Why Buy McClure's?

McClure's Magazine is bought and read in homes not because it is a magazine, but because it is the magazine. Why? FIRST—THE PRICE. It costs but one dollar a year, or less than ten cents a number, for over thirteen hundred two-column pages of reading matter. This amounts in actual bulk to twenty or twenty-five books costing anywhere from a dollar to two dollars a volume. SECOND—QUALITY. The reading matter is written by America's leading writers—the best short story writers, the best writers on timely articles, the best writers of important serials, such as Schurz's Reminiscences of Baker's Railroad articles. THIRD—TIMELINESS. The reading matter in McClure's is not only good; it is not only entertaining, amusing, instructive and inspiring—it is also about the subjects in which you and all Americans are most interested at the time. No subjects in the next twelve months are going to be so important as the question of railroad rates and rebates and the question of life insurance. Both of these questions will be discussed by authorities in an impartial, careful, interesting way. FOURTH—ITS CHARACTER. McClure's Magazine is not edited for children, but at the same time, there is never a line in it that any young girl might not read. Its advertising pages are as clean as its editorial pages.

Additional Local.

John Hubbell, of Cincinnati, went to his wife and confessed that he was in love with a seventeen-year-old girl. "That's all right," she replied. "Take your time. You will get over it." "I see no reason for quarreling with my husband," said Mrs. Hubbell to others, "because he is infatuated with a pretty girl. Most men are at one time or another. Her love is a matter of imagination; mine is practical. She would never wash, cook, and slave for a poor workman and his children, but he doesn't know it. Let him alone; he'll wake up." Mrs. Hubbell's head was level.

For years the editor and family had the honor of having the largest Christmas turkey in town, each year having their table graced on Christmas by a bird varying in weight from 18 to 28 pounds, dressed. This year, however, we had to yield the big turkey championship to W. H. Boucher and family, who had a turkey for their Christmas dinner that tipped the beam at 31 pounds when ready for the oven. Geo. Boucher sent the big bird down from Friendsville, Md., and then missed the train and failed to arrive in Salisbury in time to help the balance of the family do justice to the fowl at dinner time. It just served him right, for he had no business to swipe the editor's big turkey championship away without giving notice that the honor was to be contested. He arrived at the old home in time for supper, however, and found plenty of turkey still on hand. His brother John was also at home on Christmas.

Mr. Frank Johns, of Chambersburg, Pa., arrived in town last Saturday evening for a visit with his brother Scott and family. While he and Scott were driving up from Meyersdale on the evening of his arrival, they were given a bad scare at the Moser cut, by a passing train. The horse pulled to the side of the road, overturning the buggy and spilling out the occupants. Luckily, however, they were not injured, but the buggy was considerably damaged. Had the horse been a very hard one to manage, both of the men would likely have been killed or badly injured. Frank told the editor that it was as bad a scare as he ever had in his life, and he has been in many perilous places in his time, having served his country several years in the War of the Rebellion, and participated in many of its bloodiest battles. He is at present deeply mourning the death of his loved and esteemed wife, who died very suddenly, several weeks ago. This will be sad news to the many friends Mrs. Johns had here in Salisbury, and THE STAR joins in "extending sympathy to the bereaved husband.

Wedding Bells.

Mr. Daniel Livengood, the genial and popular manager of the West Salisbury Feed Company's store, was quietly married to a Miss Miller, in Meyersdale, Tuesday last, and from thence went to Washington and other eastern points with his fair bride.

We can give no particulars of the wedding, any more than to state that the bride is reported to be a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Miller, who resided near Meyersdale some years ago, but now deceased.

The bride and groom became acquainted, we are told, while attending Juniata College, at Huntingdon, Pa., several years ago. They are both very popular, and, to the best of our knowledge, both graduates of Juniata College.

The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Livengood. He is a young man of rare business ability, and decidedly one of the finest all-around young men we ever knew. THE STAR extends its most hearty congratulations and best wishes.

Our Oldest Citizen Dead.
Salisbury's oldest citizen, Mr. Harman Farner, passed peacefully away at the ripe age of 82 years, Tuesday evening, the 28th inst. He went out of the house after eating his noon meal to sweep the snow off the sidewalk. Shortly afterward it was discovered that he had fallen over, and as quickly as possible he was carried into the house, and a physician was sent for. Life was not extinct until about 8 o'clock, but he was unconscious from the time he fell.

