Home Circle Depart- ment.

THE MUSIC THAT CARRIES.
I've tolled with the men the world has blest,
And I've tolled with the men who failed, I've tolled with the men who strove with zeal,
And I've tolled with men who wailed, And this is the tale my soul will tell,
As it drifts over the harbor bar;
The sound of a sigh don't carry well,
But the lit of a laugh rings far.

The men who were near the grumbler's side, O, they heard not a word he said;
The sound of a song rang far and wide,
And they hearkened to that instead.
Its tones were sweet as the tale they tell,
As the rise of the Christmas star—
The sound of a sigh don't carry well,
But the lit of a laugh rings far.

The ante-room to heaven is found in loyal love and in an unsullied home life.

The right kind of a man allows the whole world to see by his manner, his expression, and his life when he loves a good woman, but he keeps for her alone those demonstrations of affection which need no audience.

Sympathy and encouragement are the spurs to greater deeds. One grain of sympathy can be compared to a grain of mustard seed, but one seed planted and replanted will be enough to finally spread over the largest field. A living seed once fell from a flying bird's beak into the crevice of a rock. It grew and multiplied until finally it burst the rock in twain. This is a scientific fact, a real happening. Be not selfish with your words of encouragement and sympathy. There is nothing so cheap, and yet nothing can be more valuable.

What this old world needs is more sympathy and more encouragement.
Why does a boy consider his mother his best friend? Because he can carry to her his troubles and feel that she understands and will sympathize with him. Why does this self-same boy grown to be a man seek a mate? More sympathy. The companionship and encouragement of a kindred soul. We say man (and that includes woman also) marries for love, and what is love but sympathy? The way of life is filled with dreary places. To most of us, our pathways are strewn with bitter disappointment. Our weary feet, instead of treading velvet cushions of green sod, stumble over jagged rocks.
It is then that we seek an oasis of sympathy. We long to pour into sympathetic ears the tale of our troubles, our hopes and our ambitions. It is then the value of human sympathy is appreciated.

Millionaire christians who have just planned a corner on wheat will pauperize thousands of their brother men, but will swell their own millions into billions, will bow their grey heads reverently on the velvet backs of costly peaks, and glorify the name of that gentle Being who was born in a manger, and who bade his followers to do unto others as they would be done by.

NUMEROUS AND WORTHLESS.
Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. De-Witt & Co. of Chicago discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits.

Where is R. G. Walker?
The disappearance of Russell G.
Walker, the one-armed merchant at Husband, a small town three miles northwest of Somerset, seems to be quite an enigma. He located at this place some time in March last, and seemed to be doing a thriving business.
On the morning of August 22 he told his children that he was going to leave, and after bidding them all farewell, said that he would never come back.
His remarks were considered a joke, and never were taken seriously until it was too late. He went to Somerset, since which time he has not been seen.
A wife and four small children were left alone to manage the store and the home. It was later learned that he had borrowed money wherever he could get it, contracted debts here and there, all of them being left unpaid, and had overdrawn his balance in bank.

The wife of the missing merchant brought suit against him last week for $103, a claim formerly held by her father. A sheriff's writ was served and the property sold at Sheriff's sale, last Monday. When about three-fourths of the store goods was sold, the claim of Mrs. Walker had been met. But another levy followed. The amount of judgments held far exceeds the value of the property. The creditors who get the full amount of their claims can consider themselves very fortunate.

Mrs. Walker is deserving of much sympathy, as she must care for her four small children and herself. Since the sale she has been conducting the store in her own name, and will, no doubt, acquire a large trade, which she justly deserves. Her character and reputation is beyond reproach, and all who know her are aware that the husband vanished through no fault of his wife.—Berlin Record.

still. In the home, at the mother's knee, the men who have been the world's greatest leaders have been trained. In the home, at the mother's knee, good men, strong men, righteous men, patriotic men, the men upon whom the destinies of the human race depend, in whom lie the strength and enthusiasm of a nation's life, in the home these men are reared, and nowhere else. To meet the crises which may arise at any time in the life of a country like our own, we must always have a vast reserve of loyal patriotism, good citizenship, sound morality and honest statesmanship ready at hand to summon at a moment's notice. All this we must have to preserve the nation's life. And all this depends almost entirely upon woman's influence in the home. It is woman who saves and preserves the nation's life. It always must be so in the future as in the past, not by voting, merely, but by patient devotion to her duty in the home and family, by bringing up her children to be trusted, relied upon to do the right thing under any circumstances, at any cost.

