BIRDSEYE VIEW OF SALISBURY.

Something that Ought to Interest Salisbury People Who Have Located Elsewhere.

THE STAR has for sale a limited number of very fine pictures of Salisbury, size 22x32 inches, printed on extra heavy, smooth paper, from a very fine engraving. The sketching was done by T. M. Fowler, of Morrisville, Pa., who is an expert in his line and has been following his business in many different states of the Union.

The picture is very clear and distinct, showing all the streets plainly marked, and those familiar with the town can plainly recognize every building in it. The pictures have sold like "hot cakes" here, and a limited number have been placed with THE STAR to supply those at a distance, who may desire them.

Every former citizen of Salisbury ought to have one of these fine engravings, as they show the progress the old town has been making, which has been very great in recent years. But we cannot supply them all, and those who apply first will get them. The picture includes West Salisbury, the surrounding landscape and some of the farm houses in the immediate vicinity, also a large number of the principal buildings printed around the margin of the engraving, from special drawings.

Price, $1.50 per copy, plus 7 cents to pay postage. Address THE STAR, Elk Lick, Pa.

HOME DRESSMAKING BY May Manton.

FOR SUMMER MORNINGS.

Illustrated it is made of a mixed linen material with the belt, collar and cuffs of plain color, braided in the form of a Greek fret, but chambray and galatea are much in vogue as well as linen, white and colored, while for cooler weather serge and shepherd's checks are greatly in fashion. Material required for medium size (4 years) 3 1/2 yards 27 inches wide. Patterns mailed by Fashion Department ten cents each.

THE NEW COTTON FOULARD.

Gathered Skirt Waist 4953, Sizes 32 to 40 Bust. Shirred Walking Skirt 4954, Sizes 22 to 30 Waist. Nothing marks the season more pleasantly than the variety of washable fabrics it has brought. The waist is full at the front and includes a shallow yoke at the back with regulation sleeves while the skirt combines a five gored upper portion with a shirred rounce, and is itself shirred to form a narrow yoke over the hips. The Democratic Primary.

Last Saturday's Democratic primary election was a very tame affair. There were no candidates in the field except for the offices of County Commissioner and County Auditor. The candidates for Commissioner were S. P. Geisel, of Hooversville; Joseph B. Miller, of Jefferson; Thomas E. Null, of Addison; George Donges, of Meyersdale. For Auditor the contest was between Geo. W. Bausch, of Quemahoning; S. P. Baker, of Lincoln; S. A. Kretschman, of Black; D. Compton, of Elk Lick.

Geisel withdrew from the contest for Commissioner and bent his energies to defeat Miller, but your uncle Joseph B. received more votes than Null and Donges combined. With Benson, Larimer, Paint, Ogle and New Baltimore still unheard from as we go to press, the vote for Commissioner stands as follows: Geisel, 23; Miller, 792; Donges, 489; Null, 271.

The vote for Auditor is, Bausch, 301; Baker, 284; Kretschman, 540; Compton, 402.

In a few districts no polls were opened, owing to the fact that there were no Democrats there to vote, and that wasn't much of a pity, either.

On Monday, following the primary, the Democratic county convention assembled in Somerset, tabulated the vote and placed a full set of candidates in the field. Following is the full Democratic county ticket to be voted for next November:

Sheriff, W. W. Coughenour, of Allegheny; Register and Recorder, G. G. Groff, of Confluence; Clerk of Courts, R. T. Hickman, of Windber; Clerk of Orphans' Court, R. C. Hefley, of Berlin; Treasurer, L. W. Weakland, of Meyersdale; Prothonotary, I. M. Hoover, of Hooversville; Commissioner, Joseph B. Miller, of Jefferson; Auditor, S. A. Kretschman, of Black; Poor House Director, Austin Blanset, of Quemahoning; Coroner, Jacob S. Picking, Jr., of Somerset; County Surveyor, Rufus Rauch, of Jennertown.

DYING OF FAMINE

is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at E. H. Miller's drug store, price 50c. and $1.00 a bottle. Trial bottle free. 7-1

Book Review.

"Lyrics of Childhood," by Edward Mayhugh (The Grafton Press, Publishers, New York), is a book so full of good things that it would be hard to say which is the best. The author has touched the chord of human sympathy in the same keen manner that Eugene Field and James Whitcomb Riley have done, and there is no doubt that as his little book becomes better known it will be welcomed in every home where childhood reigns. Not only, however, will the young find pleasure in "Lyrics of Childhood," but many older heads will enjoy the delightful memories of youth that Mr. Mayhugh's verses bring back in pure and refreshing vividness. As a book to pick up often and read in full, or here and there, for one's own pleasure, or aloud to children, it is one that will be sought many times. (12mo., cloth, $1.00 net).

JUST WHAT EVERYONE SHOULD DO.

Mr. J. T. Barber, of Irwinville, Ga., always keeps a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand ready for instant use. Attacks of colic, cholera morbus and diarrhoea come on so suddenly that there is no time to hunt a doctor or go to the store for medicine. Mr. Barber says: "I have tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which is one of the best medicines I ever saw. I keep a bottle of it in my room, as I have had several attacks of colic, and it has proved to be the best medicine I ever used." Sold by E. H. Miller. 7-1

Man's Opinion of the Flirt.

No man admires a flirt; no man cares for a girl or woman who is willing to trade pride for flattery. The girl who flirts thinks she is very wise and that she is making a great hit with the fellow with whom she flirts. She would have a very different idea of the matter if she could know his real opinion—if she could hear his account of the incident as he tells it to the "other fellows." There is no such thing as a "harmless" flirtation. No person may put his finger in the fire without getting the mark. No girl can indulge in a flirtation without being considered "cheap" and "shallow." The fact that the other girls do the "same thing" is no excuse.—EX.
