Everything you eat will taste good and do good if you take Ring's Dyspepsia Tablets. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 12-1

Now is the time to plant your Holiday advertisements in the columns of THE STAR. The early advertisers catch the trade, and this paper is a good medium through which to reach the best people.

It is a pleasure to take Dr. Dade's Little Liver Pills and enjoy their tonic effect upon the liver. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 12-1

Horse Collar Stephen, Adam and "Shine" Fogle, Roscoe Welley and all of the other sorehead yelpers and would-be politicians of this borough, turned themselves loose in great shape during the campaign just closed, and yet, with all their bawling, bawling and scheming, they could not carry this borough for the Orphans' ticket.

Pinesalve acts like a poultice. Best thing in the world for boils, burns, cracked hands, tetter, etc. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 12-1

A clipping declaring the kiss microbe is dangerous has reached the Here and There Man, and with it a note in a feminine hand, saying it is "all bosh." We are sorry to state, however, that the young lady's unsupported word doesn't go in this instance. This is one of the cases where we are strictly from Missouri, and nowhere else.—Johnstown Tribune.

One night is all the time necessary to prove that Pineules is the best remedy in the world for backache and all kidney and bladder troubles. If you have rheumatism or any other blood disease, a single dose will give relief. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 12-1

A school teacher not a thousand miles from here was hearing a class in grammar, and asked them to compose a sentence with the word "damper" in it. None of them could until one small boy said he would try, and was asked to proceed. "Our teacher is too dampericular with our grammar," came the startling answer. The reader can guess the consequences.

Every man owes it to himself and his family to master a trade or profession. Read the display advertisement of the six Morse Schools of Telegraphy, in this issue, and learn how easily a young man or lady may learn telegraphy and be assured a position. 12-1

The drinking of an abundance of water will prevent appendicitis, because appendicitis is the result of constipation, and constipation is the result of insufficient bile, and insufficient bile is the result of an insufficient supply of liquids. That's what an exchange says, anyway. If anybody wants any further reasons they'll have to go elsewhere.

Dr. A. L. Haselbarth has begun the erection of a small building on the Haselbarth lot just north of the Elk Lick Supply Company's store, and as soon as it is completed he will have dental rooms equipped therein. The location is a very good one. The doctor will do business in the M. J. Glotfelty store building, on the second floor, until his new building is completed.

Do not be deceived by counterfeits when you buy Witch Hazel Salve. The name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. is on every box of the genuine. Piles in their worst form will soon pass away if you will apply DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve night and morning. Best for Cuts, Burns, Boils, Tetter, Eczema, etc. Sold by E. H. Miller. 12-1

Charles S. Beal, who moved to Fayette county, some time ago, has returned to Salisbury and will again take up his abode here. One by one the wanderers return, for they soon find out after leaving here that there are few places, whether union or non-union regions, where working men can make as much money as they can make here in the good old Elk Lick coal region.

You can apply ManZan inside, right where the pain is. It is put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle attachment for introducing it. ManZan stops pain instantly and cures all kinds of blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 12-1

Our electric light company has begun work on erecting poles, and by this time next week a good start will be made on the power house, which is to be located at Boynton. In this issue of THE STAR we publish the light franchise granted by the Town Council, also the charter notice of the light company. The plant will be in operation within two months, if the weather does not get too rough.

Backache is never known to those persons who take an occasional dose of Pineules. The value of the resin obtained from the Pine tree has long been recognized in the treatment of diseases of the bladder and kidneys. One dose of Pineules will give relief, and one bottle will cure. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 12-1

From the green tree as it stood in the forest to the printed newspaper in two hours and twenty-five minutes is the latest record for swift work in paper-making. That record has just been made in Norway. The tree was cut down and a portion of it made into paper and printed in the short time mentioned, incredulous as it may seem. One could almost hear the green leaves rustle as he read the printed sheet, says an exchange.

Our genial friend Daniel Livengood, manager of the West Salisbury Feed Co., is once more a resident of our town, having taken up bachelor's quarters on the second floor of the M. J. Glotfelty building, near the corner of Grant and Ord streets. He will board with Rev. T. S. Fike. As the typical country newspaper correspondent would say, we are glad to have Daniel located in our midst, as he is one of the best fellows that ever came down the pike.

It is difficult to cure a cough or free yourself from the discomforts of a cold unless you move the bowels. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar acts on the bowels and drives all cold out of the system. For Croup, Whooping-Cough Colds, and all Lung and Bronchial affections, no remedy is equal to the original Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. A Liquid Cold Cure. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 12-1

Murphy Bros., our up-to-date restaurant men, have placed a large and handsomely painted sign in front of their place of business. The new firm is getting right to the front in a business way, and we are glad to note that Murphy Bros. are getting more patrons right along. They are giving the town pretty good restaurant service, and their place should be liberally patronized, for that is the only way a good restaurant can be maintained in a town like this.