STANDS WELL AT HOME
High Esteem In Which Candidate
Plummer Is Held By Neighbors.

INSURGENT FLINGS RESENTED
From the Pulpit and Bench, In the Business World and Among the Wage Earners, Republican Nominee
Is Commended.

Nothing has occurred in the history of local politics in this section during recent years to create such a thorough storm of indignation among the people of this locality, says a special reporter to the Philadelphia Inquirer, as did the unjust attack made in a speech delivered by O. H. Hewitt, of Hollidaysburg, before the meeting of the Lincoln Party committee, held in Philadelphia and aimed directly against his fellow-townsman, J. Lee Plummer, the Republican nominee for state treasurer of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Hewitt's remarks reflecting upon Mr. Plummer's standing in the community were promptly resented by some of the most prominent men in Blair county, irrespective of their political affiliations.

Citizens of Hollidaysburg were particularly incensed at the attack made upon Mr. Plummer and were quick to speak their minds on the subject. Mr.
Hewitt declares that he was misquoted, but whether he was correctly reported or not, citizens generally hereabouts have taken occasion to vent their indignation at the wrong done Mr.
Plummer, about whose standing in the community there is but one opinion.
It is of the very highest.

The esteem in which Mr. Plummer is held may be gathered from a few public statements made to a representative of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

From Judge and Pastor.

President Judge Martin Bell says:
"I have known J. Lee Plummer intimately for 25 years. He is a model husband and father, and his private character has been pure and free from all taint of wrong-doing. His honesty and integrity, both as a citizen and lawyer, are unquestioned in this community."

Rev. George S. Woomer, pastor of the First M. E. Church of Hollidaysburg, where Mr. Plummer attends, is quoted: "For more than two years I have been a resident of Hollidaysburg and the pastor of the First Methodist church located in this town. Hon. J.
Lee Plummer is a member of the church and a regular attendant at the church services. He is one of the trustees of the church, and for nine years has been the secretary and treasurer of the board. He has the confidence and esteem of the church membership and of the community at large. His private life and character are above reproach and his family life is ideal. He holds my confidence and esteem as a man and as a Christian minister."

John D. Blair, a prominent lawyer, says: "Mr. Plummer is one of our best citizens. He has always been industrious, upright, honest and honorable.
A man of the very highest morals. I know of no one to whom I would trust my private affairs more implicitly than to Mr. Plummer. Acquainted with the trials of one who has never lost his close sympathy with the struggling masses, the people of Blair county by repeated ballot have borne testimony of their estimate of his worth. His friends are of the very best people of this community and their ardent support of him is the evidence of their esteem."

Of Unimpeachable Integrity.
W. I. Woodcock, a prominent member of the bar, states: "I have been intimately acquainted with Mr. Plummer.
He read law in my office. He is a man of unimpeachable integrity and unassailable moral character. He is strictly temperate, being an active member of the Methodist church."

Rev. P. Verlier, of St. Mark's Catholic church, frankly said: "He is a gentleman from first to last. He is a good neighbor, a good citizen and considered so by all with whom I have come in contact. Both Republicans and Democrats here hold him in high esteem. The local citizens generally are willing to give him their support and anxious to see his election to the high office of the state treasurer. He is first among the first gentlemen of this borough and morally as well as otherwise a most respected resident."

J. A. B. Melvin, president of the Altoona Trust company, has this frank interview: "I have intimately known J. Lee Plummer about 22 years. I have lived a neighbor with him 18 years, nine of which have been on the same land, therefore have knowledge of his daily life during all these years. He has been uniformly kind and obliging and in every possible way has been to me a desirable neighbor. He is today and always has been a respected citizen of the town. He has been careful in his daily life. He is a member and official of the Methodist church, and won his way to present position of prominence through native ability, aided by such good qualities as named above."

J. King McLanaghan, Sr., president of the McLanaghan Stone Machine company, has this to say: "I have never heard anything derogatory to Mr. Plummer, and always found him to be an honest, upright citizen. I believe he will make an efficient state treasurer, and in my opinion the people of Hollidaysburg, irrespective of politics, intend to vote for him."

