A NEW YORK woman says men ought to wear corsets. We know of some male "sissies" that ought to wear petticoats and a full supply of female attire. Some of them live right here in Salisbury, too.

In some localities the laws are too seldom enforced, while in other places they are enforced too often. The latter statement is evinced by the fact that they recently dragged a man into court in Lancaster county for doing the heroic act of shooting a lightning-rod agent, a species of game that should be considered in season at all times.

A CHICAGO woman who married six times for love, and drew a bad egg every time, says she is now satisfied that she made a mistake in not marrying for money. But there is danger, even there. She might have got tainted money, says the Johnstown Tribune. Sure, Mike, and after getting the tainted money she might have set up a howl and said: "Taint enough."

In many places throughout Pennsylvania, reputable physicians are giving school children certificates of vaccination without vaccinating them. That is deception to some extent, but nevertheless far more honorable than to compel people to comply with a foolish and damnably pernicious law. No man is morally bound to observe a law that is in reality a criminal edict to rob the people and pollute and poison their blood in order that the medical profession may be enriched. All honor to the humane doctors who issue the certificates without doing the vaccinating. They are the friends of humanity, and the people will stand by them.

It is indeed a sorry spectacle to see the poor old Somerset Herald, once the proud leader of the victorious Republican hosts of Somerset county, now down in the political mire aiding a lot of disgruntled and silly fusionists, and all because the Republicans of Somerset county said with their ballots that the Scull brothers were incompetent to manage the party's affairs after their father passed form the stage of action and was no longer here to guide his degenerate sons by his ripe experience and able counsel. With all the Herald's attempts at deception, the fact is plain to all that the Scull boys are only acting ugly because they are no longer permitted to boss the party.

The idea that this county will go to the "demnition bow wows" unless "Edwie" Werner, George May and a few other political outcasts are elected to office, is simply ridiculous. In what manner could such a disreputable gang of Socialists and political renegades help the citizens of this county? Most of them have never made a success of their own affairs, hence are unfit to manage the affairs of the county. A political movement, to gain any standing with the solid, substantial citizens of old Somerset county, must be headed by solid, substantial citizens, and not by men like "Edwie" Werner, George May, John Calvin Lowry and their ilk. The public business of Somerset county is being well handled under Republican office-holders, and it will continue to be well handled by Republican office-holders. No mixture of Socialists, disgruntled Prohibitionists, Mugwumps, Free Silverites, Bryanites and Helgromites need apply just yet a while.

BILL BEGLEY NO BOLTER.

Our Next Sheriff is a Man of His Word, a True Republican, and He Will not Support the "Orphan" Candidates.

Prompted by the dispatches in the Pittsburg papers, Wednesday morning, concerning the new "Orphans" party in Somerset county, in which it was stated that William Begley, the Republican nominee for Sheriff, would head such a ticket, a Standard representative called upon Mr. Begley to give him an opportunity to explain his position to the voters of the county.

To our inquiry concerning the matter Mr. Begley said: "You may say in your paper that I won the nomination for Sheriff at the Republican primary election fairly; that I owe the Republican ticket my whole support, and in return expect the support of that party. I am like any other candidate, anxious to poll as large a vote as possible, and will be grateful for any support that may be given me, but when it comes to aiding a ticket in opposition to the Republican ticket, I am, and always have been, earnestly opposed to it. Before announcing as a candidate, last spring, I signed a pledge that whether nominated or defeated, I would support the Republican nominees, and I would have kept that pledge had I been defeated at the primary. I wouldn't like to make a canvass of the county, asking the votes of the people, with a broken pledge staring me in the face. To every person who has spoken to me concerning a fusion ticket I have made known my opposition. Therefore, I don't believe that if the "Orphans" hold a convention to nominate a ticket they would place on it a candidate for Sheriff who declares he would not support any person on it."

Mr. Begley predicted the success of the Republican ticket in Somerset county, and expressed the belief that it would be political suicide for Republicans to participate in fusion if they expected to be candidates in the future.—Somerset Standard.

LIKE FINDING MONEY.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat or chest, irritation, better set promptly like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine in the world. At E. H. Miller's drug store, 50c. and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

FUSION TICKET.

Republicans, Democrats, Prohibitionists and Citizens Union Candidates.

Somerset, Sept. 26.—Fusion between Republicans, Democrats, Prohibitionists and Citizens Union voters has been agreed to by disgruntled members of the parties named, and the Citizens' Union party, which obtained a column on the official ballot, has nominated the following county ticket:

Sheriff, William C. Begley, of Somerset township; Prothonotary, C. C. Wagner, Somerset; Register of Wills, Edward A. Walker, Stonycreek; Recorder, Edward H. Werner, Somerset; Clerk of Courts, William H. Weaver, Paint borough; Commissioner, Charles F. Zimmerman, of Quemahoning township, and Geo. Donges, Meyersdale; Treasurer, Calvin M. Ankeny, Somerset; Poor Director, Joseph M. Bowman, Somerset township; Auditors, George Steinbaugh, Quemahoning township, C. G. Streng, Meyersdale; Surveyor, A. E. Rayman, Stonycreek township; Coroner, George May, Elk Lick township.

Begley is the Republican candidate for sheriff and Zimmerman the Prohibition candidate for commissioner. Donges was defeated at the Democratic primary for commissioner, and Werner, Ankeny and Wagner were defeated at the Republican primaries.

It will be seen by reading the foregoing dispatch that some of the men on the fusion ticket are nothing more than soreheads who were defeated at the Republican and Democratic primaries. It is not likely, however, that Wm. C. Begley will permit his name to go on the mongrel ticket, for he has said that he is not in sympathy with the fusion movement, and that he will not support a single candidate on that ticket. We believe that Mr. Begley is a man of his word, and we do not for one moment believe that he will join issues with a few pledge-breakers, cheap skates and ignoramuses. If the whole ticket is to be judged by its candidate for Coroner, it is indeed a "peach," and we believe Geo. May is as fit for the office he has been nominated for as the balance of them (Begley alone excepted) and everybody knows that May isn't fit to fill any office. He is one of the great strike statesmen out of a job, and maybe he can write his name, but it is doubtful. The fusion ticket is a mighty rotten aggregation, and it is the offspring of nothing except that which savors of deception, envy, greed for office, incompetency, unreliability and general political crookedness. No true Republican, Democrat or Prohibitionist will have a thing to do with the crazy, rotten, depraved aggregation.

Killed in Meager's Mine.

Last Saturday morning Theodore Engle was killed almost instantly in the Meager mine, where he had been employed as a miner. He was caught by a heavy fall of roof coal, which was loosened the evening before by a shot which he had fired shortly before leaving the mine for home.

He had scarcely more than walked into his working place, in the morning, when the accident occurred. The accident calls to mind another horrible accident that befell Mr. Engle about the year 1878 or 1879, when he was working in Eli Hersherber's mine. At that time two of Mr. Hersherber's sons went into the mine to see Mr. Engle work, and while there a lot of coal fell, catching one of the Hersherber boys, as well as Mr. Engle. Young Hersherber was killed, while Engle was terribly injured, his jaw being smashed, one of his legs broken, and other injuries also inflicted. For some time it looked as though the injured man would have to die, but he recovered only to be killed at the same occupation about 25 years later.

The deceased was aged about 55 years, and is survived by a wife and several grown-up children. He was a resident of Elk Lick township and a member of the Reformed church. The funeral was held at the St. Paul church, Rev. Stover, the local pastor, officiating. The service was attended by an exceedingly large number of people.
