Home Circle Department.

No doubt a large per cent. of the degradation, disgrace, ruin and crime among the young, springs from the habit of night-prowling, corner-loading and kindred acts by both sexes in city, town and hamlet all over this broad country. Any person who keeps his or her eyes open knows this. Hundreds of boys and girls are out at night, and we all know that many influences for evil, and none for good, surround them continually. A Curfew restriction may be derided as old-fashioned and Puritanical, but the fact remains that there is vastly less night prowling in towns that have a Curfew ordinance and enforce it.

The fairest and sweetest joy is that brought to a man by the loving hand of a wife. The sweetest thought is of that life journey, when, hand in hand, she, the wife, becomes the guiding star as he scales the sun-lit mountain of success, or as, with him, she penetrates the shadow-laden and dismal valley of failure, despair and grief. The ecstasy of joy or the pain of grief cannot change the divinity of a wife's love. The blackest cloud that can darken the horizon of man is the one, which, encircling the brow with death, takes from a husband's embrace his life companion. It is then that all cares, sorrows and pains of life seem blended into one; it is then that an unfathomable ocean seems to engulf him with its angry billows.

FOR THE BOYS. You who are men in years, and you just entering manhood, stop and consider life as it is. Remember, "action is the essence of character," good or bad. This character-building is a daily thing, so consider your ways and weigh your actions, and build wisely.

What are your aims? Are you striving to develop yourselves, mentally and morally, so as to have an influence in your community? Our boys will be the future men of our country, our law-makers, and they should be men who honor the law; they should be men of principle, who cannot be corrupted by bribes; who have the moral courage to do their duty. When a community lacks such men, evil and corruption predominate. How much the well-being of a community depends upon the honest, upright men in it! Many temptations beset the young, and they come in contact with evil influence in every vocation in life. Yet there is within yourselves, boys, a countering force, and if used it will enable you to withstand temptations, and to overcome the evil influences with which you will surely come in contact. Bring your reasoning power to bear. Argue with yourselves the certain moral degradation if you continue in a wrong course. Bring your will power to bear and keep under the low appetites and the little, mean things that corrupt any who give way to them. Have a high standard, choose a right, open path in life. Nothing to hide, nothing to be ashamed of. Listen to the counsel of your parents. Seek the home and its pure influences. Shun places of vice and evil in every form. Look carefully over the record of the past. Are you proud of it? Are you willing it should be read out? Are you satisfied with it? If you can't say yes, let your every effort be to better your condition.

OUR PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE. "I think people rather often completely misapprehend what are really the important questions. The question of the tariff, the currency, or even the regulation of railroad rates are all subordinate to the great moral movements which mean the preservation of the individual in his or her relation to the home, because if the homes are all straight, the state will take care of itself."

The above are the words of President Roosevelt in an address to a "White House" delegation. It should have been in his annual message to Congress. These few words are the "milk in the coconut," and if heeded by us all, there would be no necessity in the future of a message to Congress, eight columns in length, in order to call the attention of that body to the many evils existing.

The above words of our President should be printed in letters of gold so plainly that "he who runs may read," and then framed and hung in every home in this broad land. There are no politics in these words. They are cold facts, known to us all.

When the homes are properly regulated, the tariff, the railroads and the currency will not need laws to regulate them.

When the press and our public orators unite in giving their best thoughts and attentions to the homes, all our great national problems will soon solve themselves.

When the homes are right, the entire country will be right. The questions that effect the morals and purity of our homes are the real and vital questions. Our political speakers appeal only to partisan feelings and your pocketbook. You never hear them using their eloquence in an honest endeavor to better our homes, which are the foundation stones upon which rest all our laws and institutions, both state and national.

The voters who go out from moral, pure homes, will place moral and pure men in office, who will give us honest and pure railroad and tariff regulations. All we need is more moral and pure homes, so as to supply us with a majority of the voters.

Our President takes this view of it, and it is that which has brought him so close to the honest thinking people of all parties. Let us repeat his words: "If the homes are all straight, the state will take care of itself." It is this thought that inspires us to give so much space to this particular department of our paper.

