West Salisbury Feed Company Sells Out.

The West Salisbury Feed Co. has sold out to Herbert Engle and Edward and James Davis. The deal includes the store building and stock. The firm formerly consisted of Elijah Livengood, J. B. Keim, Richard, Nevin and Elijah Newman, Wm. Deeter, John A. Knecht and Wm. P. Cochran. The firm has been doing a big business, but too many stockholders were in it to participate in the dividends.

The young men who have purchased the business are all first rate fellows, honest, obliging and full of energy. They will take full charge of the fine, large store on May 1st, and of their success there is little doubt. Mr. Engle is a son of Jacob Engle, the well-known tax collector of Elk Lick township, and his partners are sons of Elder John N. Davis, the well-known surveyor. Daniel Livengood, the genial and popular manager of the old firm, has not yet decided what he will engage in next, but "Dan" is all right, and will make good any old place he is hooked up.

The State's Oldest Bank Cashier.

The possessor of a healthy body and a clear mind, Calvin Blythe North, who is serving his forty-third annual term as cashier of the Selinsgrove First National Bank, has passed the eighty-third milestone of life and consequently is accorded the distinction of being older in actual years and term of service than any other bank cashier in Pennsylvania—perhaps in the United States. The keynotes of Mr. North's success are regularity and moderation. Carrying a heavy oak cane, head erect and long, vigorous strides, he walks several miles before the opening and after the close of each banking day. Ice-sheeted pavements and zero weather are no serious impediments, for this octogenarian would not allow heat nor cold to deprive him of his "constitutional." This remarkable man is a total abstainer from alcoholic liquors and is very temperate in his eating and smoking.

Sugar Camp Burned by Thieves.

Last Thursday night Chas. Snyder, who resides on the Wm. Stanton farm, near Grantsville, Md., suffered the loss of his sugar camp, a large lot of syrup and sugar, also tanks, other utensils, etc.

The fire is supposed to have been the work of thieves who stole some of the sugar and syrup, then fired the camp to conceal their crime, judging from tracks leading eastward from the camp, and which could be plainly seen in the soft earth. Snyder seems to be having a hard streak of luck all around. Some time ago a shed roof gave way under a heavy weight of snow, smashing a good binder for him, and he also recently lost a mare, a colt and sixteen pigs.

DON'T TIE YOURSELF UP.

Don't tie a cough or a cold up in your system by taking a remedy that binds the bowels. Take Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It is different from all other cough syrups. It is better. It opens the bowels—expels all cold from the system, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. An ideal remedy for young and old. Children like it. Sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1

GROW STRONG AGAIN.

Nothing will relieve indigestion that is not a thorough digestant, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, and allows the stomach to rest—re-perate—grow strong again. A few doses of Kodol after meals will soon restore the stomach and digestive organs to a full performance of their functions naturally. Sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1
