Important Announcement!

To the people of Salisbury and vicinity I wish to announce that I have purchased the undertaking business of Rutter & Will in Meyersdale, and have moved to that town.

However, I have not sold out in that line in Salisbury, and I have a representative to look after my interests in Salisbury, where I shall keep constantly on hand a fine stock of Undertaking Goods, Coffins, Caskets, Etc.

L. C. Boyer is my Salisbury salesman, and can sell you anything you may need in my line. I will continue to do embalming and funeral directing, both in Salisbury and Meyersdale.

Thanking the public for a generous patronage in the past, and soliciting a liberal future patronage, I remain your servant,

H. McCULLOH, Meyersdale, Pa.

Can you blame Envoy Witte for seeing the yellow peril?

An indemnity payable in gold, is the real yellow peril to Russia.

In proof that the yellow peril is real, Witte can point to the position of Lin-vitch's army.

M. WITTE wants it understood that the Russian bear is particular about who licks him.

"REIMBURSEMENT" may sound nicer to the Russians than "indemnity," but it is just as expensive.

The Union Pacific has discharged all its negro cooks from the dining-car service. Color line? No; dirt line.

The bakers' strike in New York is diverting attention from the man behind the gun, and focusing it on the man behind the bun.

ONE Missouri statesman walks and talks in his sleep. Doubtless others of them would like to convince the jury that they took bribes that way.

M. WITTE is said to have ironclad instructions, but it will be remembered that the Japanese have shown ability in destroying Russian ironclads.

The shotgun is used for quarantining purposes in some parts of this country. We continue, however, to send missionaries to the heathen.

In conceding the next Presidential election to the Republicans, Editor Watterson must have an idea that the Democrats are going to nominate Bryan again.

When he reads about the bears and wildcats that roam in the land where Elihu Root is hunting, "Teddy" realizes that being tied down to a presidential job has its drawbacks.

SENATOR STONE told the Missouri dairymen that he had shaved off his mustache in order to make it easier to drink buttermilk. He can use the same jolly when he addresses a brewers' convention.

The Meyersdale Commercial is now calling for Gen. W. H. Koontz to represent this county in the next Legislature. Several years ago when Mr. Koontz was duly nominated for that office by the Republicans of this county, the Commercial openly bolted his nomination and tried its utmost to defeat him at the November election. Editor Smith charged that General Koontz was anti-Quay, and all kinds of a muggump and bolter, but he was elected, just the same, and his political record stands just as it did. THE STAR is for whoever gets the Republican nomination, no matter whether it is General Koontz or some other fellow, and whoever it will be will have no trouble in showing up as well as any man that the Democrats or bolters can possibly bring forth. The Commercial never knows which party it is in, and its politics change with the moon. Smith's political vomit of one campaign is usually eaten by him in the next. He makes people tired with his wishy-washy tactics.

It is a sad spectacle, indeed, when we behold the large number of young men of respectable birth in this vicinity who insist on throwing all their future happiness, usefulness and prosperity to the dogs, as it were, by associating and carousing with a lot of low-bred ignoramus that were conceived in sin and brought forth in iniquity. Every day we see young men of respectable parentage "going to the dogs" as fast as foolish and criminal associates can drag them down, and young men who have had and still have fine advantages to educate themselves and make their mark in the world, prefer to waste their opportunities, sadden and break the hearts of their parents, bring disgrace and contempt upon themselves, etc. And all this sacrifice they make in order to be classed as good fellows by a set of thugs that couldn't even associate with sheep dogs without still further degrading the dogs. Young man, you who have everything to lose and nothing to gain by bad companionship, stop and consider what you are doing. Go to that loving father and mother, if it is your good fortune to have living parents, ask their forgiveness and then turn a new leaf in life's history—a leaf that you should resolve to keep clean and fill only with a creditable record. You cannot afford to murder your parents by inches, stifle your own conscience, throttle your manhood, damn your own soul and have the contempt of all decent people for the mere sake of having a stand-in with brainless, conscienceless thugs and carousing with such slimy, blighting, damnable companionship.

