Crude Thoughts As They Fall From the Editorial Pen—Pleasant Evening Reveries.

Home Circle Department.

A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers As They Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

Never be too tired or too busy to welcome an absent one's return with a pleasant greeting. If at any time reproof be necessary, give it gently and firmly, but never on the eve of parting nor on the absent one's return. Let pleasant memories hallow the parting hour and the home-coming.

In the very beginning it was decided by the highest authority that it was not good for man to be alone, and we don't wonder at it when we look about us and see how much some men expect of their wives. We read somewhere recently that "of all creatures in the world a man is the most helpless alone. A chicken two hours out of the shell can take better care of itself than a man can." Of course a woman wrote that, and the next conclusion is that that woman has washed her husband's neck and ears ever since she has had him, and has made him just the helpless creature that he is.

The question is often asked, is marriage a failure? We say no, if you don't expect too much of it; but don't run the risk of trying to reform a man after marriage. In all probability you will be disappointed if you do. If your husband used tobacco when you married him, the Bible forbids curtain lectures afterwards, for it says, "he that is filthy, let him be filthy still." There is a bright side to everything, if you will only look till you find it. If your husband smokes, be thankful he doesn't chew; if he smokes and chews both, be thankful he doesn't drink; if he does all three, be thankful he won't live long.

There are very few children indeed that ever get over their early training. In a certain town there stands, in front of the school building, a large tree. When this tree was quite small a boy climbed to the top of it, and swinging off by his weight, pulled it over to the ground. It still shows the effect of that bending. How many people go through life with their characters all bent and warped for the want of proper early training? Being gentle and tender in her nature, woman comes in close contact with children, wielding an influence that no one else possibly could. Had it not been for the wise mothers, this country might never have had a character so noble as that of George Washington. A great man once said of his mother: "All that I am, or ever hope to be, I owe to my mother."

OUR CHILDREN.

Home should be made the most interesting and loved spot on earth, not merely four square walls of wood and brick; it should be the foundation of civilization, the very word should touch every fiber of the soul, and strike every cord of the human heart with its angelic fingers, a place where thought is centralized on the higher and better things of life, bringing forth in the highways and byways an influence that will be felt by all with whom it comes in contact. It should be a place where the heart is, a place where our feet may leave, but not our hearts; a place where angels unfold their wings, the place we love best, because it is the place where mother is or was.

Men can build the house and roof it in, a resistance against storms and elements, but the man with all his genius and artisan science cannot make the home; that ever has and ever will be the task of woman. It is she alone that can bring to it warmth and beauty, where she reigns supreme.

Let our homes be places of love, joy and brightest sunshine, places of enduring love that outlasts the wedding day, and which produces a life of one long unbroken honeymoon, the molding place of character, a place where the child breathes an atmosphere perfumed by the choicest flowers of heaven, where it finds the greatest earthly security in mother's loving, fostering care.

THE GIRL WE ALL LOVE.

There are girls, and many of them, even readers of this paper, of whom it can be truthfully said, we all love them. They have virtues whose charm of manner attracts us all. They are not self-righteous. They are not aware that we all admire them. On the other hand, in their efforts to contribute to the welfare of others, they are oblivious of self, thereby rendering themselves more attractive.

Their influence is felt most in the home. A home is what a woman makes it, and a daughter, in nine cases out of ten, is the reflection of her mother.

There the girl has the privilege of acting as "ministering angel." By her gentleness she refines the manners of the brothers, and is diligent in her kindness to the aged, throwing wreaths of blossoms on the road that leads father and mother down the steep of years. No child of want ever comes to her and is turned away empty; no one in sorrow comes to her but is comforted.

A BIG POLITICAL GAME

Scheme to Make Gordon, Democrat, Governor and Wanamaker Senator.

THAT IS AIM OF LINCOLN PARTY

Berry, Bryanite, Free Silver Candidate For State Treasurer, Gets Body Blows at Two Ends of the State.

[Special Correspondence.] Philadelphia, Oct. 3.

The so-called Lincoln Party, which was formed to defeat the Republican ticket at next month's election has proved a complete fizzle.

Outside of the few men at the head of the organization, all of whom are disappointed office seekers, and many of them long ago repudiated by the Republican party, there is absolutely no backing to the agitation, aside from the Wanamaker newspaper combination.

Here and there, there will be found little groups of followers of these leaders who make speeches and adopt resolutions for publication in the insurgent newspapers, so as to make it appear that there is a popular sentiment for their cause.

But the people are not being fooled. The Lincoln Party is virtually a revival of the old insurgent movement which was financed by Wanamaker interests, when Wanamaker was a candidate for United States senator.

The same old faces are seen at their meetings and the same old anti-Republican speeches are heard at all of their gatherings.

Former Senator Emery, of McKean county, who has been heard frequently on the stump for Democratic candidates for office, is now at the front of the Lincoln Party movement, which is backing Berry, the Free-silver Bryanite, Democrat and Prohibitionist, for State Treasurer against J. Lee Plummer, one of the most loyal and sincere Republicans that this state ever knew and a man whose integrity and honesty of purpose have never been questioned.

With Emery in McKean county, there is Niles in York, who has twice been turned down for superior court justice in Republican conventions and who has probably come to the conclusion that he must wreck the Republican party before he can satisfy his craving for a fat office.

