THE PULPIT. A BRILLIANT SUNDAY SERMON BY BISHOP BURGESS.

Subject: Church Music. Brooklyn, N. Y.—Bishop Burgess preached Sunday morning in the Church of the Resurrection. The occasion was the dedication of the beautiful memorial organ, a gift to the church.

This organ, which we dedicate today to the glory of God, has been placed here in memory of one who was a faithful and devoted worshiper in this church, George Parker. There is a beautiful opportunity in the gift for church music to appeal to him with an especial power.

The Bible never seeks to prove the existence of God. The prophets, poets, philosophers, historians of the Old Testament, as well as the Apostles and Evangelists of the new, everywhere assert the existence of God.

In these revelations which are going on all the time now in the social, financial and political world, we find that the standard of ethics is practically that of men who have no faith in the deity.

God is giving songs in the night. God is giving songs in the night. Any man can sing in the day. When the cup is full, man draws inspiration from it.

Modern Miracles. The U. S. Department of Agriculture has been experimenting for some years in an effort to produce an orange which will grow in northern climates.

But during the Middle Ages, corruption had set in of so serious a nature that we find the Scottish Puritans and the Pope of Rome alike condemning music. The Puritans abolished all musical instruments from their churches.

SABBATH SCHOOL LESSON. INTERNATIONAL LESSON COMMENTS FOR FEBRUARY 18.

Subject: A Day of Miracles in Capernaum. Mark 1: 21-34—Golden Text, Mark 1: 34—Memory Verses, 33, 34—Topic: Jesus the Great Physician.

1. Christ teaching with authority (vs. 21, 22). "They." Jesus had the four disciples just called. "Into Capernaum." A city on the northwest coast of the Sea of Galilee.

2. "They were astonished." At the matter, manner, spirit and authority of His teaching. He said, "I say unto you." Without quoting the teachers. He was, 1. Dignified.

2. Original. 3. Convincing. 4. Consistent. "Not as the scribes." The scribes were without spiritual life, their manner was cold, and with an unholy ambition, they sought their own and not God's glory.

3. "Let us alone." The devil always desires to be let alone, and bad men do not want to be disturbed by anything good. We hear this cry the clearer, the more we undertake to deal with unclean things, such as intemperance, those who were said to have devils.

4. "Hold thy peace." Literally, "be thou muzzled." It is a word which means "come out of him." He speaks with authority. He will show how He is casting out the devil.

5. "Torn him." Or convulsed him. Luke says the devil threw the man, and came out of him, and hurt him not. "Come out." Even the devils obey His word of command.

6. "Healed many." The Sabbath ended with the setting sun and then they brought their sick to Him. "Unto Him." Christ has a panacea for all our aches, ills and troubles. All a suffering world needs to do is to go to Jesus. He is still the same living, mighty One, and is able, willing and anxious to deliver us from the power of the devil.

EPWORTH LEAGUE LESSONS. SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18.

A Life Refined and Perfected by Its Trials.—2 Cor. 4: 11-18. In a perfect world there might be no pain. There are those who argue otherwise, and we will not quarrel with them just now.

The difference between the Christian and the unbeliever is in the use and effect of trial on the life. To him who has no faith in Christ the world's burdens are an unmixt but also an unavoidable evil. He cannot flee from them or put them on others, and they have no meaning of good for him.

One of the saintliest of Christians has cultivated a beautiful habit of getting triumph out of trial. He says: "God loves me. He loves me so much that he prefers that I should suffer, if suffering is the necessary bearer of some message of help which I need."

Hardship has ever been the lot of the saints. The greatest saint is not he who has the most trouble, but who has mastered it all.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NOTES. FEBRUARY EIGHTEENTH.

Christ's Life. II. His Life-work, and What We May Learn About Our Own Work.—John 14: 8-14. There is nothing higher than Christ. When we know him, we reach the climax of knowledge.

Christ does not promise to do all things for us, but all things that we ask in accordance with His spirit. Christ came to earth to show us the Father, and to do this He had only to show us Himself.

Christ's life-work was to show to men the Saviour-God, what Christian dares entertain any other life-work for himself? Christ's life was more successful than any other life ever lived. Our success depends on imitating Him.

When a true musician plays a composition by Mozart he has no thought of interpolating measures of his own. So our only aim in life should be to present Christ to men. Questions. Are my life plans mine or Christ's? Am I satisfied with Christ's approval, or do I seek the world's? Am I seeking to continue Christ's work?
