LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

NEWSY ITEMS GATHERED HERE AND THERE, WITH AN OCCASIONAL JOKE ADDED FOR SPICE.

These be busy days for the steam threshermen.

Theodore Ringler, of Pittsburg, arrived in town last week for a visit with the home folks.

There will be preaching in the church of the Evangelical Association, Gay street, at 10 a. m., Sunday morning next.

C. T. Hay and daughter Hattie went to Elkins, W. Va., Monday, to visit friends and attend the Elkins fair and races.

Elmer Fair, of Braddock, Pa., was here last week to attend the funeral of his nephew, Lester Fair, of West Salisbury, Pa.

Miss Annie Smith returned from Somerset, Monday evening, where she had been visiting her friend Mrs. Joseph Levy.

Miss Alberta Baumgardner, who had been visiting Salisbury friends during the past three weeks, returned to her home at Gibbons Glade, Monday.

Mrs. Chas. Boucher and children, of Duquesne, Pa., who have been visiting friends in Salisbury for a couple of weeks, will return home this week.

For young and old the best pill sold is Dr. Dade's Little Liver Pills. Never gripe, never fail to cleanse the system and tone the liver. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

John Ginawasky, a foreign miner employed at Merchants mine No. 2, was recently hurt by a fall of roof coal and sent to a Johnstown hospital, where he died of his injuries, last Sunday.

John K. Shaw, Sr., the well known Baltimore coal merchant, brother of the late Major Alexander Shaw, died several days ago. Another brother, William, also died very recently.

The Postoffice Department has given notice that the Coal Run postoffice will be discontinued after Sept. 30, next. The rural free delivery service is gradually knocking out the little country postoffices, everywhere.

The picnic held here by the German Beneficial Union, last Saturday, was not as largely attended as was hoped by its promoters, and the Johnstown Reed Band, which was advertised, failed to put in its appearance.

The most pleasant and positive cure for indigestion, heartburn and all stomach troubles is Ring's Dyspepsia Tablets. They aid digestion, tone and strengthen the stomach. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

Miss Lizzie Livengood, of Pittsburg, arrived in town last week for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Livengood. Lizzie is looking remarkably well, and all the time she is looking younger while growing older.

This is the season of the year when the good housewife keeps "hobby" busy buying sugar for use in making jellies and preserves. It requires a good income for "hobby" to supply all the sugar that "wifey" wants at this season of the year.

In mentioning some names, last week, of good people who have been favoring THE STAR with cash on subscription, we credited M. D. Miller with $2.00 by mistake. We should have said L. W. Miller, and we cheerfully make the correction.

The original is always the best—imitations are cheap. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. It is different from all others—it is better than all others—it is better than all others, because it cures all coughs and colds and leaves the system stronger than before. The letter B in red is on every package. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

J. C. Balliet started his old home county in the eastern part of the state, Sunday morning last. He will attend his home county fair and try to secure a few orders for traction engines manufactured by our home company. We wish him success.

One dose of Pineules taken at bedtime will entirely relieve the most obstinate case of backache before morning. Pineules is a certain cure for all kidney and bladder troubles. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

A private mailing card which is being circulated throughout the country contains this Atchison doggerel: "There was a man in Atchison whose trousers had rough patchison; he found them great, he'd often state to scratch those parlor matichison."

Mr. E. D. Miller is again able to be about town. He was a very sick man, and probably approached as near to the brink of the silent river as one may come without crossing over. May his recovery be full and permanent.—Rockwood Gazette.

"The only business man we ever met who kept busy without advertising," says an exchange, "was an Arkansas grocer who was afflicted with the seven-year itoh and carried a Waterbury watch. When he was not scratching himself he was winding his watch."

Mrs. Geo. C. Biser went to Frederick county, Md., last week, for a visit at her old home. Mr. Biser is already looking very lonely, and he admits that he misses "wifey" very much. It's always the case when a fellow has a good wife, and we know it by experience.

Pineasive contains the antiseptic properties of the native pine, and is a sure cure for sunburn, tan, tetter, eczema and all other skin diseases. Heals a sore, cut or burn without a scar. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

The M. E. church at Boynton will be dedicated, Sunday, Sep. 3rd. Rev. J. F. Murray, D. D., will have charge of the services. Rev. J. W. Langdale, A. B., of Meyersdale, will preach in the afternoon. Services: 10:30 a. m., 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Everybody cordially invited.

While at Jennings, Md., last Saturday, we had the pleasure of meeting our old friend and schoolmate, Alvin Getty. Mr. Getty holds a good position in the First National Bank of Cumberland, Md., and has been in the employ of that bank for the last fourteen years.

Owing to the heavy rains, this year, our farmers report a light oat crop. However, here and there a good crop has been harvested. Cyrus Rodamer, who resides in the vicinity of Springs postoffice, threshed 203 bushels of wheat from 5½ acres. That's good enough for any year.

The most wonderful cure for piles is ManZan, put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle attached. It reaches the spot, stops pain instantly, and cures all kinds of blind, bleeding, itching or protruding piles. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

"Now, gentlemen," said a nobleman to his guests, as the ladies left the room, "let us understand each other; are we to drink like men or like brutes?" The guests, somewhat indignant, exclaimed, "Like men, of course." "Then," replied he, "we are going to get jolly drunk, for brutes never drink more than they want."

The little borough of Stoyestown will vote on bonding the town for water works, Saturday, Sept. 9th, and it is believed that the proposition will carry by a snug majority. In the meantime, Salisbury, which is more than four times as large and wealthy as Stoyestown, is making no effort for a water plant. And it is no credit to Salisbury, either.