Speak kindly, move quietly, do duty cheerfully, look pleasantly, hear patiently, reprove tenderly, love constantly in your homes.

A NEW IDEA. All old-time Cough Syrups bind the bowels. This is wrong. A new idea was advanced two years ago in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. This remedy acts on the mucus membranes of the throat and lungs and loosens the bowels at the same time. It expels all cold from the system. It clears the throat, strengthens the mucus membrane, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Sold by E. H. Miller. 3-1

FREE! HANDSOME! Photogravure reproduction of the President's Daughter. It's because "all the world loves a lover" that there is such unusual interest in the matrimonial event that will take place in Washington next Saturday. Literally, all the world is interested and will have a share in the ceremonies and festivities.

To remember Miss Roosevelt as a bride will be a genuine pleasure to thousands who may live to see and read of her as a grandmother. In other countries it is the custom to preserve the memories of great weddings like that of Miss Roosevelt and Mr. Longworth, with some appropriate souvenir. The custom is to be adopted in this country by The North American, of Philadelphia, which on Sunday next will publish as a part of its regular edition, a handsome photogravure reproduction of the best likeness of the President's oldest daughter. The bride herself selected from scores what she considered the best photograph of herself, and it is from this that the reproduction has been made. It has been excellently printed on high-quality paper in photogravure brown, the tone that reproduces the original, and by a process that renders it more artistic. It is a picture that is worthy of preservation in any home, and will certainly be kept by thousands as a reminder of the most brilliant of White House weddings.

In the same issue of the paper there will be a full detailed account of the wedding ceremony of the previous day, and illustrations showing the magnificence of the ceremony and the incidental festivities. The best descriptive writers of The North American's staff and its ablest artists will contribute their best efforts.

SEC. 3. This is not an exclusive grant, but shall extend to, and be valid for a period of Fifty (50) Years from the date of its passage, unless revoked by the failure of the said C. H. H. Jennings, his associates or assigns, elect to change any of the poles used by the Burgess and Council, they must make all cuts and fills from curb to curb on opposite sides of the street at their own expense, and replace material, and repair the streets, and pave with suitable brick between the rails of track and for a distance of eighteen (18) inches on the outside of each rail, and restore the street to as good condition as before the company began their work.

Poles used conjointly with the Electric Light Company, will not be taxed to this company, but all poles planted by this company, no matter for what purpose, will be taxed pro rata.

SEC. 7. The said C. H. Jennings, his associates or assigns, or their contractor, shall, before commencing work, file with the Burgess and Council, a bond of some reliable trust or surety company, in the sum of Five Thousand ($5000) Dollars, indemnifying the said Borough of Salisbury against all damage done by the Railway company in digging up the streets aforesaid, or any part thereof, or any damage that may arise from the planting of poles and the stringing of wires, and failing to restore the streets to as good condition as they were when the company began its operations, and for any damage that the said Borough might be found liable for the reason of the acts, omissions or negligence of the said company in the prosecution of its work.

SEC. 8. The said C. H. Jennings, his associates or assigns, shall be liable for the cost of publication of this ordinance, the ordinance to be null and void.

Why Buy McClure's?

McClure's Magazine is bought and read in homes not because it is a magazine, but because it is the magazine. Why?

FIRST—THE PRICE. It costs but one dollar a year, or less than ten cents a number, for over thirteen hundred two-column pages of reading matter. This amounts in actual bulk to twenty or twenty-five books costing anywhere from a dollar to two dollars a volume.

SECOND—QUALITY. The reading matter is written by America's leading writers—the best short story writers, the best writers on timely articles, the best writers of important serials, such as Schurz's Reminiscences of Baker's Railroad articles.

THIRD—TIMELINESS. The reading matter in McClure's is not only good; it is not only entertaining, amusing, instructive and inspiring—it is also about the subjects in which you and all Americans are most interested at the time. No subjects in the next twelve months are going to be so important as the question of railroad rates and rebates and the question of life insurance. Both of these questions will be discussed by authorities in an impartial, careful, interesting way.

FOURTH—ITS CHARACTER. McClure's Magazine is not edited for children, but at the same time, there is never a line in it that any young girl might not read. Its advertising pages are as clean as its editorial pages.
