Thomas Eckerd, Sr., went to Ursina, last week, to visit his daughter, Mrs. F. U. Daugherty. From there he expected to go to Pittsburg to visit a sister.

Luther Woy, of Boynton, orders THE STAR sent to his father, Mr. John A. Woy, of Listie, Pa. That makes two "subs" for Luther, and he has our thanks.

For young and old the best pill sold is Dr. Dade's Little Liver Pills. Never gripe, never fail to cleanse the system and tone the liver. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

Attorney John Calvin Lowry was in town during the week talking "Orphan's party" and other silly twaddle that would shame even a ten-year-old indulging therein.

The Dixon, (Ill.) Telegraph says that according to an old copy of that paper, fifty years ago eggs sold in Mt. Carroll for three cents a dozen, while in Dixon they brought five cents.

Ruthven Appeal: The man who invented Duke's Mixture is dead. But many of those who rolled it into cigarettes beat him to the happy hunting grounds by many years.

H. H. Reitz, in spite of the shortness of the apple crop, has opened his cider mill and applebutter factory and is squeezing out a great deal more of the nut-brown ale than he expected to do.

The most pleasant and positive cure for indigestion, heartburn and all stomach troubles is Ring's Dyspepsia Tablets. They aid digestion, tone and strengthen the stomach. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

Hans Wilhelm, who went to Pensacola, Florida, last winter, where he worked at the plumbing trade up to a few days ago, returned home today. Yellow fever got too numerous down there to suit Hans.

Joseph F. Joy, of Monongahela, Pa., came home yesterday to visit his sick mother, Mrs. J. R. Joy. Joseph is looking well and is doing a nice business with his automatic mine car lubricating device, of which he is the patentee.

Simon Tedrow, Mrs. Henry DeHaven and Mrs. Phoebe Breig were visited this week by their brother, Wm. A. Tedrow, of Green county, Pa., and his daughter, Wm. A. Tedrow is 83 years of age, but he doesn't look it by 20 years.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Shultz, Meyersdale, Pa., Sunday evening, Sept. 24th, 1905, by Rev. John H. Knepper, Mr. Edward Sandridge, of Youngwood, Pa., and Miss Bertha Shultz, of Meyersdale.

One dose of Pineules taken at bedtime will entirely relieve the most obstinate case of backache before morning. Pineules is a certain cure for all kidney and bladder troubles. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kreitzer, of Bloomington Ill., and Miss Annie Arnold, of Burlington, W. Va., were guests of Mrs. S. C. Keim and daughter from Friday last to Tuesday morning. Mrs. Kreitzer and Miss Arnold are nieces of Mrs. Keim's.

Pineules contains the antiseptic properties of the native pine, and is a sure cure for sunburn, tan, tetter, eczema and all other skin diseases. Heals a sore, cut or burn without a scar. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

New buckwheat flour is now on sale, and with country sausages almost in season, life will soon be a glad, sweet song, these frosty mornings, here among the "Frosty Sons of Thunder." Pass the good old maple syrup, please, and give us another hot buckwheat cake.

Our muscular and genial friend "Abe" Livengood, returns to Grand Rapids, Mich., next Monday, where he will graduate from a veterinary college, next spring. He will then be ready to hang out his shingle, and that he will have plenty to do in his profession, goes without saying.

A farmer out in Garrett county, Md., was married the other night. "Do you," said the preacher, "take this woman to be your wedded wife, to love and to cherish in sickness and health, for better, for worse, for rich or for poor, until death does you part?" There was an awkward pause. Then the bridegroom finally replied: "Them's the calculations."

A Topeka man was complaining of rheumatism. "There's no excuse for you being afflicted," said a friend. "I used to have rheumatism and when it would strike me I would go home and have my wife throw her arms around my neck and give me a massage treatment. It helped me every time. You ought to try it." "I will," said the man: "when will I find your wife at home?"

The most wonderful cure for piles is Manzan, put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle attached. It reaches the spot, stops pain instantly, and cures all kinds of blind, bleeding, itching or protruding piles. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

Chief of Police J. R. Joy, of Somerset has been obliged to return to his home in Salisbury for an indefinite period, owing to the illness of his wife, who is down with typhoid fever. Other new fever cases reported since our last issue are as follows: Edward Loehel, C. B. Kidner, Chas. Crossen, M. J. Ward and a young son of Mrs. Araminta Lung. Mr. Ward has been taken to a Johnstown hospital.

Just as we go to press we learn of the death of Mr. Jacob Fresh, of New Germany, Md., who was a prominent citizen and an ex-county commissioner of Garrett county. The deceased was the father of Mr. Henry Fresh, a former citizen of Salisbury, who for several years was the chief clerk of the Elk Lick Supply Company. The funeral will take place on Saturday, we are informed. We have not learned the particulars of the death of Mr. Fresh.

Jacob Glotfelty, of Greenville township, called at THE STAR office several days ago and said: "Put me on your Sand Patch list, as the Greenvillers are now on a rural free delivery mail route, which starts from Sand Patch." We have done so, Jacob, and we congratulate the farmers of Greenville on getting the R. F. D. We ought to have two rural routes, starting from the Elk Lick office, but it is next to impossible to get R. F. D. service for routes starting from post-offices located only on overland mail routes.