Deceased is survived by his second wife, three sons and three daughters, viz: Henry, of Sand Patch; Germanus, of Iowa; Frank, of Salisbury; Mrs. Lydia Boyer, of Schuylkill county, Pa.; Mrs. Lucinda Garlitz, of Kingwood, W. Va., and Mrs. Araminta Call, of Iowa. The children are all of the first wife, who before marriage was Miss Eliza Newman, and who died about the year 1872.

The funeral takes place today at two o'clock p. m., Rev. H. S. May officiating. Deceased was a devoted member of the Reformed church. He lived in Salisbury for many years, was a veteran of the Civil War, and a man greatly esteemed by his neighbors and friends.

Through THE STAR, the various members of the bereaved family return their thanks for kindness and assistance rendered to them during this bereavement.

All kinds of Legal and Commercial Blanks, Judgment Notes, etc., for sale at THE STAR office.

Home Circle Department.

The men of earth build houses—halls and Chambers, roofs and domes—But the women of the earth—God knows!—the Women build the homes. Eve could not stray from Paradise, for oh, No matter where Her gracious presence lit the way, lo! Paradise was there.

NEW YEAR THOUGHTS.

The desire to turn over a new leaf at the commencement of a new year is not something to be ridiculed. Few people are satisfied with the life they have led, and very few ought to be.

If you have lived for your own enjoyment, and have sought its indulgence, you surely have met with disappointment, and when the New Year comes upon you like the striking of a great clock, is it not a good time for the resolve that you will seek higher happiness in a life more industrious, purposeful, and worthy of yourself?

If you have been so taken up with the pursuits of business or ambition that you have neglected self improvement, and let your home affections grow dull, and forgotten the needs of the community about you, it is well to call a halt and give the better part of yourself a chance.

If you sorrowfully feel that you have lost the simple trust of earlier days, if faith, hope and love have grown dim amid the dust and smoke of life's turmoil, it surely will be well for you to get out of the turmoil for a little while, to seek some quiet sanctuary, it may be with those who assemble themselves together for God's worship, it may be with the loved ones of your home, or it may be in the stillness of your own spirit, to brighten up those best possessions of your soul and to bind yourself by new ties to the immortal life.

The child that grows up in a progressive, happy home, is very apt to raise children in a progressive, happy home.

Finish every day and be done with it. You have done what you could. Some blunders and mistakes have been made. Tomorrow will be a new day; begin it well. It is too dear with its hopes to waste a moment on yesterday.

Children, look in those eyes, listen to that dear voice, notice the feeling of even a single touch that is bestowed upon you by that gentle hand; make much of it while you have that most precious of all gifts, a loving mother.

Fathers, live more with your boys. Your intentions are good, but it is said that the lower regions are paved with good intentions, and you only get credit for what you do. A girl is never safer than when with her mother, but when your boy reaches a certain age, what he amounts to is largely up to you. And the boys who are making the streets of our town a synonym for depravity, are the result of parental neglect and evasion of plain duty on the part of the father.

Let all our subscribers who enjoy reading the Home Circle Department and desire us to continue it through the year 1906, hold up their hands.

The vote certainly indicates that this special feature of our paper is appreciated. Only one hand down, and we recognize it as the hand of a man, who, to our certain knowledge, has not spent an evening with his family for six months. You all know him. It is needless to publish his name. He has a noble wife and promising family, but his chair in the home circle is always vacant, except at the noon hour. For such as he this department has no attractions.

Envy's memory is nothing but a row of hooks to hang up grudges on. Some people's sensibility is a mere bundle of aversions, and you hear them display and parade it, not in recounting the things they are attached to, but in telling you how many things and persons "they cannot bear."

War Started Against Saloons.
The Presbytery of the Blairsville district has declared war on the saloon. Resolutions have been passed admonishing members of the church not to sign applications for license, and another directed to the Judges of Somerset, Allegheny, Cambria and Indiana counties, asking them to reduce the number licenses granted to clubs, saloons, breweries and distilleries.

A LIQUID COLD CURE.
Croup, Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, etc., have no terrors for children or adults who evacuate the bowels with Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the Original Laxative Cough Syrup and Liquid Cold Cure. This remedy expels all cold from the system and strengthens the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes. The mother's favorite and children's safeguard. Sold by E. H. Miller.
