LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

NEWSY ITEMS GATHERED HERE AND THERE, WITH AN OCCASIONAL JOKE ADDED FOR SPICE.

Maud Muller raked the fragrant sod All strewn with yellow golden-rod; She loved the blossoms shining bright And greeted them with keen delight. But by and by she had to sneeze, And after that she'd cough and wheeze. She caught hay fever. Now she cries, "That golden-rod I just despise." And when to raking hay she goes She wears a clothespin on her nose. —Ex.

Jeweler E. E. Coder is this week being visited by his brother, from Frostburg, Md.

Our schools open next Monday. All pupils who possibly can should start in at the beginning of the term.

Girls, 'tis folly to be wives when singleness is bliss; so think it over well before you drop your Miss.—Ex.

We have had several very cool days this week. Blocher, the drug clerk, claims to have seen a few snowflakes in the air, Tuesday morning.

District Attorney Meyers, of Somerset, was in town a few minutes yesterday morning. He took part in a road view, near Niverton, same day.

Fred Wise, who resides near the St. Paul Reformed church, has a fine crop of German prune plums. He will harvest about fifty bushels of them.

Mine Foreman James Harding, of Boswell, arrived in town last week, and has since been the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Mort. A. Wagner.

Miss Margaret G. Glatfely and Miss Sadie Smith returned to the State Normal at California, Pa., Tuesday morning, where both are enrolled as students.

For young and old the best pill sold is Dr. Dade's Little Liver Pills. Never gripe, never fail to cleanse the system and tone the liver. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

Attorney A. L. G. Hay, of Somerset, was a welcome caller at THE STAR office this morning. He came to Salisbury on business, yesterday, and returns home today.

S. L. Livengood spent Labor Day in Cumberland, Md. He participated in a great Labor Day parade in that city, as a paid musician to assist the Cumberland City Band.

Mr. S. P. Schell, of Connelville, Pa., arrived in Salisbury, Saturday evening last, for a vacation of two weeks, which will be spent here with his wife and babe, who arrived here some time ago.

The most pleasant and positive cure for indigestion, heartburn and all stomach troubles is King's Dyspepsia Tablets. They aid digestion, tone and strengthen the stomach. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

Mr. James K. P. Matthews, of Omaha, Neb., arrived in Salisbury last week for a visit with his sister, Mrs. T. Glatfely. Mr. Matthews had not seen his sister for 26 years, until he arrived here last week.

Our new school building should have been dedicated amid appropriate exercises, as was the new school building at Rockwood and other places where 20th century men are in charge of school matters. But then—

Dr. Frank Dorsey, of Minneapolis, Minn., passed through town, last Saturday, in company with our friend G. W. Slick, bound for Grantsville, Md., where the doctor is now visiting his sisters and his brother Daniel.

Pineules contain the alterative and diuretic properties found in the native pine. A certain cure for all liver, kidney and bladder diseases. A single dose of Pineules will relieve the worst case of backache in one night. Sole by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

Chief of Police M. D. Thomas has the thanks of THE STAR printer for a fine, large treat of luscious blue plums and green gages. Mr. Thomas has quite a good crop of plums and peaches, this year, but his apple crop is a failure.

One dose of Pineules taken at bedtime will entirely relieve the most obstinate case of backache before morning. Pineules is a certain cure for all kidney and bladder troubles. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

We got a glimpse of our portly friend John L. Beachy, on our streets, last Sunday. He was a passenger on the Cumberland excursion, but dropped off at Meyersdale and spent the time between trains with friends in Salisbury.

Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Perry started for Ridgway, Pa., Tuesday morning, to attend the Erie conference of the M. E. church. Rev. Perry has been a minister in the M. E. church for 50 years, and he went to Ridgway to preach his semi-centennial sermon.

Thomas Garlitz, of Kingwood, W. Va., who for some time had been selling some kind of a kitchen cabinet in this vicinity, departed for his home on Tuesday. Before leaving here he sold a county right for Fayette county, Pa., to Virgil DeLozier, for $400.

Pinesalve contains the antiseptic properties of the native pine, and is a sure cure for sunburn, tan, tetter, eczema and all other skin diseases. Heals a sore, cut or burn without a scar. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

The many friends of Mrs. F. J. Kooser will learn with regret that she is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sargent, near New York City. Judge Kooser and his son, Capt. Ernest O. Kooser, have been summoned to the bedside of the invalid, says the Somerset Democrat.

Constable M. D. Thomas went to Bedford, Tuesday morning, with one of the notorious Coal Run Turveys, who was securely hand-cuffed. He was delivered to the Bedford county authorities, where he was wanted for having loved (?) more fondly than wisely a girl of about fifteen summers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lichliter, of Murphysboro, Ill., arrived here a few days ago for a visit with 'Squire Levi Lichliter and family, W. H. Boucher and family, and other relatives. The gentleman from Illinois is a brother of 'Squire Levi Lichliter and Mrs. W. H. Boucher. It is his first visit to Somerset county, his native heath, for many years.

Our friend, George W. Slick, who is commonly known about Grantsville and Frostburg, Md., as "Jesse," stopped in Salisbury long enough last Saturday to swap a few yarns with the editor and other friends. He says he has decided to locate in Meyersdale for a while, and orders THE STAR sent to him there. "Jesse" says he can't get along without the "Merry Twinkler."

