BIRDSEYE VIEW OF SALISBURY.

Something that Ought to Interest Salisbury People Who Have Located Elsewhere.

The STAR has for sale a limited number of very fine pictures of Salisbury, size 22x32 inches, printed on extra heavy, smooth paper, from a very fine engraving. The sketching was done by T. M. Fowler, of Morrisville, Pa., who is an expert in his line and has been following his business in many different states of the Union.

The picture is very clear and distinct, showing all the streets plainly marked, and those familiar with the town can plainly recognize every building in it. The pictures have sold like "hot cakes" here, and a limited number have been placed with THE STAR to supply those at a distance, who may desire them.

Every former citizen of Salisbury ought to have one of these fine engravings, as they show the progress the old town has been making, which has been very great in recent years. But we cannot supply them all, and those who apply first will get them. The picture includes West Salisbury, the surrounding landscape and some of the farm houses in the immediate vicinity, also a large number of the principal buildings printed around the margin of the engraving, from special drawings.

Price, $1.50 per copy, plus 7 cents to pay postage. Address THE STAR, Elk Lick, Pa.

COURT PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, The Honorable Francis J. Kooser, President Judge of the Sixteenth Judicial District has ordered that a special or adjourned Court of Common Pleas, of Quarter Sessions and Orphans' Court, for the trial of cases herein, shall be held at Somerset, Pa., on Monday, September 4, 1905, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M. of said day. Now, therefore, I, Andrew J. Coleman, High Sheriff of Somerset county, hereby issue my proclamation giving notice to all jurors and witnesses summoned, and to all parties in causes to be then and there tried, to be in attendance at said Court.

ANDREW J. COLEMAN, Sheriff.

COURT PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, The Hon. FRANCIS J. KOOSER, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Somerset, being the Sixteenth Judicial District, and Justice of the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, for the trial of all capital and other offenders in the said district, and Hon. A. F. DICKY, Associate Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, and Justice of the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery for the trial of all capital and other offenders in the County of Somerset, have issued their precepts, and to me directed, for holding a Court of Common Pleas and General Quarter Sessions of the Peace and General Jail Delivery, and Courts of Oyer and Terminer, at Somerset, on MONDAY, SEPT. 11, 1905.

NOTICE is hereby given to all the Justices of the Peace, the Coroner and Constables within the said county of Somerset, that they be then and there in their proper persons with their rolls, records, inquisitions, examinations and other remembrances, to do those things which to their office and in that behalf appertain to be done, and also they who will prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the jail of Somerset County, to be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.
ANDREW J. COLEMAN, Sheriff.

Home Circle Department.

Crude Thoughts As They Fall From the Editorial Pen.— Pleasant Evening Reveries.

"Home's not merely four square walls, Though with pictures hung and gilded; Home is where affection calls, Filled with shrines the heart hath builded! Home! go watch the faithful dove, Salling'neath the heaven above us; Home is where there's one to love! Home is where there's one to love us!"

"Home's not merely roof and room, It needs something to endure it; Home is where the heart can bloom, Where there's some kind lip to cheer it! What is home with none to meet, Home to welcome none to greet us? Home is sweet,—and only sweet,— Where there's one we love to meet us!"

It is a fact which mathematics cannot explain, that the more affection we leave at home the more we carry with us.

A happy home does not result from a large income. A large amount of love, plenty of good sense and a very little money will make a happy home circle.

Keep your head clear, your conscience fair, your heart pure, young woman, and go out into the world and make a life for yourself. It is your right as well as your duty.

"The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world." This is a saying as old as the hills, but were it true, our great men in our great cities would not be on trial and sent to prison pens for "boodle" and "graft." When the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world, there will be "a school house on every hilltop and no saloon in the valley."

DUTY OF OUR CHILDREN.

We have not done our duty by our children until we have done our utmost to surround them with the best moral influences. Morals are peculiarly contagious, life is communicated by life; sincerity and simplicity are not transmitted by precept, but by example.

LIKE MOTHER LIKE CHILD.

Children are very observant, and even the tiny little ones notice the difference between the smile and the frown on the parent's face. Year by year, as children grow older, and the souls, minds and hearts begin to expand under the influence of the environments, sensitive children usually cultivate unconsciously the mother's disposition. The child will be sad and melancholy if the mother sighs and complains. If the child is independent and self-reliant, often under such circumstances it will become stubborn and defiant. When the child leaves the childhood behind and becomes a young man or woman, then the evil effects of the sad mother becomes still more apparent. "Mother is blue and home is a gloomy place," and the young people seek their amusement elsewhere. And then the mother becomes blue indeed, because she cannot control the family, and they do not enjoy the home. The sad mother has a depressing influence on the home. She comes to the breakfast table sighing; the family hurry through the meal, and all seem relieved when it is finished. The household tasks are taken up with a heavy spirit, and the whole house has a funereal appearance. The gloomy, complaining woman has few friends, and spends much of her time alone; there is an estrangement between herself and the other members of the family; her children seek brighter and more congenial friends, and the confidence and companionship that should have been her's are given to others. Mothers have heavy burdens, but they are committing a great wrong when they allow those burdens to shadow the lives of the members of their families.

MOTHER.

