BIRDSEYE VIEW OF SALISBURY.

Something that Ought to Interest Salisbury People Who Have Located Elsewhere.

THE STAR has for sale a limited number of very fine pictures of Salisbury, size 22x32 inches, printed on extra heavy, smooth paper, from a very fine engraving. The sketching was done by T. M. Fowler, of Morrisville, Pa., who is an expert in his line and has been following his business in many different states of the Union.

The picture is very clear and distinct, showing all the streets plainly marked, and those familiar with the town can plainly recognize every building in it. The pictures have sold like "hot cakes" here, and a limited number have been placed with THE STAR to supply those at a distance, who may desire them.

Every former citizen of Salisbury ought to have one of these fine engravings, as they show the progress the old town has been making, which has been very great in recent years. But we cannot supply them all, and those who apply first will get them. The picture includes West Salisbury, the surrounding landscape and some of the farm houses in the immediate vicinity, also a large number of the principal buildings printed around the margin of the engraving, from special drawings.

Price, $1.50 per copy, plus 7 cents to pay postage. Address THE STAR, Elk Lick, Pa.

WOMEN DRESSMAKING By May Manton.

A SERVICEABLE WAIST.

Blouse or Shirt Waist 5005. Sizes 32 to 44 Bust. However much we may admire dainty and fancy waists there is always a place for the plain substantial one, and here is one of the best of all models. The fronts are laid in narrow plaits at the neck and can either be plaited or gathered at the waist line while the back allows a choice of yoke or no yoke and the sleeves are in regulation style but full at the shoulders. Madras, cheviot, cotton taffeta and the thinner batistes are all suited to the design as well as the white linen in which it is illustrated and which is peculiarly smart this season. Material required for medium size 3 1/2 yards 27 inches wide. Patterns mailed by Fashion Department ten cents each.

FOR SMALL CHILDREN.

Child's Under Waist and Drawers 4977. Sizes 2 to 8 Years. Nothing so contributive to the comfort of the active child as under garments that can be relied upon to stand all strain. The waist illustrated was designed with that fact in view, and is rendered durable by facing beneath the arms. The drawers are closed at the sides and fit the little wearer to a nicety. Cambric, long cloth, nainsook and the like are all appropriate with trimming either of embroidery, of durable lace or little frills of lawn. Material required for medium size (6 years) 1/2 yards 36 inches wide for the waist; 1 1/2 yards for drawers with 3/4 yards of edging for frills. Patterns mailed by Fashion Department ten cents each.

A PRETTY LITTLE FROCK.

Girl's Dress 5012. Sizes 6 to 12 Years. There is something particularly charming about the frock made with the slightly low neck and elbow sleeves. Here is one that also includes a most becoming and effective bertha and that allows a choice of this same pretty neck or the high one with long sleeves. The model is made from lawn, pink and white in color, with bertha and frills of pure white, and is as dainty as dainty can be but all simple seasonable materials are equally appropriate. Material required for medium size (10 years) 4 1/2 yards 27 inches wide with 1 1/2 yards of white lawn and 9 1/2 yards of insertion. Patterns mailed by Fashion Department ten cents each.

ENTIRE FAMILY IN JAIL.

A Meyersdale Official Committed Parents and Four Children to County Bastille.

A case of depravity at Meyersdale came to light Monday morning when officer John P. Swindell brought to Somerset on the early morning train Robert Crissey, his wife, and four young children. The parents were charged by the officer with maintaining a bawdy-house, and when he caused their arrest he brought the children to Somerset, probably not knowing what else to do with them.

The Sheriff was in a quandary as to what he should do with his new charge, as the law does not sanction the imprisonment in the county jail of children of the age of the Crisseys, which range from five months up. Later in the day three of the children were placed in charge of the Children's Aid Society of Somerset, but the babe is still with its mother.

The local Children's Aid Society has been doing a noble Christian work for unfortunate children in recent years, and it should receive a liberal financial appropriation from the county, because in such cases as the one cited above it must take care of children that should be supported by the communities in which they have lived.—Somerset Standard.

Pretty June Wedding.

On the evening of June 1st, at about 10 o'clock p. m., a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Wagner, on Grant street, the contracting parties being Mr. Charles Albert Petry, the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Petry, Sr., and Miss Mary Ella Wagner, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Wagner.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. S. Johnston, D. D., in the presence of forty-eight guests, and after the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Annie Wagner, and the happy couple were the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents.

The bride and groom are both very estimable young people, and THE STAR wishes their many admiring friends in wishing them a most happy and prosperous voyage over the matrimonial sea.

CUBAN DIARRHOEA.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know that this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs, of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors, but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by E. H. Miller. 7-1

Boy Badly Wounded by Accidental Discharge of Gun.

Last Saturday evening a young son of Charles Reckner, of West Salisbury, was badly wounded by the accidental discharge of a 22-caliber rifle in the hands of a playmate, a young son of Robert Gibson. The ball struck young Reckner in the abdomen, near the navel, then took a downward course, inflicting a serious wound. The ball is still in the lad's body, and it was at first thought by the physician called that the boy could not live more than a few hours. However, we are glad to note that the doctor now believes that the lad will recover.

Young Gibson was completely overcome by grief, and he was so sick for a while that he had to be put to bed.

Gruesome Find.

In the cleaning of a well on the Porter property, on the corner of Water and Main streets, one day last week, Mr. Charles Tusing came upon a bundle of rags nicely bound up, and which was taken to the surface and found to contain what is supposed to have been an infant child.
