair, but no doubt it will be worth seeing. It opens June 1, but it will not be nearly completed, as some of the buildings have just been started.

The "Rose City" is prepared to take care of a large crowd of people this summer. People from all over the country are rushing into Portland, and as a consequence, work is not as plentiful as it would be otherwise. Two dollars is the prevailing wage for common labor. This is the first day we have been kept from work by rain. By the looks of the old roofs, it must rain a great deal during the winter, for they are all covered with thick moss.

Taking it all through, this is one of the sportiest old towns you ever saw. We both enjoyed the trip across the Rockies very much. The fare from Waterloo was $29.00—very cheap for what one sees and experiences. We stopped at Colorado Springs and Salt Lake.

The latter place is especially interesting on account of the great works of the Mormons. They must have had great faith to work at the Temple for forty years, and to endure the hardships they did. The Tabernacle, too, is a great piece of work, also the great organ. We wound up the trip by taking a boat at The Dalles and coming here on the Columbia and Willamette rivers. And the end is not yet.

Yours Truly,
HOWARD LIVENGOOD.

A Very Nice Letter from a Mighty Nice Subscriber.

UNION BRIDGE, MD., May 24, 1905.

MR. STAR MAN:—Since I have been enjoying the "Merry Twinkler" for quite a while, and as I do not want to become a delinquent subscriber, I will enclose $1.00 to apply on subscription. It's an unwritten maxim that he who would enjoy his home paper to the full extent, and be successful in general, must pay cash in advance.

Our school term, which has been pleasant and profitable, will close June 1st. On the following day I expect to go to Eastman College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where I trust THE STAR will make its weekly visits.

I have been employed as principal of the Commercial department of Maryland Collegiate Institute, next year, hence my going to Eastman to make more thorough preparation for my new work.

Trusting that THE STAR may continue to shine, even brighter than before, that Mrs. Livengood's recovery may be speedy, and that home will soon be real homelike again to the editor and family, I am

Very Truly Yours,
E. J. EGAN.

We thank Mr. Egan for his remittance and good wishes. He is a splendid young man and a good example for others to follow. He is one of the Elk Lick boys that we honor and respect. He was born and reared on Negro Mountain, where educational advantages are very poor, and like many more of us, Eli has had poverty to contend with ever since he was born. But to use a well known slang expression, he is getting there Eli. By his own efforts he has succeeded in getting a good, practical education, while many other youths more favorably situated idled their time away and grew up to be nonentities and ignoramuses. The latter class will in later years complain that they never had a show, talk of their hard luck, etc., but never admit their lack of foresight and energy in the right direction.

Eli Egan is demonstrating that success is possible to all who strive for it, that a good education is within the reach of the poorest mortals, that life is largely what we make it. The fact that he has been chosen as principal of the Commercial department of an educational institution of high standing is a great credit to him. We congratulate the young man and know that he will fill the honorable position with credit to himself and to the institution. Confidence placed in Eli Egan is confidence well placed.

CUBAN DIARRHOEA.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs, of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors, but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by E. H. Miller.
