The Jar of Coughing

Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest rock. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the coughing, and heals the torn membranes.

"I always keep Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. It gives perfect relief whenever any of us have cough or bad cold. I have used it for a great many years and so know all about it."—Mrs. MARY ORNSTEIN, Varysburg, N. Y.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufactured at SALSAPARILLA PILLS, HALEY VIGOR.

E. E. Coder, our popular jeweler, has moved into the building formerly used as a meat market, one door north of the P. S. Hay store, on Grant street. The building has been remodeled, and Mr. Coder now has quite a neat store. He is a good workman, does a thriving business, and he has demonstrated the truth of the old proverb—"by industry we thrive." His business has grown to such an extent that he had to get his brother over from Frostburg to help him out.

He is survived by one son and four daughters, also by a large number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The funeral service was held at the Mennonite church, at Springs, Monday forenoon. The deceased was a devout and faithful member of that denomination, and he was admired and respected by all who knew him, for his many good qualities.

The Harding-Miller assault and battery case was compromised and settled several days ago. Harding paid the Millers $100, and he also paid all the costs, amounting to $42.50. All this he had to do after keeping out of the reach of the officers for about two years and being constantly in dread of being arrested. Once more it has been demonstrated that the way of the transgressor is hard at best, yet Harding was lucky to escape the penitentiary. Had his case gone to trial, there would have been scarcely any chance for him to escape the penitentiary. This case ought to teach him a very valuable lesson, but it is doubtful whether it will, as he is said to be a fellow that never learns, except by bitter experience.

Blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles are instantly relieved by Man-Zan. This remedy is put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle attachment, so that the medicine may be applied inside directly where the trouble originates. Man-Zan relieves instantly. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 3-1

Herr Von Frederick Diehl, with whom the editor had some differences of opinion during the late strike—differences which caused Herr Von Frederick to withdraw his name from our subscription list—is once more a subscriber of this great luminary. "Fritz" says he just can't hold spite at a fellow man, and that's where he shows his good sense. Any man can get mad and make a fool of himself, but it takes a philosopher and a gentleman to get over it quickly. We will say to "Fritz's" credit that when he quit the paper he did not quit in its debt, like some of the sore ones did. He is too honest a man to quit a paper that way. Nearly all the desirable subscribers this paper lost during the strike have since returned, and most of them have admitted that the course THE STAR took during the strike was right, and that they would be many dollars ahead if they had only taken its advice. We have helped many of the strikers to get work since the strike is over, but we regret to say that some of them do not seem to know it, and some seem to be as destitute of gratitude as ever.

Now is the time to guard the health and strength of the lungs. The best remedy to use for coughs and colds is Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. The only cough syrup that does not constipate the bowels, but which on the other hand, expels all cold from the system by acting as a pleasant laxative. Best for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 3-1

Some Salisbury Parents Have this Woman's Idea of Severity, and Are Rearing Criminals.

Prof. Edward A. Ross, of the University of Nebraska—he was the originator of the phrase "race suicide"—was talking the other day about the bringing up of boys.

"Boys," he said, "especially from 10 years on, should be brought up carefully—should be held strictly to account. When they go wrong it is too often because they have not been properly managed.

"I remember a rich widow whose son at 19 bade fair to become a confirmed drunkard. At an age when he should have been in bed by 10 o'clock at the latest he would be sitting nightly in cafes, smoking cigarets and drinking whisky.

"On toward midnight he would reel off home.

"Well, a minister called on the widow one day and told her that something ought to be done in her son's case.

"I'm sure I do all I can as it is," she said, plaintively. "I am worried nearly sick."

"I fear you are not firm enough with Jack," said the minister.

"On the contrary," the mother replied, "I sometimes fear I am too harsh with him."

"Why, what have you done?"

"Well, I haven't done anything, but I've said a great deal."

"What, for instance?"

"Why, I have said, 'John! John! John!' and other severe things."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

LUCKIEST MAN IN ARKANSAS.

"I'm the luckiest man in Arkansas," writes H. L. Stanley, of Bruno, "since the restoration of my wife's health after five years of continuous coughing and bleeding from the lungs; and I owe my good fortune to the world's greatest medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which I know from experience will cure consumption if taken in time. My wife improved with first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded. At E. H. Miller's, druggist. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. 3-1

THE YELLOW FEVER GERM

has recently been discovered. It bears a close resemblance to the malaria germ. To free the system from disease germs, the most effective remedy is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed to cure all diseases due to malaria poison and constipation. 25c. at E. H. Miller's Drug Store. 3-1

Nothing Very Strange About It.

And now a report comes from Grantsville that very small fish fell during a recent rain at Accident. A great phenomenon, but not so immensely satisfactory as would be just one big drop in the price of Garrett county turkeys. —Frostburg Mining Journal.

The drop in Garrett county turkeys would be very welcome to all who have to buy their turkeys, but there is nothing very strange about the small fish incident. "Small fish" and "small potatoes" abound in all communities, but most of them are of the human species. Whether they descended from the heavens, we know not; but we do know that they will never ascend to the heavens, and if they ever were there, it is no wonder that they were dropped to this mundane sphere, this "ghoul-haunted woodland of Wier."

FRIGHTFULLY BURNED.

Chas. W. Moore, a machinist, of Ford City, Pa., had his hand frightfully burned in an electrical furnace. He applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve with the usual result: "a quick and perfect cure." Greatest healer on earth for Burns, Wounds, Sores, Eczema and Piles. 25c. at E. H. Miller's, Druggist. 3-1

Lincoln's Advice to Lawyers.

"Discourage litigation" was his advice to lawyers. "Persuade your neighbors to compromise whenever you can. Point out to them how the nominal winner is often the real loser—in fees, expenses and waste of time. As a peacemaker the lawyer has a superior opportunity of becoming a good man. There will always be enough business. Never stir up a litigation. A worse man can scarcely be found than one who does this. Who can be more nearly a fiend than he who habitually overhauls the register of deeds in search of defects in titles, whereon to stir up strife and put money in his pocket? A moral tone ought to be infused into the profession which should drive such men out of it."

It has been truly said that those words should be posted in every law office in the land, and it will be seen when Lincoln's record is fully examined, that it was not a mere theorist who wrote them, but an active practitioner of wide experience who lived up to his own teaching.—Frederick Trevor Hill in the Century.
