For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the bowels are in proper condition. A sluggish liver gives coated tongues, bad breath, constipated bowels. Correct all these by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar-coated.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of Ayer's
HAIR VIGOR,
AGUE CURE,
CHERRY PECTORAL.

A man that's clean inside and outside; who neither looks up to the rich nor down on the poor; who can lose without squealing and win without bragging; who is considerate to women, children and old people; who is too brave to lie, too generous to cheat, and who takes his share of the world and lets other people have theirs, is the kind of a man required to be a real gentleman.

John Mitchell will visit the Connellsville region "when conditions are more favorable." Labor seldom organizes when it has no grievances to redress. The old Eckhart mine, near Frostburg, Md., which was considered worked out, and closed about five years ago, is again to be reopened by the Consolidation Coal Company. The general superintendent of the company, Mr. J. C. Brydon, has lately been examining the said mining property, and he has found that there are still many thousand tons of available coal there. The reopening of the mine will give employment to 200 or 250 men.

While in Somerset, last Saturday and Sunday, we dined at the Somerset House and at Kifer's restaurant. Special courtesies were shown us at each place by the people in charge. Both places hold a high rank for fine meals and the most courteous of treatment to their guests. Somerset is noted for good hotels and restaurants, and none are better than the two named. They deserve the immense patronage which they have built up.

A liquid cold cure for children that is pleasant, harmless, and effective is Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. Superior to all other cough syrups or cold remedies because it acts on the bowels. An ideal remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough and all curable lung and bronchial affections in child or adult. Pleasant to take. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 6-1

Mr. John O. Winters, the well-known cattle buyer from Midlothian, Md., has been in this vicinity for a week or more, buying fat cattle. He has been buying some very fine animals, and, as usual, he pays the highest market prices. Mr. Winters has been buying cattle throughout this section of country for 35 years, and a better judge of good stock would be hard to find. He is a very intelligent and interesting gentleman to converse with, and for square dealing and uprightness in his business, his name is a household word all through this section of country.

The tar that is contained in Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is harmless. It is not coal tar, but is obtained from the pine trees of our own native forests. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the best remedy for colds because it acts on the bowels—thus expelling all colds from the system. Bee's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar, and is best for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, lung and bronchial affections. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 6-1

A goodly number of fellows promised to call at our office, last Saturday and pay us some money on subscription; but the only ones to make their word good were John Edmiston and Frank Swartzwelder. The former did not find us in, as we were in Somerset; but he hunted the whole town over, Saturday evening, resuming the search on Monday evening, and did not let up until he found us and paid what he owed. That's what we call an honest man, and when we find a man honest and square, there's nothing in our power that we wouldn't do for him. Some of the fellows who failed to make their word good are under far greater obligations to us than they know of, and yet we are about convinced that they do not intend to pay us. We hope that we are mistaken in our opinion, but a few weeks more will tell, and then some people will be sorry for their dishonesty, if time proves them to be dishonest.

A dose of Pine-ules at bed time will usually relieve backache, before morning. These beautiful little globules are soft gelatine coated, and when moistened and placed in the mouth you can't keep from swallowing them. Pine-ules contain neither sugar nor alcohol—just gums and resins obtained from our own native pine forests, combined with other well known bladder, kidney, blood and backache remedies. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 6-1

A contract was placed last week by the Pittsburg, Westmoreland & Somerset Railroad Company with George C. Anderson & Sons, of Latrobe, for the construction of a station house at this place. The plans call for a one-story structure 50x128, with train shed along the entire front of the station. The interior is well-arranged for the convenience of the company's local office force, and for the traveling public. The waiting rooms are commodious, and have lavatories attached. The building will be heated with steam. Mr. George Anderson, representing the contractors, was here Saturday, and said that work on the station will be started immediately. Rails from Husband to the Begley place were laid during the past few days, and at the present rate of progress the track layers should reach Somerset before the close of the week. It is likely that train service between here and Latrobe will be installed before May 1st.—Somerset Herald.

While in Rockwood, last Saturday, we called on Editor U. S. Werner, of the Rockwood Leader, and found that gentleman in his usual happy mood. The Leader is doing a nice business, and Editor Werner treated us with a great deal of courtesy. He showed us through the Rockwood school building, and while it is a very good school house and cost about as much as the Salisbury school house, it is considerably smaller and less handsomely furnished inside. However, we found two good features there that are lacking in our school building, viz: A very elaborate and valuable collection of instructive specimens and photographs from the Commercial museum of Philadelphia, and a good organ. The commercial collection was furnished free of charge, through the influence of our representatives in the State Legislature, Messrs. Lambert and Endsley, and it is worth many dollars to the schools. The Salisbury school board had the same kind of a collection offered to our schools, through the good offices of Hon. J. W. Endsley, and the only thing required of the board was that they pay the freight and have suitable shelving or cases made to exhibit the specimens. The school boards of Meyersdale, Somerset, Windber, Berlin, Rockwood and other county towns promptly availed themselves of the kind and generous offer, but just why the Salisbury school board failed to take advantage of it, is more than we can find a good reason for. The board ought to explain, for really it's a shame that we are behind all the other towns in the county in this matter.

Garrett County (Md.) Elevations. The highest altitude in Maryland, and possibly east of the Rocky Mountains, is found in Garrett county. Here are some of the altitudes taken from undisputed authority:

Backbone, a part of the Alleghany Mountain range lying in the eastern section of this county, is 3700 feet; Table Rock, on the same range, is 3500 feet; Altamont, the top of the great Seventeen Mile Grade on the B. & O. R. R., is 2632 feet; Dear Park, 2480 feet; Mt. Lake Park, 2450, and Oakland 2481 feet. These figures are given out by the U. S. Geological survey, and are said to be absolutely correct.—Oakland Journal.

THREE KILLED IN RIOT.

Bloody Fight at Windber Between Strikers and Deputies.

A bloody fight occurred at Windber, last Monday evening, between armed deputies and striking miners. Several of the strikers had been arrested during the afternoon for disorderly conduct, and while they were in the borough lockup, their companions assaulted the officers who were guarding the place, pelting them with bricks, stones, etc. The officers did not fire upon their assailants until they had to do so in order to protect their own lives, and then they fired with deadly results.

One volley was sufficient to restore order among the rum-soaked foreigners, and three of them were shot to death, while many others were wounded. Some of the officers were also badly used up, and it is feared that another outbreak may take place at any time.

Sheriff Begley is on the ground, however, and every precaution is being taken to avoid further trouble. A detachment of the State Constabulary is also at Windber to protect life and property. It is not believed that the strike has lasted much longer at Windber, as many of the men are returning to work. They are indulging in a very foolish strike, anyway, and there can be but one result when they resort to outlawry, and that is defeat for the strikers.

The men killed are Hungarians, and most of the injured ones are of the same nationality.
