MUST HEED VACCINATION LAW.

Health-Commissioner Dixon Warns School Teachers They Are Responsible for its Enforcement.

Harrisburg, Sept. 14.—State Health-Commissioner Dixon is mailing circular letters to school authorities throughout Pennsylvania, calling their attention to the compulsory vaccination law of 1895.

This act requires persons in charge of public, private, parochial, Sunday, or other schools, to refuse admission to any child to the schools under their charge or supervision except upon a certificate signed by a physician setting forth that said child has been successfully vaccinated or that it has previously had smallpox.

Dr. Dixon warns school teachers and principals that they are responsible, not to the school directors, but to the health authorities of the state, for the enforcement of the law, and that no action of the school directors can supersede the requirements of the law.

The above dispatch states all the facts in the case, and the only remedy the people of Pennsylvania have is to submit quietly to the unjust vaccination law and bide their time to rid the legislative halls of Pennsylvania of the tyrants and vagabonds responsible for the said law, which is the most disgraceful piece of infamy that ever disgraced the statute books of this commonwealth. This state is tightly in the grasp of a lot of medical grafters that are oppressing the people with fool legislation passed by thoughtless legislators who take no time to investigate the crime of vaccination, but who blindly swallow any lying and fraudulent statement that is made to them by medical vampires who would see the bodies of the whole human race polluted if it but brought ill-gotten gain into the pockets of the doctors.

We believe that any reasonable person who will take the time to read the best literature published to sustain vaccination and that published denouncing it, will readily agree that the anti-vaccinationists have by far the better end of the argument.

Send to Frank D. Blue, Secretary of the Anti-Vaccination Society of America, Kokomo, Ind., for a list of books and tracts on the subject of vaccination, then send a few cents for literature that will open your eyes and your understanding. Also look up vaccination in the Encyclopedia Britannica. Don't be ashamed to join the anti-vaccination forces and work in a cause endorsed by such men as Herbert Spencer, the eminent philosopher; Prof. A. R. Wallace, the great English scientist; W. E. Gladstone, late Premier of England; Dr. George Gregory, fifty years director of the Smallpox Hospital of London; Sir James Paget, Surgeon Extraordinary to Queen Victoria; Dr. W. J. Collins, 25 years public vaccinator of London; Dr. John Epps, 25 years director of the Jennerian Institute of London; Bernarr A. Macfadden, Editor Physical Culture, which has 500,000 readers; and many other men and physicians equally as great.

Also take notice during the coming winter that the smallpox will be the most numerous and malignant in the cities and towns where the most vaccination is done. It's always the case, and it was thoroughly demonstrated right here in Salisbury, when smallpox existed here, that vaccination was the rottenest kind of a humbug.

There's no use in cursing the teachers who refuse to admit unvaccinated children to the schools, for they are subject to a fine and imprisonment if they don't comply with the fool law they did not help to pass. Of course, if they should ignore the criminal mandate (for that is all the vaccination law is) it is not at all likely that they would ever be prosecuted or punished for it, but most teachers are easily scared, these days, especially the gentle schoolma'ams.

We would rather see every man responsible for the compulsory vaccination law hanged by the neck until dead than to see one innocent, rosy-cheeked child have its blood poisoned by vaccination. And if we were a doctor, we would vaccinate the child of no person opposed to the damnable outrage.

Dr. J. E. Rulison, one of the many learned and respectable physicians opposed to vaccination says:

"The sacrilege of vaccination is a moral cancer, a satanic contagion, and an unsanitary absurdity. Do not poison your body. Vaccination only adds to the dangers of smallpox, and at the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder. This superstition of killing disease causes more disease. It is a source of revenue to medical boot-lickers, and tax upon the pockets and health of the community. It is the fraud of frauds. All this can be easily proven. The danger of vaccination is infinitely greater than that of smallpox. Its benefits are based only on ridiculous assumption. It is an unmitigated curse, and the most destructive medical delusion that has ever afflicted the human race. It is the most outrageous insult that can be offered to any pure-minded man or woman. It is the boldest and most impious attempt to mar the works of God that has been attempted for ages. This stupid blunder of doctorcraft has wrought all the evil that it ought, and it is now time that free thinking American citizens should rise in their might and do away with it. The laws that govern the body are better than a con-signment of horse-grease poison that builds a putrid sore; cow-pox—syphilitized vaccine—glycerinated 'pure calf lymph' and the damnable stuff that now belongs to a self-appointed, powerful and commercialized medical practice. Let this most atrocious and in-human blasphemy against the human body 'go 'way back and sit down.'

ATTACKED BY A MOB

and beaten, in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon sound and well. "I used it in my family," writes G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store. 10-1

THE ORPHANS' PARTY.

