Casper Wahl, the old reliable butcher, has our thanks for a subscription to the "Twinkler," for his daughter, Mrs. D. A. McLaughlin, of New York state. He sends the paper as a New Year's gift. Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing Nature to appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. H. Miller. 2-1

Miss Lulu Margaret Getty, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. O. G. Getty, and Mr. Eugene Clarence Hostetler, second son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. D., of the Reformed church.

Now is the time to guard the health and strength of the lungs. The best remedy to use for coughs and colds is Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. Best for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 3-1

We return thanks to those of our subscribers who have favored us during the week with cash and best wishes for the new year. Behold there is more rejoicing in the editorial sanctum over one subscriber that payeth, even though he may "cuss" the paper, than there is over the ninety and nine that feed the editor taffy, praise his sheet, but never pay him a cent. For the latter class there is a hot time coming.

Charles Johnson, Edward Berkebile and William Savage, aged 25, 65 and 40, respectively, met a violent death in a coal mine owned and operated near Stoystown, by the Shade Smokeless Coal Co. A premature explosion of dynamite literally blew them to pieces, last Thursday, and also badly damaged the mine. Johnson was a single man, but the other two were married. Berkebile leaves a wife and six children; Savage, a wife and three children.

Hon. J. A. Berkey, State Banking Commissioner, has THE STAR's thanks for a copy of the 1905 edition of Smull's Legislative Hand Book. It is the nearest volume of this very valuable work of reference that we have yet seen, containing a world of valuable information and ready reference, as well as fine portraits of all the department officers at Harrisburg. On the front lid of the copy received by us is printed, on fine Morocco leather, in neat gold letters, the name of this paper. We wouldn't take a $100.00 bill for the book if we couldn't get another one like it.

A MODERN MIRACLE.

"Truly miraculous seemed the recovery of Mrs. Mollie Holt of this place," writes J. O. R. Hooper, Woodford, Tenn., "she was so wasted by coughing up puss from her lungs. Doctors declared her end so near that her family had watched by her bedside forty-eight hours; when, at my urgent request Dr. King's New Discovery was given her, with the astonishing result that improvement began, and continued until she finally completely recovered, and is a healthy woman today." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c. and $1.00 at E. H. Miller's, Druggist. Trial bottle free. 2-1

Miss Maggie DeHaven is seriously ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. Catharine DeHaven, since Thursday, as a result of an apoplectic attack.

Hon. E. D. Miller, special inspector for the State Dairy and Food Commission, came home Friday evening for a holiday vacation; but, we regret to say, Mr. Miller took sick while attending service in the United Brethren church, Sunday morning, and he has since been confined to his home, where, we are pleased to note, he is gradually recovering from his indisposition.

INDIGESTION OVERCOME.

Indigestion is easily overcome by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, because this remedy digests what you eat and gives the stomach a rest—allows it to recuperate and grow strong again. Kodol relieves Indigestion, Belching of Gas, Sour Stomach, Heart-Burn, etc., and enables the digestive organs to transform all foods into the kind of rich red blood that makes health and strength. Sold by E. H. Miller. 2-1

Wedding Reception.

The wedding reception given at the home of Elder L. A. Peck, of Elk Lick township, on Dec. 31st, in honor of his son Howard G. and wife, was a very enjoyable event. A three-course dinner, which did credit to the occasion, was served to the guests at one o'clock.

Among those present from a distance were Miss Orpha Miller, of Madison, Ohio, the Misses Emma, Carrie and Zourie Peck, Messrs. Lloyd, John and Robert Peck, Elmer Fike, McKinney and H. Dalton Cook, of Meyersdale, B. D. Kerlin, of Bloomington, Md., Irwin Shumaker, of Union Bridge, Md., and I. J. Maust and sister, of Elk Lick.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were received. A GUEST.

SOOTHING AND COMFORTING.

The soothing and comforting effects of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, when applied to Piles, sores, cuts, boils, etc. subdues pain almost instantly. This Salve draws out the inflammation, reduces swelling and acts as a rubefacient, thus circulating the blood through the diseased parts, permitting or aiding Nature to permanently remove the trouble entirely. Sold by E. H. Miller. 2-1

A Pretty Double Wedding.

Union M. E. church, Wilmington, Del., was the scene of a pretty double wedding, Wednesday, Dec. 27th, 1905. The contracting parties were Miss Charlotte L. Harris to Mr. R. B. Pusey, of Princess Anne, Md., and Miss Myrtle M. Templeman, of Cecilton, Md., to Rev. W. G. Harris, of Town Point, Md. All parties wore appropriate traveling dress, and immediately after the ceremony, which was performed by Dr. A. L. Mowbray, Presiding Elder of Wilmington district, Mr. and Mrs. Pusey left on an early train for a trip north, while Rev. and Mrs. Harris returned to the home of Mrs. Harris, in Maryland.

Rev. and Miss Harris were formerly young people of Salisbury, Pa. A GUEST.

A LIQUID COLD CURE.

For coughs and colds no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the Liquid Cold Cure. It is different from all others—better, because it expels all cold from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. Gives strength to weak lungs. Affords immediate relief in Croup, Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, etc. Children love it. Sold by E. H. Miller. 2-1

SIZING YOU UP! The man who doesn't see you, judges you by your letter head, your business card, your advertising matter. What would you think of a man whose printing looked like a tramp's clothes? You are being sized up the same way. It pays to have your printing well dressed. That's where we come in. Our's is not the cheapest work—the kind that looks like the tramp's clothes—but it's the best, and the prices are always fair.