Mr. A. D. Johnson and family, of Uniontown, Pa., arrived in town, Friday of last week, for a visit with Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Keim. Mr. Johnson is suffering from two paralytic strokes which came upon him recently, but we are glad to note that his condition is improving. He is a prominent business man of Uniontown.

Pineules contain the alterative and diuretic properties found in the native pine. A certain cure for all liver, kidney and bladder diseases. A single dose of Pineules will relieve the worst case of backache in one night. Sole by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

Geo. P. Walker, of Coal Run, was a welcome caller at THE STAR office, last week. We had a good, long chat with him, and we have always found George to be a pretty level-headed man. He and a number of other people are greatly opposed to the discontinuance of the Coal Run postoffice, of which the Postoffice Department has given notice to go into effect on Sept. 30th.

A little boy who takes an interest in statistics has figured out that the spanking he got at home for breaking one plate was thirty per cent. more severe than the one he got at his grand-ma's for breaking ten plates; also that his grandmother has seventy-three per cent. more to eat on the table than his mother, but spends seven per cent. less time in the kitchen getting it ready.

They must have a strange brand of Democrats in Oakland, Md., according to the Journal, of that place, which says: "The Democratic primaries held here on last Saturday were in striking contrast to those held by the Republicans a week or two previous. There was neither boodle nor booze as a weapon of warfare and all went off to the entire satisfaction of the 'un-terrified.'"

While returning from Meyersdale, Monday afternoon, J. L. Barchus, E. H. Miller and Ernest Livengood had quite an exciting experience. A loosened singletree caused their team to take fright and proceed to run away. All jumped out of the "rig," but in some way Mr. Barchus got his foot caught and was dragged about 25 feet before he and his companions could bring the horses to a standstill. Luckily no one was hurt, but if Mr. Barchus hadn't stuck to the lines and kept his presence of mind, he might have been killed.

Every man owes it to himself and his family to master a trade or profession. Read the display advertisement of the six Morse Schools of Telegraphy. In this issue, and learn how easily a young man or lady may learn telegraphy and be assured a position. 12-1

A western farmer came to the pastor of his congregation and asked that his name be taken off the church books. "What is the trouble, Brother Jones?" asked the surprised pastor. "I supposed you were a faithful follower of the Lamb." "Well, I sorter belived that myself, but there is just no use talking, a man can't serve the Lord when he has to milk four cows in fly time. After the first heavy frost I'll try this church business again, but just now I either have to sell the cows, give up the church or be a durned hypocrite."

She was a Jennings girl, and they were at the baseball game, last Saturday. She had won his enthusiastic heart, understanding the game, and he loved her more than if she had been his sister. "It reminds me of the household," he said, "the plate, the batter, the fouts and the flies." "And it reminds me of marriage," she added. "First the diamond, where they are engaged, the struggle and the hits when the men go out, and finally the difficulty they have in getting home." Then the Salisbury youth sat and thought.

All old-time cough syrups were designed to treat throat, lung and bronchial affections without due regard for the stomach and bowels, hence most of them produce constipation. Bee's, the original Laxative Honey and Tar, gently moves the bowels and cures all coughs, colds, croup, etc. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. Look for the letter B in red on every package. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

Miss Mabel Beachy, of Somerset, the young woman so badly injured in the recent wreck on the S. & C. branch that it was thought for a day or two she could not recover, was discharged last Thursday from the Johnstown hospital. Although still very weak, she has practically recovered from her terrible ordeal, and will, it is expected, be herself again in a couple of weeks. From the hospital she was taken to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Witt, of No. 304 Haynes street, where she remained a day or two before going home to Somerset.

Mr. Q. A. McClure showed the editor a pumpkin vine in his garden, Tuesday, that is truly a wonder. The vine was 42 feet long on Tuesday morning, and for some time has been growing at the rate of about 5 or 6 inches a day. Some of the stems are 20 inches long and 4½ inches in circumference, while the largest of the leaves measure 30 inches across. Five nice pumpkins are growing on the vine, and as Mr. McClure has a large number of other pumpkins in his garden, two of them weighing about 75 pounds each, he can consider himself solid for luscious pumpkin pies all winter.

George O. Dilling has in his possession a nest of small squirrels and the mother, which was taken from a bunch of bananas yesterday. The bananas, which were purchased from a wholesale fruit merchant of this city, were delivered to Mr. Dilling yesterday afternoon. As he was cutting the bunch into small quantities he came across a nest in which were four small squirrels, each about three inches in length, and the mother. The small animals, which are of the species of the squirrel which abound in the tropical regions, had evidently made the nest in the bunch of bananas before the fruit had ripened sufficient to be sent here.—Altoona Times.

Last Sunday Landlord H. C. Farner and wife, Thomas Garlitz and other Sand Patch people arranged for a picnic in the woods near Simon Glatfely's sawmill, in Greenville township, where they were joined by H. W. DeLozier and family, W. H. Engle and family, A. A. Sharp and family, G. G. DeLozier and family, Howard Yaist and family, Grant Watkins and family, Simon Tedrow, W. B. Stevanus, Frank Wagner and "Bert" Snyder, all of Salisbury. They had a large supply of choice eatables, etc., and report a good time. Genial "Jake" Glatfely kindly loaned the picnicers his Hathaway cook stove in which to bake their sweet-potatoes, for which they tender him a vote of thanks.