The most wonderful cure for piles is ManZar, put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle attached. It reaches the spot, stops pain instantly, and cures all kinds of blind, bleeding, itching or protruding piles. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

It is said that graft has even invaded a church social. The story is told that a woman who helped in getting one up gave each of her seven children a dish of ice cream free on the ground that it was no more than she had earned. And when told that the principle enunciated was hardly fair to those women who helped, but had no children, she said: "Well, I'm not to blame for that."

Every doctor should have a private consulting office, for very few people care to tell of their ailments to other ears than the doctor's own. Any doctor will lose his practice if people learn that his servants or his family must know everything. If they wish to benefit his business they must not meddle. Even his wife must stay back. Some doctor's wives are too meddling, says the Cumberland Courier, very truthfully.

"If you do not care as much for your reputation as I do," said a man to his son, "go ahead and ruin it. I will regret it if you go to the devil, but I cannot afford to worry myself to death about you; I am compelled to look after my own affairs. If you are so lost to decency that you cannot take any interest in your own affairs, I propose to swim out, and let you take care of yourself; I cannot struggle with you half the time to prevent your drowning yourself. I'm tired coaxing a fool."

Every man owes it to himself and his family to master a trade or profession. Read the display advertisement of the six Morse Schools of Telegraphy, in this issue, and learn how easily a young man or lady may learn telegraphy and be assured a position. 12-1

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Edward E. Haselbarth, of Salisbury, to Miss Vida Stella Miller, of Friedens, Pa., the event to take place in the Evangelical Lutheran church, at Friedens, on Sept. 21st, 1905, at 1 o'clock p. m. Mr. Haselbarth is a well known hardware merchant of Salisbury, a son and partner of Mr. C. R. Haselbarth. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob S. Miller, of Friedens. Both bride and groom are very popular and well known, and THE STAR extends its congratulations in advance.

The original is always the best—imitations are cheap. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. It is different from all others—it is better than all others—it is better than all others, because it cures all coughs and colds and leaves the system stronger than before. The letter B in red is on every package. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

The Meyersdale Commercial recently announced that T. W. Gurley would be the first man in Meyersdale to fly, stating that he would soon be the owner and operator of a flying machine. We hardly think a flying machine will be necessary to enable that pug-nosed nonentity to fly, for if all reports are true as to the alleged disregard he shows for the rights of others when he goes out in his automobile, somebody is liable to make an angel of him at any time, and then he can fly about in the infernal regions with wings like a bat.

It affords us pleasure to note that THE STAR's suggestion has been carried out in regard to removing the nasty weeds that had been growing in front of the Brethren church. It now looks like a place where good, clean religion is dispensed, and the member who cut and removed the weeds deserves an extra jewel in his crown as large as the flashy cut glass diamond that "Mistah" Wm. Bryan, the well known colored hostler, used to wear as a set in his finger ring when he drove Dr. Perry's fine team of horses. But maybe they haven't got any jewels that big on the other shore.

All old-time cough syrups were designed to treat throat, lung and bronchial affections without due regard for the stomach and bowels, hence most of them produce constipation. Bee's, the original Laxative Honey and Tar, gently moves the bowels and cures all coughs, colds, croup, etc. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. Look for the letter B in red on every package. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

The Kansas corn stories are growing more and more imposing. Here is the latest: "A sad home-coming was that of Mrs. Jerry Judd, the wife of a prosperous farmer in Gentry county, near Albany. The old farm produced a wonderful corn crop, this year, and Mr. Judd had selected the largest ear in the fields to show to his wife, who had been visiting her mother in Albany. As she returned home, Mr. Judd came out on the front porch with the great ear of corn on his shoulder. The porch broke down beneath his weight, and the ear of corn fell across Mr. Judd's legs, breaking both of them above the knees."

An Irish soldier wanted to get a furlough, and trumped up a story that his wife was very sick and had written him to come home, but the captain knew Pat's tricks, so he said to him: "Pat, I received a letter from your wife today, and she told me not to let you come home, as you got drunk, broke up the furniture and mistreated her shamefully." Pat saluted and started to leave the room, but on reaching the door, turned and said: "Sir, may I speak to you—not as an officer—but as man to man?" "Yes, Pat, what is it?" "Well, sor, what O'm after a saying is this," remarked Pat, "that you and I are two of the most illigant liars that the Lord ever made. I'm not a married man."

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Dr. Horace Rutherford Livengood, of Elizabeth, N. J., and Miss Litch Hewson, of Port Hope, Ontario, Canada. The marriage took place at the bride's home, on the 5th inst., and the couple will be at home at 1105 East Jersey street, Elizabeth, N. J., after Oct. 9th. The groom is the only child of Dr. and Mrs. Theodore F. Livengood, who were born and reared in Salisbury, but who have been residing in Elizabeth, N. J., for nearly or quite twenty years. Dr. Horace is an exceptionally fine and talented young man, and that his bride is in every way a model woman, may be taken for granted. THE STAR joins the many friends of the couple in extending congratulations and best wishes.

Mr. M. R. Trauerman, a Pittsburg attorney, has been at Somerset for about three weeks in the interest of a syndicate of Pittsburg and Philadelphia capitalists which is operating trolley lines in both ends of the state, and he says it is the company's purpose to come into Somerset county in the near future, if after an investigation they should think it advisable to do so. Mr. Trauerman says his company's ultimate purpose is a network of trolley lines throughout the state. He has been looking over the ground here with a view of locating a line between Rockwood and Johnstown, taking in all the towns and villages on the way that can be reached. In order that the conditions and prospects may be more thoroughly studied by the company, it probably will send its engineers here to go over the proposed routes.—Somerset Standard.
