Most Likely the Latter.

It has remained for Gov. Mickey, of Nebraska, to fix a new standard of official fitness under his regime. When the name of an applicant for a position is presented to him, he asks only two questions: Does he drink? Does he swear? If either is answered affirmatively, the applicant may as well hang his harp on the willows. If both questions are answered negatively, the man's chances are said to be good, regardless of political backing. Evidently one of three results will follow the Governor's new regulations. He will either inaugurate a great wave of total abstinence and expurgated language, deprive the state of enough public servants to transact its official business, or produce a great crop of Hars-Johnstown Tribunes.

PECULIAR DISAPPEARANCE.

J. D. Runyan, of Butleville, O., laid the peculiar disappearance of his painful symptoms of indigestion and biliousness, to Dr. King's New Life Pills. He says: "They are a perfect remedy for dizziness, sour stomach, headache, constipation, etc." Guaranteed at E. H. Miller's drug store, price 25c. 9-1

TRUE TO THE COLORS

Republicans of Pennsylvania Stand By the Party Standard-Bearers.

DISORGANIZERS ARE REBUKED

Party Men in York and Somerset Among the First to Meet Insurgent Attacks.

[Special Correspondence.]
Harrisburg, Aug. 8.
It is apparent from reports received from all over the state that the Republicans of the interior of the commonwealth do not propose to be drawn into the political troubles and the factional contests in Philadelphia.

The action of the Republican party convention in York last week emphasized this determination on the part of the members of the Republican party living outside of the borders of Philadelphia. The general feeling is that the citizens of Philadelphia are thoroughly competent to work out their own reforms, and to find a remedy for their abuses that may have crept into the management of their municipal affairs.

It was to be expected that the men who have for years been seeking to disrupt the Republican organization would take advantage of the situation in Philadelphia and attempt to stir up trouble and strife within the Republican organization in other counties of the state. It is known that emissaries from the old insurgent contingent in the Quaker City have been sent out through the state to incite and encourage factional feeling in the several counties in the expectation of dividing the Republicans and contributing to the success of the Democratic schemes to win votes for their candidate for state treasurer, Berry, and to pave the way for a fusion campaign for governor next year.

York Republicans Act.

York Republicans in their county convention were the first to meet the party wrecking campaigners and they made short work of the job.

H. C. Niles, a member of the bar, who has business and personal associations with one of the active insurgents in Philadelphia, sought to get the Republican convention of York county to adopt resolutions which were calculated to promote the ends of the party wreckers. It was a palpable attempt to inject the Philadelphia scandals into the politics of York county, but it failed signally. Chairman Robert C. Bair, of the Republican committee of York county, in opposing Mr. Niles' resolutions on the floor of the convention, said: "For twenty years the Republicans of York county have been fighting graft in the Democratic ranks, while Mr. Niles was sitting comfortably at home. We have labored hard to bring York county out of the disgrace into which the Democrats brought it and now that we are on the way to success Mr. Niles comes forward with his resolution and his attempts to divert the attentions of the people from the work cut out for them to do at home.

"The Republicans of York oppose graft wherever it is found and applaud the noble men who have the manhood to fight to wipe it out. In fact we are doing that very thing ourselves and we do not favor bringing the fights of other communities into our labors while we have so much to do."

Mr. Bair's speech was received with great applause and when Mr. Niles' resolution came before the convention it received but three votes, one of which was cast by Mr. Niles himself.

After the convention it was pointed out that Mr. Niles is a disappointed candidate for the Republican nomination for the superior court. He was twice honored by his party in York county with the delegates for this office, but the Republicans of Pennsylvania in their state convention concluded in each instance that there was more deserving candidate who was nominated. One of these was Judge Henderson, of Crawford county, and the other Judge Morrison, of McKean county. Mr. Niles has since been out of sorts and disposed to criticize the leaders of the organization of the state.

Somerset Stalwarts Serene.
Somerset is another county in which the Republicans who believe in their party and its glorious record have set their faces hard against the assistant Democrats who are active in their efforts to sow discord in the Republican organization of the state.

Editor S. A. Kendall, of the Meyersdale Republican, has been paying his respects to those who have been trying to make trouble in that county. He wants them to stand up and be counted. He charges that the head and front of the movement in that county was a Bryan Democrat, and that "he has been on every side of the question since then, and the men who are backing him up in the present fiasco have a record as shady as his own."

Fighting Talk This.

