Crude Thoughts As They Fall From the Editorial Pen: Pleasant Evening Reveries.

If solid happiness we prize, Within our breasts the jewel lies; And they are fools who roam; The world has nothing to bestow;

The long drawn frown only pulls men down. Don't you often meet men who inspire you with a desire to hit them with a club?

Don't claim an ignorance of evil, but rise up and over it to purer realms of thought, and help yourself and humanity by thinking and talking of the good things all about us.

There should live in the depth of every human heart one warm and sunny spot where nestle the images of early love and the sweet remembrances of childhood home.

Probably most of the good mothers who weekly read this department are heartily glad that our President's daughter, Miss Alice Roosevelt, is married.

Indigestion is much of a habit. Don't get the habit. Take a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after eating and you will quit belching, puffing, palpitating and frowning.

Every child has a right to such an education as will qualify it for life's duties. This is recognized as a patriotic duty by the state.

Life is short, only four letters in it. Three-quarters of it is a "lie" and half of it an "if."

Consistency is a jewel that has no value at the pawnbroker's. The people who look for trouble can always be depended on to find fault.

Prejudice roosts on a perch from which facts are barred. Every individual strives to grow and exclude, and to exclude and grow—Selected.

If you are troubled with Piles and can't find a cure, try Witch Hazel Salve, but be sure you get that made by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

than we can give. We are more closely watched, more severely criticised than anyone else. The world is ever ready to pull us down.

Mothers, will you not hold out a helping hand to those who are struggling on discouraged, in some cases unappreciated, who sometimes feel they have no friend save Him who "tempers the wind to the shorn lamb."

A FRIEND THAT WAS A FRIEND. Don't frown—look pleasant. If you are suffering from indigestion or sour stomach, take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

Garb to Be Worn By Persons Visiting the Sick. State Health Commissioner Dixon has issued an order that all visiting persons ill with contagious diseases shall attire themselves in close-fitting suits as precaution against communication of germs.

Commissioner Dixon orders that such visitors shall wear a tight fitting gown extending nearly to the floor and fitting closely at the neck and wrists.

Undertakers, physicians, health officers, clergymen, come under the new ruling which Commissioner Dixon says he hopes will aid in placing Pennsylvania at the head of all the states in the union in sanitary matters.

A SCIENTIFIC WONDER. The cures that stand to its credit make Bucklen's Arnica Salve a scientific wonder.

Even the fellow who is his own best friend can't get along very well without a few others.

The world is too apt to have a confused idea of happiness, success and dollars.

Every individual strives to grow and exclude, and to exclude and grow—Selected.

STRANGE FINDS IN BOOKS.

Spectacles, Scissors, Letters, and Even Endorsed Checks Found.

City libraries are prolific producers of odd incidents. Articles of every kind and description are found in returned volumes.

As may be imagined, letters are left in books by the wholesale. If they are sealed, addressed and lack a stamp it is supplied and they are sent on their way.

Occasionally when subscribers desire some book not in the library collection it is purchased and added to the list.

Watch Your Compass.

To convert a watch into a compass all one has to do is to count the number of hours from midnight, divide by two, and point the hour at the sun so that the shadow of a match or lead pencil falls directly across the center of the watch.

Labor Law in England.

An old labor law in England in force in 1783 contained the following six clauses: Any tailor who joined a union was to be sent to jail for two months.

Process of Hardening Wood.

Considerable interest has been aroused by the announcement, as the result of a prolonged series of experiments, of a method of soft treating timber as to secure even from soft wood a largely increased toughness and hardness.

Strange Wedding Custom.

Among the Lolos of Western China it is customary for the bride on the wedding morn to perch herself on the highest branch of a large tree, while the elder female members of her family cluster on the lower limbs, armed with sticks.

Tradesmen in Japan.

Some of the Japanese tradesmen in the smaller towns of Nippon have a curious way of advertising their business. On their right forearms they tattoo figures—the shoemaker a shoe, the woodcutter an ax, the butcher a cleaver.

Handkerchiefs in the Army.

The Russian government has decreed that in future all soldiers of the Empire must use handkerchiefs—heretofore not one soldier out of a thousand has indulged in this luxury—and that all the handkerchiefs must contain pictures emblematic of a soldier's life, both in battle and in time of peace.

Giraffe Cannot Swim.

The giraffe is the only animal which is unable to swim. This is on account of its long neck. Every other animal can, if put to it, manage to keep afloat.

The Publisher's Claims Sustained

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS. The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it is, in fact, the popular Unabridged thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation.

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular philological knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition, and that in the future as in the past it will be the source of constant reference.

CHARLES C. NOTT, Chief Justice. LAWRENCE WELDON, JOHN DAVIS, STANTON J. PEELER, CHARLES R. HOWRY, Judges.

Fits the Lunch! Fits the Pocket!

THE IDEAL FOLDING LUNCH BOX

represents the end of possibility in a Lunch Box, for the reason that it possesses every desirable feature that a Lunch Box can possess, and has more than one valuable advantage that no other lunch box ever had.

It is strong and durable, and will give years of continued service. It is convenient to carry both in and out of use. It is attractive in appearance, and because of its being used for more purposes than one, it is a great relief to sensitive people who dislike the idea of being seen with a dinner basket.

The Ideal Lunch Box is so low in price anyone can afford to buy it. Can be folded up in a moment to fit pocket, with no more inconvenience than an ordinary pocketbook.

Get acquainted with SMITH'S

If SMITH'S MAGAZINE and you are strangers we will send you the magazine three months free that you may get acquainted.

SMITH'S is the biggest illustrated magazine in the world—170 pages of reading matter and pictures, the same size page as the big standard magazines like Harper's and Century.

SMITH'S is made up of the best of everything—best stories that can be obtained, best illustrations that clever artists can draw, and the best special articles, written by writers who know their subject thoroughly and write as entertainingly as they are instructive.

SMITH'S also prints every month a score or more pretty portraits, in colors, of beautiful women. Taken all in all, there is no better magazine than SMITH'S—in fact, none nearly as good, no matter what the cost.