The editor of an esteemed exchange has discovered that there is a wide difference between the school books of today and those of long ago. He says when he went to school he read his lesson in the First reader something like this: "See the cow. Is not the cow nice? No, the cow can not run as fast as the horse." But the latest up-to-date reading of it by the average kid is as follows: "Gee, get on to the cow!—ain't she a beauty? She is a corker. Can the cow get a move on herself? You bet she kin. Can she hump it like de hoss? Nit—she ain't in it wid de hoss."

Croup is quickly relieved, and Whooping Cough will not "run its course" if you use the original Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. This Cough Syrup is different from all others because it acts on the bowels. You can not cure Croup and Whooping Cough until you rid the system of all congestion, by working off the cold through a copious action of the bowels. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar does this, and cures all Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. No opiates. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 12-1

Just now the great mail order houses are flooding the country with their catalogues with a view of securing cash ten to thirty days in advance for goods. People who are obliged to buy on tick of their home merchants, nine or ten months in the year, ought not to allow themselves to be humbugged by those greedy firms who are building up the greatest monopolies on earth. No person should send away for goods without first giving the home dealer a chance to figure on the bill. Home merchants can and do save you money, and never have cheek to demand the cash thirty days, or even one day in advance. If you are in the habit of patronizing mail order houses, just give the home merchants an opportunity to figure on your next bill before mailing the order, and you will be surprised.

The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal Church held a fine time at Mrs. Sink's house, which was a nice thing in every way. It was an ice cream sociable to buy the pastor an overcoat, so that he may plod along this winter without freezing his weary bones. The ladies served the cream, but Deacon Dailey was in charge. "Be hogish, folks," he called now and then. "Eat all you can crowd in, so's the preacher can be warm this winter." Many young fellows brought their girls, and one did even worse than that by fetching a complete jag to the festival. His name shall not be mentioned, as he spent thirty cents for ice cream, eating it all fervently, and we bet it didn't go well with that booze. But what matter? Seven dollars and ninety cents was realized from the affray, enough to buy Preacher Hicks a fine coat and leave $1.90 for socks and other things, says an exchange published at Paw Paw, Mo.

"I THANK THE LORD!" cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at E. H. Miller's drug store; 25c. 12-1

Salisbury to Have a New Hardware Store.

Miss Almira Lichliter this week sold her lot on the corner of Ord and Walnut streets, to Mrs. Catharine Long, of Fairchance, Pa., for $275 cash. Mrs. Long has already contracted for a building on the lot, which is to be erected at once, and the same will be a residence and store building combined. Her husband is a hardware merchant, and will engage in that business here.

SCHOOL RULES.

A Set of Them that Were Recently Found in an Old Building.

A set of school rules used in olden times were recently found in an old school house in a neighboring state. They are as follows:

1. Any scholar who comes to school without washing their face and hands and combing their hair, shall have two cuts well laid on.
2. Anyone coming to or going from school meeting a person or persons, and do not make their obeisance and speak politely to them, shall have two ditto.
3. Any of the scholars when talking to a person, if to a man, do not answer him yes sir, or if to a woman yes madam, no madam, as the case may require shall have three cuts well laid on.
4. If any of the boys are known by me to wear their hats in the house at home, school or abroad, shall have two lashes well laid on.
5. If the boys are known by me to play with the girls, or to trouble their playground, or if the girls go to play with the boys, or trouble their playground, for each offense they shall have two lashes.
6. When a person or persons come into the schoolhouse, those who do not rise and make their obeisance (when spoken) then take their seats and be attentive to business the time the person or persons stay, shall have two cuts well laid on.
7. Those who tell tales out of school, and do not give a true account of what they tell, or if they raise a falsity to make an interruption in school, shall have four cuts to do.
8. If any of the scholars are known by me to curse, swear, quarrel, fight, call each other by nicknames, or use any profane or bad language, shall have seven cuts to do.
9. If any are known by me to climb trees, wrestle or scuffle, to tear or dirty their clothes, shall have three to do.
10. If any scholar is known by me to play or loiter on the road when coming to or going from school, shall have two cuts well laid on.
11. If any one should enter to this school who are young men and women and do not feel disposed to comply with the rules of the school, if they violate them, they shall leave the school to their own great shame and disgrace.
12. If any should be knowing to the violation of any of the above-mentioned rules, and do not immediately, or as soon as convenient, give me information, shall be subject to half the penalty of the rule violated.
13. If any scholar is known by me to tag another in the evening after school he or she shall be punished according to the crime. Also laughing out and talking in school strictly forbidden under penalty of a flogging.

The teacher may not have been a rhetorician, but he evidently knew how to make his wishes known, and if there was any doubt about his meaning, a couple of cuts well laid on must have been enlightening and elevating.

A DISASTROUS CALAMITY.
It is a disastrous calamity, when you lose your health, because indigestion and constipation have sapped it away. Prompt relief can be had in Dr. King's New Life Pills. They build up your digestive organs, and cure headache, dizziness, colic, constipation, etc. Guaranteed at E. H. Miller's drug store; 25c. 12-1