On Tuesday John Calvin Lowry, the perpetual office-seeker and general political outcast who gets buried under an avalanche of votes every time he bobs up for office, appeared before the County Commissioners and pre-empted a column for a mongrel political aggregation of soreheads to be known as the "Orphans' Party." The signers of his petition for the column mentioned are Isaac G. Jones, Charles Landman, W. W. Gustin, J. E. Faidley and Robt. Carolus.

Ye gods and little fishes, what a spectacle! Jones and Gustin are Prohibitionists, Landman a jolly lager beer Dutchman and Democrat who would like to have license to sell liquor, and Faidley and Carolus are an unknown quantity and inferior quality. Of course, "Edwie" Werner and other political nondescripts are back of the movement, and the sorry aggregation is enough to draw tears from a grindstone.

We had intended to say a good deal on this topic, but we can't do it for laughing. "Orphans' party!" Ha! ha! ha! "Orphans' party!" He! he! he! "Orphans' party!" Ho! ho! ho! Gee whiz! Now, wouldn't that rattle your slats? Haw! haw! haw! May God in his infinite mercy temper the chilly November after-election winds to the shorn lambs and outcast political rams.

A LAXATIVE COUGH SYRUP.

"A cold or cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For the want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard." Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. It meets and corrects the above conditions, by acting as a pleasant cathartic on the bowels—expels all colds from the system and cures all coughs, croup, whooping cough, La-Grippe, bronchitis, etc. Sold by E. H. Miller. 10-1

Trouble Galore in Settling the McKinley Estate.

New complications have arisen in the settlement of the estate of Abner McKinley, late of Somerset borough, by reason of a petition filed in the Orphans' Court, Monday, by the attorneys of Mrs. Annie E. McKinley, asking that she be removed as executrix, and that the Somerset Trust Company be appointed in her stead.

Early in June the Seaboard National Bank of New York, claiming to be a creditor of the McKinley estate, filed a petition asking for her removal as executrix, and that she be compelled to file an account of the estate in the Register's office. The executrix says she has settled the estate as far as it is possible at this time, and that on account of ill health and a change of residence it is burdensome for her to continue as executrix.

The statement filed by the respondent bank denies that the estate has been settled as far as possible, and avers that large sums of money belonging to the estate have come into her hands and into the hands of others, which have not been accounted for in her account filed.

The respondents say when the time comes for Mrs. McKinley to vacate as executrix of the estate, she would not be entitled to nominate her successor. —Somerset Standard.

NO UNPLEASANT EFFECTS.

Will Employ all Graduates.

The Pennsylvania railroad company has adopted a novel plan by which it hopes to induce the boys of Altoona to complete the high school course. It has agreed to take into its employ and prepare for railroad honors all students who graduate from the institution. They will be classed as special apprentices at a special wage rate in excess of that paid regular apprentices. The plan is original with the corporation, and it is believed that it will result in a large number of boys taking the course, instead of seeking employment on completion of the grammar grade studies. Following the suggestion of the railroad authorities, several industrial branches have been added to the high school. 10-1

SAME CROWD UNDER ANOTHER NAME.

In State politics the latest is the Lincoln party. There is nothing new about it except the name. Behind it is the same old crowd. As the Hon. W. H. Andrews aptly said the other day: "Wanamaker is the powder behind the wad." It is the chronic party of Wanamaker for the United States Senate. The revered name of Lincoln has been adopted this year because the excellent name Union has been discredited by the party wearing it. There is nothing connected with it except the name, that appeals to any honest voter among the common people.

During the campaign of this year the Lincoln party will play in the role of its predecessor, the Union party, as a Democratic annex. The purpose is to defeat, if possible, the Republican party. The end to be accomplished is to obtain control of the Republican organization, no more, no less. Between this time and the seventh of November the Democratic press, the renegade press, and the Wanamaker spellbinders will talk of reform. They will traduce the good State of Pennsylvania and its government and try to make it appear we are all going to the dogs together, and will go there unless William H. Berry, Democratic and free silver fanatic, is elected State Treasurer. Back of it all is the object on the part of the Democratic machine to get hold of one State office and on the part of the "powder behind the wad" the desire to become the "power behind the throne."

It is a queer alliance; this of the Democratic machine. It is queer because the power back of the Lincoln party wants control of the Republican organization, for itself, and desires to oust Colonel Guffey from control of the Democratic machine to put James Gay Gordon there. It is remarkable to find the well oiled Democratic machine going along with this plan striving to unhorse its capable boss for another. Somehow, and in some way, this is supposed to be politics. It is politics in the name of reform and in the name of Berry—Berry, of Delaware.

Stranger than anything else is the apparent expectation of Democratic-Wanamaker politicians that they can fool the people into support of this movement. Especially that they can induce Republican voters to further their object in this manner by pretending to them that Republicans have no power to change their leaders without electing a Democrat. The result will be the fall of these expectations. The genuine Republicans in Pennsylvania know they can change their leaders, whenever they desire to do so. They will not be fooled by the cry of reform or of the exhibition of decoy ducks.—The Pittsburg Gazette.
