control of the state, and M. Henry, therefore, asks, "What judgment may be passed on the financial results of 1903 and 1904? It seems that the most favorable verdict we can render is that the roads have not actually been imperiled. But if we compare this to the golden age which was predicted, we may easily understand how great has been the disillusionment in Switzerland. The most serious phase of all, however, lies in the fact that a reflex action has been exercised on the national credit."—New Britain (Conn.) Herald.

The editor of one of our exchanges has the following to say on the subject of luck: "I'll tell you about this thing of luck. It comes to the person who keeps the weeds cut down so that it can find him. Luck sometimes walks up and collars an idler, but it is more liable to nab the man who is busy doing the best he can all the time. Luck isn't lying around on the street allowing loafers to cover it with whittlings. Neither is it in the stream waiting for some lazy fisherman to hook it. Luck generally goes hand in hand with industry. If you sit around and wait for luck to hand you a bag of gold and make you a rich man you are pretty apt to end your days in the poor-house. A four-leaf clover will bring more luck to a busy fellow than it will to the loafer. It may seem a little tough for a man to work hard for a long time and then have his earnings all swept from him at a single stroke, but it is better to have lost it than never to have had it at all. And another thing, luck isn't labeled. So it will do you no good to stand around and look for it. Go to work."

For some time the United Mine Workers have been raising a great howl because the Consolidation Coal Company has secured the appointment, by the Governor of Maryland, of several special policemen to keep watch of their property. Some of the leaders of the organization have been holding public meetings and making fiery speeches against the policing of the mines, claiming that such a course on the part of the coal company is a menace to the peace of the region, etc. The real menace to the peace of the region is the walking delegate or the organizer who is permitted to make inflammatory speeches. It's none of the United Mine Workers' business how many special police are put in service to keep watch over the company's property, for those special policemen are not a menace to any man who intends to go about his own business and not meddle with other people's property. When the organization leaders set up a howl against the special policemen or guards, they are virtually admitting that they are seeking to commit crime and depredation and object to having property watched that they are seeking to destroy. Only several days ago a cowardly attempt was made to assassinate one of the special policemen, in Frostburg, and that is all the evidence needed to prove that such officers are needed in the George's Creek region, and that the Governor should appoint more of them, instead of heading the Mine Workers' request for the removal of the officers.

LIKE FINDING MONEY.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat or chest, irritation, better act promptly like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine in the world. At E. H. Miller's drug store, 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free. 10-1

Shelter of Silence.

Meyersdale and other papers do not hesitate to give the name of the young girl recently involved in a gross outrage there, but though they admit sufficient evidence was produced at the hearing to hold several men, married and single, as the chief perpetrators, they carefully suppress their names. Is such discrimination in the interest of good morals? No! It is one of the chief means of promoting such crimes. The girl is, if anything, more deserving of the shelter of silence.—Confluence News.

The News is exactly right in the opinion it expresses on the Meyersdale livery stable outrage. It looks cowardly and unfair, and it is cowardly and unfair to do as the Meyersdale Commercial did—expose the young girl in the scandal and withhold the names of the married and single men that figured in the disgraceful affair. The men are worse than the poor, young, ignorant girl, and they should be thoroughly exposed and completely ostracised and spurned from all decent society. We are inclined to think that hush money has figured in the case, and that goes a long way in keeping moral lepers under cover, around some so-called newspaper offices. Then, again, it may be the fear of losing a little patronage among the so-called good families that usually make the dollar mark the standard of respectability and care little or nothing for common decency and good morals—we say that may be the reason that a lot of guilty culprits are kept under cover, while the mere child they have ruined is held up to the public gaze as a horrible example of depravity. If the Meyersdale Commercial is not a moral coward, if it is not guilty of receiving hush money, if it is really in earnest in urging better morals for Meyersdale, let it boldly show its colors on the side of right and expose the men in the scandal as it did the poor, friendless young girl they have helped to ruin. They are in luck that their names are unknown to THE STAR, even if its editor isn't a church member.

GOT OFF CHEAP.

He may well think he has got off cheap, who, after having contracted constipation or indigestion, is still able to perfectly restore his health. Nothing will do this but Dr. King's New Life Pills. A quick, pleasant, and certain cure for headache, constipation, etc. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store; guaranteed. 10-1

THE SHADES OF LINCOLN!

Audacious Misuse of the Martyr President's Name by a Combination of All Kinds of Disgruntled Politicians.

One of the most disgraceful actions in the political history is the present scramble of mongrel has-beens or would-bes to push themselves into notice as promoters or members of a new organization, to be called the "Lincoln party." Last year most of the same hucksters endeavored to receive recognition as the "Union party," and the vote of the people cast them into such obscurity that they are now being resurrected under another guise.

But shades of the lamented Abraham Lincoln! To think that the off-shoots would have the audacity to flaunt themselves under the name of almost the father of the Republican party, with the purpose of injuring the very organization that the President of freedom loved so well!

And the first promoters of this new Lincoln party at Harrisburg, who are rich? Lewis Emery, Sr., of Bradford, a rich oil monopolist, who has been a chronic kicker for over twenty years, and who now seeks to boom himself for Governor; Henry C. Niles, of York, a young lawyer who is disgruntled because the Republican organization thought him too presumptuous and premature to be named for the Superior Court, they turned him down; George E. Mapes, virtually a Democrat, now holding place on Wanamaker's Philadelphia Record and subservient to his political master's orders; Leisenring and Bateman we do not even know. This is the hybrid five who insulted the memory of Lincoln by using the martyr President's name for their miserable political purposes in the hypocritical cry of "reform!" It is enough to make the great commoner turn over in his grave, if he could know of such infamous use of his name to impose on the people. And in various localities we see aspirants for this or something else, or having a "crow to pick" with some local Republican leader, who are intruding themselves before the public as precinct recruits for this new fake party!

Thus we have in opposition to the Republican party of Lincoln, Grant, McKinley and Roosevelt such guerrilla or banditti parties as the Democratic, Prohibition, "reform" or independent, so-called Lincoln and what not?—all so mixed together that they cannot themselves tell 't'other from which!

But Lincoln—it's the worst misuse of his memory since the worthy martyr's death. The Republican freemen will resent this fraudulent assumption of make-shift politicians.—Chester Citizen.

ALWAYS SUCCESSFUL.

When indigestion becomes chronic it is dangerous. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure indigestion and all troubles resulting therefrom, thus preventing Catarrh of the Stomach. Dr. Newbrough, of League, W. Va., says: "To those suffering from indigestion or sour stomach I would say there is no better remedy than Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have prescribed it for a number of my patients with good success." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by E. H. Miller. 10-1