Continuing to comment upon their agitation for a fusion ticket and their predictions of Republican defeat, Editor Kendall says: "It is all bosh and rot, for Somerset county Republicans long since quit following the leadership of these men, and they take no more stock in a fusion ticket this year than they did last, when they polled 700 votes in the county.

"We have tired of these cowardly onslaughts, and we only trust that they will keep their word and place a 'bolters' ticket in the field this fall, that they may receive the licking for which their hides seem to be fairly itching. Somerset county is a Republican county, and it has never bent its knee to any class of disgruntled office-seekers, who never were Republicans except for revenue, and if they don't believe this assertion, let them come out of their hiding and array themselves up in proper line against the organization and make a fight for their dirty political methods, or keep still and quit their malicious talk about their betters.

"Talk is cheap, and all talk of a fusion ticket in this county this fall comes from the cheapest lot of broken-down politicians that any county was ever burdened with."

FARMERS ARE IN LINE

Why Agriculturalists of Pennsylvania Are With Republican Party.

NEW PURE BUTTER CRUSADE

Great Work of the New Department of Health Reflects Credit Upon the Administration.

[Special Correspondence.]
Philadelphia, Aug. 8.

The movement started at a meeting at West Chester, under the auspices of Pomono Grange, No. 3, of Chester county, to bring about more satisfactory legislation by congress for the protection of the pure butter and dairy interests of this and other states, is one of far reaching significance.

This action was taken after the revelations made by Pure Food Commissioner Dr. B. H. Warren in his prosecutions growing out of the charge that oleomargarine colored as butter was being sold as butter to the United States navy.

After consultation between the national and state authorities it was decided that action should be taken under the Pennsylvania pure food laws because they were found to be far more stringent, comprehensive and sweeping than the federal statutes.

The farmers and dairymen of Pennsylvania will lead in the movement to have congress amend and strengthen the present statutes regarding the sale of oleomargarine. They will demand that the clause in the sixth section of the present statute, which reads that every person who "delivers or offers to deliver any oleomargarine, etc., shall be amended so that the word "knowingly" shall be stricken out. Then it will not be necessary to prove before a conviction can be had that the guilty party "knowingly" violated the intent and spirit of the law.

Farmers' Interests Protected.

It is a matter of comment that the Republican party of Pennsylvania has always been jealous and deeply considerate of the interests of the farmers and dairymen of this state. Laws calculated to benefit the agricultural interests have been placed upon the statute books and they have stood the test in the courts. Not only is this legislation carefully and properly drafted, but the laws are enforced.

The work of Secretary of Agriculture N. B. Critchfield and of Pure Food Commissioner Dr. B. H. Warren in protecting the farming interest of this commonwealth is one of the most gratifying features of Governor Pennypacker's administration.

No other department has reflected more credit upon the state administration and upon the Republican party.

One of the pleasant experiences of the early campaign work by Chairman Wesley R. Andrews, of the Republican state committee, is the correspondence in reference to the feeling among the farmers and dairymen of the state. Every agricultural district is reported to be strongly in line with the Republican party. The dairymen are especially appreciative of the splendid work being done to protect the butter interests of the state and they confidently count upon the hearty co-operation of Senators Penrose and Knox and every one of the Republican members of the lower house of congress from this state in the movement to have the federal statutes regarding the sale of oleomargarine made as stringent and satisfactory as is the law passed by the Republican legislators of Pennsylvania and which is enforced with unflinching rigor in every section and county of the commonwealth.

Dr. Dixon's Great Work.

The news columns of the papers of the entire country have within the last week told of the diligent and thorough work being done by another department of the state administration. The protection of the health and the very lives of the citizens of the state is the aim of the recently created state health commission, under the direction of that eminent scientist, physician and sanitary specialist, Dr. Samuel G. Dixon. No appointment that Governor Pennypacker has ever made met with more general and more sincere commendation than his selection of Dr. Dixon as state health commissioner. His prompt organization of his office and immediate prosecution of the mission which he and his assistants have been delegated to fill, is characteristic of the man.

Under the administration of Dr. Dixon no arbitrary acts will be committed, but the law will be enforced for the good of all the citizens of the several communities and with due consideration for the various interests affected. While people are dying like sheep in Louisiana from yellow fever, the health authorities of Pennsylvania are working night and day to safeguard the people from epidemics of all kinds, and the precautions already taken have resulted in a marked decrease in the death rate in many sections of the state.

Dr. Dixon's force is co-operating with local authorities wherever possible. The sources of pollution of rivers are being investigated, and remedies are being applied without delay and plans are being mapped out for permanent reforms in every direction.