Alas! how little do we appreciate our mother's tender love while she is with us, though dutiful and devoted to her. After her lips are closed forever, and we know she will never more lead us by her counsel, cheer us along the pathway when thorns pierce us, shadows gather over us, then we turn memory's pages and feel that if we only had mother back how many rays of sunshine we would bring into her heart. So many kindnesses we might have shown her if we had only known she was going away so soon to return no more. How often these thoughts will pass through your mind after your sweet old mother leaves you, if she has not even now passed over the Dark River.

"Yet oft as I look backward o'er the long, long waste of years, My heart is filled with tender pain, my eyes grow dim with tears, As I recall with vain regret and many a secret smart, How oft in times of waywardness I grieved her tender heart.

While these thoughts come, our mother's tender love comforts. We feel that while we have grieved her many times, her love wrapped the mantle of charity about us. This is comfort. To those who are blest with a mother, let us beg that you treat her with the tenderest care. For no matter how you treat her, when she leaves, you will feel many regrets.

THE ART OF "DOING" PEOPLE.

Under this head THE STAR will from week to week expose some of the fraudulent advertising schemes by which shrewd charlatans in various cities and towns gather in the hard-earned coin of unsuspecting persons who are usually on the lookout to get something of considerable value for a trifling consideration, or who are looking for easy employment at good wages. Read this column closely, as it may save you from being a "sucker" and foolishly parting with your money.

THE LETTER-WRITING DODGE.

Something similar to the work-at-home scheme is what may be described as the letter-writing dodge. The following is a typical advertisement of its class:

LADIES: Earn $20 per hundred writing short letters. Stamped envelopes for particulars. GEM MFG. CO., Cassopolis, Michigan.

When the woman anxious to earn an honest penny replies to this "ad" she receives the following letter:

DEAR MADAM—We pay at the rate of $20 per hundred or twenty cents for each letter sent us in accordance with our printed circular of instructions, and make remittance to you of all money earned by you at the end of each week. The letter which we send you to copy contains only eighty words, and can be written either with typewriter or with pen and ink as you prefer and you can readily see that you can write a number of letters during your leisure time each day.

You do not pay us one penny for anything, except $1.00 for the instructions and for packing and mailing the Ideal Hoodwinkem which we send you.

There is no canvassing connected with the work, and if you follow our instructions you can start good wages from the start.

When the victim sends her dollar for the instructions and for the Ideal Hoodwinkem (or whatever the name of the article the fakirs are selling happens to be), she discovers that the twenty cents is not to be paid merely for writing a letter. Oh, no! The twenty cents will be paid only for such letters as induce some other woman to part with a dollar for one of "Our Ideal Hoodwinkems." The following letter which is sent after the unsuspecting one's dollar has been safely salted down lays bare the true inwardness of the scheme:

DEAR MADAM—We herewith hand you trial blanks, also copy of letter which you are to write. You are to send these letters out to ladies, and for every letter which you write and send out and which is returned to us with $1.00 enclosed for one of our Ideal Hoodwinkems, with your number on the letter, we will send you a cash commission of twenty cents.

It is needless to say that the fakirs do not expect their victim to be so stupid as to send out the letters on the terms indicated. The object of the plan is accomplished when "Dear Madam" parts with her dollar for the letter of instruction and the Hoodwinkem, which would be dear at ten cents.

FIENDISH SUFFERING

is often caused by sores, ulcers and cancers that eat away your skin. Wm. Bedell, of Flat Rock, Mich., says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, for Ulcers, Sores and Cancers. It is the best healing dressing I ever found." Soothes and heals cuts, burns and scalds. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store; guaranteed. 9-1

Runaways on the Street.

Under the above heading, the Cumberland Courier some time ago made the following very sensible suggestions:

"The city should fine any one for allowing his horse to run off, through carelessness, on the streets. It is very dangerous. It is a rare thing that a horse runs away, except because of the carelessness of the driver. Often the drivers are drunk and haven't sense enough to drive. Their foolishness might cause cripples or death. Every run-off should be investigated, and when the evidence shows carelessness or drunkenness, the driver of the team should be arrested and punished. People's lives and limbs are too valuable to be endangered by criminal carelessness or drunkenness of others. Liverymen who hire teams to drunken people should be held responsible for at least part of the damages when the team is let run away on the public streets. A street runaway is as dangerous as concealed weapons."

THE ONLY WAY.

There is no way to maintain the health and strength of mind and body except by nourishment. There is no way to nourish except through the stomach. The stomach must be kept healthy, pure and sweet, or the strength will let down and disease will set up! No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, sour risings, rifting, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles that are curable are quickly cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Kodol digests what you eat and strengthens the whole digestive apparatus. Sold by E. H. Miller. 9-1

WHEN A MAN TELLS YOU it does not pay to advertise, he is simply admitting that he is conducting a business that is not worth advertising, a business conducted by a man unfit to do business, and a business which should be advertised for sale.

SOOTHING AND COOLING.

The salve that heals without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. No remedy effects such speedy relief. It draws out inflammation, soothes, cools and heals all cuts, burns and bruises. A sure cure for Piles and skin diseases. DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of counterfeits. They are dangerous. Sold by E. H. Miller. 9-1