ABOUT RIGHT.

Something About Progress Strangers That is Worth Reading.

An exchange prints the following mirror that reflects on a number of well known characters:

A town that never has anything to do in a public way, is on the way to the cemetery. Any citizen who will do nothing for his town, furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time for business to give to city affairs, is making the shroud. The man who will not advertise, is always pulling back from any public enterprise, throws bouquets on the grave. The man who is so stingy and selfish as to be howling hard times, preaches the funeral sermon and sings the doxology, and thus the town lies buried.

MANY THANKS!

Life is Still Worth Living and Some of the Salt of the Earth is Still Left.

Of course, editors never need money. At any rate many people seem to think that it doesn't matter whether they ever pay for the newspapers they read or not. We have some of that kind on our list, but it is not our purpose at this time to say much about them. On this occasion we wish to pay our respects to some who pay, for they are of the salt of the earth and the ones who make the editor's life worth living—the kind of people who keep the world moving and believe in the Golden Rule. We have recently been favored with cash from a number of good, honest subscribers, and we want them to know that we appreciate their patronage.

Among those who have recently been helping us out on subscriptions are the following: George Engle, $1.50; Elmer Folk, $1.25; John W. Livengood, $5.75; M. D. Miller, $2.00; Griffith Thomas, $3.00; Mrs. Harvey Wagner, $1.50; Mrs. John J. Livengood, $2.00; John Edmuns-on, $5.00; Evaline Livengood, $1.25; S. Lowry, $1.50; D. T. Price, $2.70; M. F. Lichty, $5.00.

We sent Marcy Price a statement for $8.53, and the big fellow didn't do a thing but send a hanged sight more and write on the bill, "Just give us more subscription for the balance."

Genial Ed. Shumaker, the proprietor of Shumaker's popular family medicines, of Berkeley, Pa., also adds his mite by sending his check for $1.25, and asks to be added to the growing number of readers of our "wide-awake paper." And other new subscribers are bobbing up here and there, and all agree that the merry twinkler is a star of the first magnitude, that it is in a class by itself, and that they get more solid satisfaction and benefit out of it than any other paper in Somerset county. And all this is true, even as it is recorded in the Great Luminary of the Eleventh volume and the Thirty-second number. Selah!

PUBLIC IS AROUSED.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months, I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at E. H. Miller's drug store; price 50c. 9-1

A Bad Case of Depravity.

Word comes to our ears of a most depraved case in this community, and it is enough to cause the blush of shame to surmount the face of every decent person. One night this past week, a young girl not yet 16 years of age, was taken into a certain livery barn in this city, by a traveling man, it is claimed, and kept hidden away there until the following evening, in a beastly state of intoxication. That the help about the stable were aware of the fact, there is but little doubt. One of the borough officers located the girl there, after her mother had said that she had been gone for a night and a day. The burgess had the girl before him, but she would not impart any information that would allow of the arrest of her male companions, so they are allowed to go without punishment.—Meyersdale Republican.

Somewhat Erroneous.

Rev. S. M. Cousins tells The Gazette that there is an epidemic of typhoid fever in Salisbury. The disease appears to prevail in one portion of town, and, of course, is due to local conditions, probably foul water.—Rockwood Gazette.

It is true that there is an epidemic of typhoid fever here, but it is not correct that it is all confined to one portion of the town. Some of it is on Grant street, some on Ord street, some on Gay street, and some in West Salisbury. The water in the infested districts may be contaminated, but it is not probable, as most of the afflicted families have wells of clear, cold and sparkling water—wells which have always ranked among the best in the town.

FIENDISH SUFFERING

is often caused by sores, ulcers and can-cers that eat away your skin. Wm. Bedell, of Flat Rock, Mich., says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, for Ulcers, Sores and Cancers. It is the best healing dressing I ever found." Soothes and heals cuts, burns and scalds. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store; guaranteed. 9-1
