As a remedy for fleas, a Nebraska man soaked his dogs in gasoline, put them down cellar, and a little later went down with a lighted candle to see how they were coming along. The three doctors in charge of him are divided in opinion as to whether he will live or die. The fleas are not causing the dogs any anxiety. 12-1

Thomas Browning, Sr., the last surviving son of Meshach Browning, pioneer hunter of the Alleghenies, and author of "Forty-four Years of the Life of a Hunter," died at the home of his son, John S. Browning, near Crellin, Garrett county, Md., Wednesday, Sept. 27, 1905, at the age of 90 years. He carried a crippled hand as a result of a fight with a bear. His knife slipped and nearly cut the hand off, but he killed the bear. 12-1

Last Saturday about two dozen or more members of the local lodge Improved Order of Red Men went to Frostburg in Frank Wagner's big carry-all, drawn by six horses. They went over the hills and dales to visit the Frostburg "Injuns," who recently made a visit to Salisbury, which is their custom once a year. The Frostburg "Injuns" always have a good time here, and that is what the Salisbury "Injuns" had at Frostburg. 12-1

Backache is never known to those persons who take an occasional dose of Pineules. The value of the resin obtained from the Pine tree has long been recognized in the treatment of diseases of the bladder and kidneys. One dose of Pineules will give relief, and one bottle will cure. J. S. Broadwater, of Grantsville, Md., who shot himself in the head with a pistol, with suicidal intent, Wednesday afternoon of last week, died at about 7:30 o'clock, Saturday evening last. His age was 56 years and 3 days. The funeral service was held at the Grantsville Reformed church, Tuesday at 10 a. m., conducted by Rev. Stover, of Keim, and Rev. McCoy, of Grantsville. The service was attended by a very large number of people. 12-1

A teacher in one of our country schools had a class of young scholars before her in mathematics. The examples were in addition and the following illustration was offered by the teacher: "Now, children, if I lay four eggs on the desk and Sammy," she pointed to a freckle-faced lad at the head of the class, "should lay three eggs on the desk, how many would there be?" The bad boy of the class who was at the foot and had listened intently, shouted, "Go on, Sam, take her up! I don't think she can do it." 12-1

It is difficult to cure a cough or free yourself from the discomforts of a cold unless you move the bowels. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar acts on the bowels and drives all cold out of the system. For Croup, Whooping-Cough, Colds, and all Lung and Bronchial affections, no remedy is equal to the original Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. A Liquid Cold Cure. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 12-1

Just as we go to press we learn of a robbery that was committed at Boynton, last night, when the store of R. F. Thomas and the Boynton postoffice were broken open and robbed. We have not learned the full particulars, more than that the doors were pried open with tools stolen from a small workshop or tool house owned by the B. & O. Railroad Company, and that money amounting to about $40 was stolen from Mr. Thomas. Some think the theft was committed by "hoboes" that were seen in that vicinity several days ago, while others lay the blame to local characters. 12-1

Here is a good-fellowship story that is going the rounds: Give a man a 10-cent cigar, and he will beam all over and love you for six hours; offer him the ten cents with which to buy it for himself, and he will throw it in your face. Give a man a pass to a show, and he will call you a good fellow in all the languages at his disposal; offer him the money to buy a ticket, and he will call you a fool. Ask a man to your home to take "pot-luck," and he will jump at the chance; give him two dollars and tell him to get a good meal at a cafe with your compliments, and he will knock you down. The dollar is mighty, but it isn't warm. Nothing chills hospitality and good fellowship more than a touch of cold metal. 12-1

Commenting on the havoc the mail-order houses are playing with the trade of the country stores, the editor of Hardware Trade says: "The catalogue houses have built up their trade by the use of pictures and by advertising prices, making low prices on goods with which the consumer is well acquainted and getting the profit back on other lines which the consumer does not know so well. To meet this competition, the country merchant must use the same methods as the catalogue house. He must advertise; he must give prices in his advertisements, and he must use illustrations whenever possible. Were it not for the pictures in the catalogues, the retail catalogue houses would not sell one half the goods they do. 12-1

Croup is quickly relieved, and Whooping Cough will not "run its course" if you use the original Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. This Cough Syrup is different from all others because it acts on the bowels. You can not cure Croup and Whooping Cough until you rid the system of all congestion, by working off the cold through a copious action of the bowels. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar does this, and cures all Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. No opiates. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 12-1

Rev. A. K. Travis expects to leave Salisbury for his new charge at Addison, tomorrow, and it is needless to say that all the good people of Salisbury and vicinity will be genuinely sorry to part with the reverend gentleman and his estimable young bride. Rev. Travis has filled the M. E. pulpit of this place for nearly two years, and if there are any people in this town who do not like the genial, warm-hearted, red-headed Englishman, we do not know who they are. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Travis all manner of happiness and prosperity in their new home, where THE STAR will visit them weekly, and if the people of Addison do not treat them right, the community ought to be wiped out by a shower of fire and brimstone. But the people of Addison will treat them right, for there are lots of good people up there. 12-1

Bright and early this morning our latch string was pulled by Candidates Ankeny and Zimmerman, who walked into our den and roasted their shins a while at the fire which our faithful devil never allows to burn low when the weather is cold. "Ankie" and "Zimmi" are candidates for County Treasurer and County Commissioner, respectively, and both are running, or rather creeping, on the Orphans' and Citizens' Union tickets. They don't look much like hungry office-seekers, for both are fat fellows and look like men that live at their ease and give hard work a wide berth. However, both are working the political racket for all there is in it, and both of them ought to be in better and more honorable business than to be running over the county trying to disrupt the Republican party. All candidates are welcome at THE STAR office, and we try to make all of them feel at home; but we are glad that we don't have to vote for any who seek office on a mongrel ticket made up of soreheads and pledge-breakers. The honest voters of Somerset county owe the candidates on the Orphans' and Citizens' Union tickets nothing but a good, thorough licking at the polls, and that is just what they will give them. 12-1

FOR ALL KINDS OF PILES. To draw the fire out of a burn, heal a cut without leaving a scar, or to cure boils, sores, tetter, eczema and all skin and scalp diseases, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. Stops the pain instantly and cures permanently. Get the genuine. Sold by E. H. Miller. 11-1

The Electric Road. A Pittsburg capitalist who is now at the head of the projected Meyersdale & Salisbury street railway, was in Salisbury last night and had a meeting with some of our citizens who are most interested in the road. Matters are shaping themselves nicely now for the completion of the road in the early spring, and this is neither a joke nor a dream. We do not care to state any more at this time, but that the road will be completed early next year is now practically an assured fact. 12-1

Albert D. Beachy in a Bad Wreck. Our friend Albert D. Beachy, of Chicago, was recently in a most horrible railroad wreck on the Oregon Short Line, while making a business tour of some of the Pacific coast states. The train he was riding on, while running at high speed, smashed into another train that was standing on the same track at Eaton Station, Idaho, smashing the cars into kindling wood, killing the engineer and fireman of the passenger train, also the mail clerk, and injuring several of the passengers. How any of the passengers escaped will always remain a mystery, as the smash-up of the cars was the most complete that the railroad men who viewed it had ever seen. In a letter received from Mr. Beachy, he enclosed a newspaper clipping telling all about the wreck, and he adds that kind Providence was surely in evidence, otherwise he would have been crushed to death. 12-1

Well, we congratulate our friend on his fortunate escape, and we hope he may never get into any more railroad wrecks. 12-1