"The People Like Him."
P. W. Snyder, a well-known druggist, says: "Mr. Plummer is an honest, upright citizen and has the respect of the westside of Hollidaysburg. He is a man among men, and socially he is the equal of any person known here to my acquaintance. The people of Hollidaysburg like him, but, like other men in public life, he has some political enemies. I believe he will receive a magnificent vote in this town and county." From Wage Earner and Merchant.

John A. Filtz, a well-known wage-earner of Hollidaysburg, candidly says:
"I believe I am only voicing the sentiment of the working people when stating that no man is better liked or more popular here than J. Lee Plummer. He is friendly and courteous, and well thought of by all." Frank Glessner, a leading merchant, says: "Mr. Plummer is a man of good moral character, an excellent citizen and in my opinion the people here can only speak of him in highest terms and respect."
Charles Hartsock, an aged engineer, who is past 72 years, says: "I have known Mr. Plummer for 32 years, and in my estimation there is not a more honest or popular man in Blair county."
John H. Law, a leading merchant and Democrat, is quoted: "I consider J. Lee Plummer to be one of the fairest men in the county. His dealings with the people are characterized by truth and honesty. Morally he is one of the cleanest men I ever knew. I am a Democrat, but will vote for him because I know he is honest." These expressions come virtually spontaneously from the people of Hollidaysburg, where J. Lee Plummer, the candidate for state treasurer, resides. They form a tribute which emphasizes his true worth and character.

DISGRUNTLED COMBINE Leading Men In Lincoln Party Were Turned Down For Office.

ARE NOW OUT FOR REVENGE

Republican Chairman Andrews Receives Reports That Show Party Wreckers Will Be Ignominiously Routed.

[Special Correspondence.]
Philadelphia, Sept. 19.

There has been a clearing of the political atmosphere in the last few days.
The Republican managers have every reason to be elated over recent developments. The substitution of an entire new set of local Republican candidates, after the voluntary withdrawal of the original nominees in the interest of party harmony has had a far-reaching influence toward cementing and strengthening the Republican forces in this city.

The selection of Dr. Neff, a prominent member of the Union League and medical director of the Jefferson Hospital, for sheriff, the nomination of Coroner Dugan, in response to the request of many citizens, the naming of William Emsley, an ex-department commander of the Grand Army, and Howard A. Chase, another leading member of the Union League for commissioners, has given the Republicans a ticket of which they may well be proud.

Steps will be immediately taken for an aggressive local campaign, and there is no doubt of the election of the entire Republican ticket by a large majority.

Disappointed Office-Seekers.
From the interior counties Chairman Wesley R. Andrews, of the Republican state committee continues to receive the most gratifying reports.

The so-called Lincoln party has been demonstrated to be little more than a combination of office-seekers. Their efforts to draw votes from the Republican ticket will not have substantial results.

An idea of the character of the men in the movement may be formed from the fact that H. C. Niles, of York, who figures as state chairman, was twice defeated for the Republican nomination for superior judge. When he presented resolutions in the York county convention in line with the platform of the Lincoln party he got but three votes in favor of them, and one of these votes was his own. George E. Mapes, the secretary, has been voting against Republican candidates for years. Former Senator Emery, of McKean, was defeated by the Republicans when he ran as an independent candidate for congress, and he has never forgotten or forgiven the leaders of the Republican organization who defeated him.
He is out for revenge. Charles Heber Clark, of Montgomery, who presided over the Lincoln party convention, is disgruntled because President Roosevelt declined to appoint him to a position in the department of commerce and labor. Clark has been fighting the Republican party for years. He is a pronounced free silverite. Former Congressman Brumm, of Schuylkill, another conspicuous figure among the Lincolinites, has a record as an original Greenbacker. He was an applicant for position under McKinley and Roosevelt and was turned down. He now, too, wants to reform the Republican party.

Former Congressman Thropp, of Bedford county, who was chairman of the committee on resolutions of the Lincoln party, is a disappointed and disgruntled office-seeker. He was turned down for re-election to congress by the Republicans of his district, and he has ever since been working against Republican nominees, but he has no following at home.

These are but a few of the men who are running the Lincoln party. Their only hope for recognition in the future lies in the disruption of the Republican party.

The loyal Republicans of Pennsylvania will not permit them to succeed in their party-wrecking campaign.

They will show them under in an avalanche of Republican ballots in November.

BIRDSEYE VIEW OF SALISBURY.
Something That Ought to Interest Salisbury People Who Have Located Elsewhere.