Pineules contain the alterative and diuretic properties found in the native pine. A certain cure for all liver, kidney and bladder diseases. A single dose of Pineules will relieve the worst case of backache in one night. Sole by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

On Tuesday last J. Newton Wagner sold his farm, known as the "Old Stutzman Place," to Chief of Police M. D. Thomas, for $1,100. Newton improved the place a great deal during his two years' residence thereon, and now Mr. Thomas intends to make the old place blossom as the rose. It will make an ideal fruit, poultry and truck farm, and that is about what Mr. Thomas intends to use it for. Mr. Wagner is likely to move back to town, and everybody will welcome him, for there are no better fellows than "Newt" Wagner.

Strange stories get into the telegraph; so strange that we have decided that the modern novel is fact, and the telegraph fiction. R. J. Bayer, of Rochester, N. Y., and Miss Jeannette Peltree, of Cleveland, met in the lobby of a Colorado Springs hotel. Each wanted a room, each had looked all over the town in vain, and this hotel had only one room vacant. So this man and woman got married so that they might have a place to sleep that night. And they had never met before! Gulliver never met anything as strange in all his travels, says an exchange.

The original is always the best—imitations are cheap. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. It is different from all others—it is better than all others—it cures all coughs and colds and leaves the system stronger than before. The letter B in red is on every package. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

"I love all that is beautiful in art and nature," she said, turning her dreamy eyes to his. "I revel in the green fields, the babbling brooks and the little wayside flowers; I feast on the beauties of earth, and sky and air. They are my daily life and food, and—" "Maudie!" cried out the mother from the kitchen, not knowing that her daughter's beau was in the drawing room. "Maudie, whatever made you go and gobble up that big dish of mashed potatoes that was left over from dinner? I told you we wanted them warmed up for supper. Your appetite is enough to bankrupt your poor pa!"

Every man owes it to himself and his family to master a trade or profession. Read the display advertisement of the six Morse Schools of Telegraphy, in this issue, and learn how easily a young man or lady may learn telegraphy and be assured a position.

Jer. J. Livengood & Son have placed a new roof on their blacksmith shop, which is one of the old landmarks of the town. The carpenter work was done by Wm. C. Wagner and "Mistah Edgah Showaltah." We are surprised at a good union man like "Mistah Edgah," leaving his regular avocation, that of coal mining, and doing work that does not belong to his craft. When other people do the like of that, "Mistah Edgah" calls it "scabbing." But it makes a difference, you know, whose ox is gored, and it also makes a difference when a man can't loaf and live off of money paid to him by the union—money, which is earned at hard labor by miners in other regions.

A business man who has the hiring of a great many workmen, says it is hard to get men to do what they are told to do without arguing the matter. "I learned when a young man the lesson, and it has clung to me ever since," he said. "In company with a number of boys I answered an advertisement for a boy. When I was shown into the presence of the man, he said that I would find a saw at a certain place in the back shed, and that out in the barn lot was a new wagon. He told me to take the saw, and go out and saw the tongue of that wagon in half. I did so, and when I returned he said that he had told a dozen other boys to do that same thing, and all had argued the question with him. He wanted a boy who would do what he was told to do." —Johnstown Tribune.

All old-time cough syrups were designed to treat throat, lung and bronchial affections without due regard for the stomach and bowels, hence most of them produce constipation. Bee's, the original Laxative Honey and Tar, gently moves the bowels and cures all coughs, colds, croup, etc. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. Look for the letter B in red on every package. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 9-1

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Smith go to Esbon, Kan., this week, where Mr. Smith has accepted a position in a large general store owned and operated by Milton J. and Robert Beachy. They left here on Tuesday morning for Connelville, Pa., to spend a few days with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Schell, before going to Kansas. Some time ago Mr. Smith was elected cashier of the First National Bank of Boswell, Pa., but he resigned the position shortly after entering upon his duties at that institution. He no doubt had his present position in view at the time, and as the greater portion of his life has been spent in a general store, it is but natural for him to prefer merchandising to anything else. He is a good salesman and a good citizen, and the people of Salisbury regret to see him leave our community, but all unite in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Smith prosperity and happiness wherever they go.

Last Sunday the editor took his little daughter, Minnie, back to the Edgewood Park school for the deaf, which splendid institution is located in a beautiful suburb of Pittsburg. He was accompanied by W. B. Stevanus, and after leaving the institution, both took a street car for Braddock, for the purpose of making a short visit with S. S. Koontz and family, who moved from Salisbury to Braddock about five years ago. The Koontz family is getting along nicely at Braddock, and all of them are well pleased with their change of location. Mr. Koontz is conducting a wagon-maker's shop owned by a widow, and he has a good, steady job at fair wages. His two sons are barbers, and recently started to run a shop of their own. They are doing a nice business. M. C. Kann, a son-in-law of Mr. Koontz, also resides in Braddock, having moved there recently from Garrett. He has lots of work at his trade (carpentering) and works Sundays and all, owing to the great building activity and demand for carpenters in and about that town. Last Sunday some of Mr. and Mrs. Kann's children were in bed, very sick, on account of the damnable vaccination crime they had to submit to or be kept out of school.