Niles is chairman of the state committee of the Lincoln Party, and associated with him as secretary is George E. Mapes, an editor on the Democratic Philadelphia Record, which is dominated by the Wanamaker interests.

Where the Wires Are Pulled.

The Lincoln Party leaders up the state have frequent conferences with E. A. Van Valkenburg, the Wanamaker political manager in Philadelphia.

In fact, the whole movement is virtually directed from the Wanamaker headquarters. Realizing the interests which have been promoting this scheme, the great body of voters in Pennsylvania have refused to have anything to do with it.

Many are of the opinion that the whole agitation is leading up to a movement to make former Judge James Gay Gordon, a Democrat, an independent candidate for governor, with the ultimate aim of electing Wanamaker United States senator to succeed Penrose.

The more this idea gets abroad the less popular will be the Lincoln party in the eyes of Republicans of Pennsylvania.

Reports from every county in the state received by Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, chairman of the Republican state committee, indicate that there will be a large Republican vote polled at the coming election and that the Republican candidates will be elected by majorities which will exceed any given to Republican nominees in an "off year" at any time in the history of Pennsylvania.

Berry Gets Two Hard Blows.

The Berry campaigners were given severe blows from unexpected quarters in both Allegheny county and Philadelphia.

They were counting in the west upon the support of the Citizens' Party in Allegheny county. They had all their plans made upon the basis of getting Berry's name upon the Citizens' Party ticket and thus secure for him the large vote which the independent organization will poll for its local candidates.

But the Republicans who are affiliated with the Citizens' Party did not propose to have their organization made a tail to the Wanamaker kite. They said:

"No! We will place the name of J. Lee Plummer, the Republican nominee for state treasurer, at the head of our ticket, along with those of the other Republican state candidates."

And that is just what they did. Then a howl went up from the Lincolnites. The Wanamakerites throughout the state fairly shrieked with anger. Their Democratic allies were swearing mad.

The whole Berry campaign depended upon a deal with the Citizens' Party to give them the shadow of a chance of figuring in the election returns as a factor in the fight.

So indignant was "Wes" Guffey, a brother of Colonel Guffey, the Democratic state leader, over the throw-down which the Berry men got from the Citizens' Party that he immediately resigned from the Democratic committee and said that he would have nothing further to do with the men responsible for the repudiation of Berry.

Business Men Said No.
The facts are that business men and manufacturers of Allegheny county who stood by the Republican party in past campaigns for sound money and the preservation of the Republican policies in regard to the tariff, would have nothing to do with the free silver and free trade Berry, whom the Lincolnites and the Democrats sought to foist upon the Citizens' Party.

The Republican candidate for state treasurer, Mr. Plummer, is now upon the regular Republican ticket and the Citizens' Party ticket in Allegheny county, and he is assured of a very large majority there.

The Philadelphia situation could not be more gratifying.

The City Party, like the Citizens' Party in the west, decided that they could not afford to have a Bryanite at the head of their ticket. They, too, turned down the Lincolnite-Democratic proposition to name Berry for state treasurer and they decided to put no state ticket in the field. This was done for purely local reasons.

The men back of the City Party are practically the same as those who are financing the Lincoln Party. They want Berry elected state treasurer but they feared that they would lose votes for their Philadelphia local candidates if they put his name on the City Party ticket.

Their game is to have all their radical insurgents vote the Lincoln Party ticket in Philadelphia, which will have the City Party candidates for the Philadelphia local offices in the Lincoln column.

Democrats Are Mad.

The refusal to put Berry's name at the head of the City Party ticket has raised a ruction among the Philadelphia Democrats.

Many of them declare they have been sold out. After the Democratic convention nominated the full City Party ticket for local offices the Democratic leaders were led to expect that the City Party would put Berry on their ticket.

Now the Democrats are organizing in every ward in Philadelphia to oppose the whole City Party movement. They have a Bryan ticket with Berry for state treasurer and the full Republican local ticket for local offices. In that way they will get even with the Lincolnites and City Party men, by helping to defeat their Philadelphia local ticket.

KNOX POINTS THE WAY

SHOULD STAND BY THEIR PARTY

Best Way to Maintain National Republican Supremacy is to Maintain Supremacy of Party Within the States.

United States Senator Philander C. Knox has emphasized the importance of Republican success in Pennsylvania this fall in a strong public interview referring to the political situation in the Keystone State.

Without an authority whatever some of the Lincoln Party adherents have been circulating reports that members of President Roosevelt's cabinet inset were in sympathy with their independent canvass, but it can be positively stated that the national administration is as eager for a great Republican victory in Pennsylvania this fall, as it is desirous of Republican success throughout the country.

President Roosevelt wants a Republican congress elected next year to insure the carrying out of his policies and he is looking to Pennsylvania to furnish a big Republican delegation to the next congress. Senator Knox has frequent talks with the president and fully understands his views on this subject.

This is what Senator Knox has to say on the political situation and he said it with manifest candor and earnestness.

"I will vote the entire Republican state ticket in November and I believe it will be elected."

"I believe in electing Republicans to the state offices and that the Republican party should then see that they administer the offices faithfully and well."

"I believe the best way to maintain national Republican supremacy is to maintain the supremacy of the party within the state and to make the state's influence proportionate to its greatness, is in my judgment, to have the party meet the just and reasonable demands of the people for wise legislation and honest administration."

"I am satisfied that this is the view of the great majority of Pennsylvanians, and a great majority of Pennsylvanians are Republicans."