THE STAR has for sale a limited number of very fine pictures of Salisbury, size 2 1/2x3 1/2 inches, printed on extra heavy, smooth paper, from a very fine engraving. The sketching was done by T. M. Fowler, of Morrisville, Pa., who is an expert in his line and has been following his business in many different states of the Union.

The picture is very clear and distinct, showing all the streets plainly marked, and those familiar with the town can plainly recognize every building in it. The pictures have sold like "hot cakes" here, and a limited number have been placed with THE STAR to supply those at a distance, who may desire them.

Every former citizen of Salisbury ought to have one of these fine engravings, as they show the progress the old town has been making, which has been very great in recent years. But we

BALTIMORE & OHIO TERMINAL
AT TWENTY-THIRD STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

All passenger trains of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad to and from New York City now have direct ferry connection with 23rd Street Terminal, in addition to Liberty Street; the South Ferry Terminal having been discontinued.

Twenty-third Street is the most popular terminal of the great metropolis because of its convenience to the hotel, theatre and shopping district. In the recent remodeling of the terminal building a glass roofed canopy was constructed fifty feet wide, under which the cross-town cars of 14th, 23rd, 28th and 29th Street lines pass, so that passengers are protected from the weather leaving the ferry house, and also avoid the annoyance of street traffic.

All baggage destined to New York City will be delivered to 23rd Street unless distinctly marked "Liberty Street," or otherwise.

A complete electric cab service has also been established for the transportation of passengers and baggage at very reasonable rates.

The importance of 23rd Street is most graphically brought to attention in the August number of the "Book of the Royal Blue" published by the Passenger Department of the Baltimore & Ohio, under the title "Into the Heart of Gotham." The interest centers within a mile radius of 23rd Street, Fifth Avenue and Broadway. Full page photographs of unusual detail present a most vivid picture of this most interesting locality. Send 5 cents

Practical Christianity.
At a recent editorial convention a minister offered the following toast: To save an editor from starvation, take his paper and pay for it promptly.
To save him from bankruptcy, advertise in his paper liberally. To save him from despair, send him every item of news of which you can get hold. To save him from profanity, write your correspondence plainly on one side of the sheet and send it in as early as possible. To save him from mistakes, bury him. Dead people are the only ones who never make mistakes.

This minister evidently knew a lot of things both in and out of the gospel books. His Christianity is practical and more nearly perfect than all the creeds in Christendom, says the Connellsville Courier.

Plummer Is Held By Neighbors.

From the Pulpit and Bench, In the
Is Commended.

reporter to the Philadelphia Inquirer,
as did the unjust attack made
in a speech delivered by O. H. Hewitt,
of Hollidaysburg, before the meeting
against his fellow-townsman, J. Lee
state treasurer of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Hewitt's remarks reflecting upon
Mr. Plummer's standing in the com-
some of the most prominent men in
litical affiliations.

Citizens of Hollidaysburg were particularly incensed at the attack made
speak their minds on the subject. Mr.
Hewitt declares that he was misquoted,
but whether he was correctly reported
dignation at the wrong done Mr.
Plummer, about whose standing in the
community there is but one opinion.
It is of the very highest.

tative of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

From Judge and Pastor.

President Judge Martin Bell says:
lawyer, are unquestioned in this community."

Rev. George S. Woomer, pastor of
the First M. E. Church of Hollidays-
quoted: "For more than two years I have been a resident of Hollidaysburg
church located in this town. Hon. J.
minister."

John D. Blair, a prominent lawyer,
says: "Mr. Plummer is one of our best
trious, upright, honest and honorable.
this community and their ardent sup-
esteem."

W. I. Woodcock, a prominent mem-
timately acquainted with Mr. Plummer.
member of the Methodist church."

Catholic church, frankly said: "He is
sidered so by all with whom I have
Democrats here hold him in high es-
among the first gentlemen of this bor-
a most respected resident."

J. A. B. Melvin, president of the Al-
J. Lee Plummer about 22 years. I have lived a neighbor with him 18 years,
nine of which have been on the same
his daily life. He is a member and offi-
his way to present position of promi-

J. King McLanaghan, Sr., president
mer, and always found him to be an
will make an efficient state treasurer,
and in my opinion the people of Hollid-

P. W. Snyder, a well-known druggist,
