

The Somerset County Star.

VOL. XII.

SALISBURY, ELK LICK POSTOFFICE, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 17, 1906.

NO. 18.

CORSETS! CORSETS!

We are the agents for the famous
JACKSON : CORSET.

Half a woman's beauty depends on the corset—the Jackson Corset upon which many fastidious women have set the seal of their approval. While giving shapeliness to the figure, it allows great freedom of movement. We have all sizes at 50c. and $1.00.

Elk Lick Supply Co.,

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF SALISBURY.

Capital paid in, $50,000. Surplus & undivided profits, $9,000.

3 PER CENT. INTEREST On Time Deposits.

J. L. BARCHUS, President. H. H. MAUST, Vice President.
ALBERT REITZ, Cashier.

DIRECTORS:—J. L. Barchus, H. H. Maust, Norman D. Hay,
A. M. Lichty, F. A. Maust, A. E. Livengood, L. L. Beachy.

Dull Mercantile Co., Ltd., Salisbury, Pa.

Foreign and Domestic DRY GOODS,

Finest of Groceries, Hardware, Miners' Supplies, Shoes, Clothing, Etc. The best Powder and Squibs a Specialty.

Highest Market Prices Paid For Butter And Eggs.

A CHOICE LINE
OF STAPLE GROCERIES
ALWAYS ON HAND.

We sell Axa and Minnehaha Flour, the brands to buy if you want good bread.

S. A. LICHLITER.

FOR ASSEMBLY, D. J. HORNER.

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS:—

I hereby announce to the Republican voters of Somerset county, that I am a candidate at the primaries to be held on Saturday, May 26th, for member of Assembly from this county. I solicit your support, and if nominated and elected I promise to perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability, and to what I consider the best needs of the people of Somerset county.

I feel that my large acquaintanceship over the county is such that no words of commendation are needed. I will thank my friends for their support upon that day.

Somerset, Pa., May 9th, 1906.

AGAINST VACCINATION LAW.

Candidate Daniel J. Horner Declares in Favor of its Repeal.

There is much complaint against the present vaccination law of Pennsylvania, and as a candidate for Assembly I am frequently asked to work for its repeal, if elected to the office I seek. I hereby promise that if I am elected I will put forth my best effort for the repeal of said law.

5-24

D. J. HORNER.

A. W. KNEPPER Also Declares Against Vaccination Law.

If elected I shall do all I can to repeal the obnoxious vaccination law that has worked such havoc in the public schools of Pennsylvania. I am against it.

A. W. KNEPPER.

C. J. DUNCAN,

Windber's Candidate for Assemblyman.

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF SOMERSET COUNTY:—

According to the solicitation of numerous friends, and responding to great pressure by hosts of voters, many of whom being men of prominence and large taxpayers throughout the county, particularly from the northern end, I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Representative in the General Assembly, subject to the decision of the Republican voters of Somerset county at the primaries to be held on May 26th.

I respectfully solicit not only the influence but the vote of every Republican voter on that day, pledging myself, if nominated, and subsequently elected, to conscientiously discharge my duty—not in the interests of any one man, or set of men, but in the interests of the common people, for just and impartial laws, and for the best welfare of the county. Very respectfully yours,

C. J. DUNCAN.

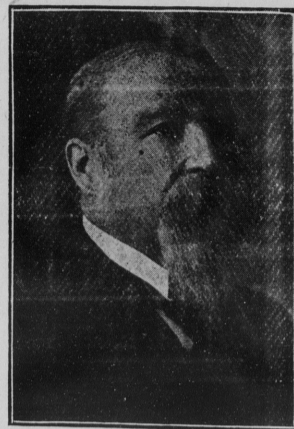

Windber, Pa., May 10, 1906.

C. J. Duncan, whose announcement appears above, was born in Green township, Indiana county, Dec. 20th, 50 years ago. He attended the public schools of that section until 18 years of age, when he engaged in the lumber business. In 1882 he embarked into that business for himself, in Clearfield county, but two years later removed to Fallen Timber, Cambria county, where he continued contracting in lumber until 1891. He then built the Mountain House at Dunlo, Pa., conducting the same until 1897, when he removed to Windber, in the beginning of its boom. Here he erected another hotel—the Windber—and for a year and a half very successfully conducted it.

Though living retired now, and for some time past, Mr. Duncan devotes some of his time to the buying and selling of timber tracts. As president of the Borough Council he is now serving his last year of a three-year term, serving that body with dignity, and his townsmen with perfect satisfaction. He is a man of independent spirit, common sense, and good judgment, and undoubtedly pre-eminent qualified for the office to which he aspires, and to which so many of his friends, voters and taxpayers called him to.—Windber Era.

DRESS SHIRTS!—The finest line that ever came to town, at Hay's Department Store. Prices, 50c., 75c. and $1.00. C. T. HAY, Manager.

J. G. OGLE CALLED DOWN.

EPHRAIM D. MILLER

Resents False Statement Being Circulated by John G. Ogle.

ROCKWOOD, PA., 15th May, 1906.

TO REPUBLICAN VOTERS:—

My opponent published last week a letter alleging "a vote for Miller is a vote against Somerset county and in favor of Cooper and Fayette county." Mr. Ogle acted upon unreliable information. If he would have inquired of me I would have advised him of the untruthfulness of the statement.

I am not a candidate in the interest of Mr. Cooper nor in the interest of Mr. Ogle. I am a candidate in my own interest. I have no political arrangement with any man. I am seeking the endorsement of the Republican party of Somerset county, and if endorsed I shall use every honorable means at my command to secure the nomination.

I believe in clean politics. I believe candidates should make truthful representations to the people whose suffrages they seek. I believe candidates should be fair and truthful toward one another. He that seeks a public office is seeking a public trust. Men who aspire to positions of honor should be fair, honest and truthful. May not this honor for once come to a citizen of Somerset county who has been reared among the Sons of Agriculture?

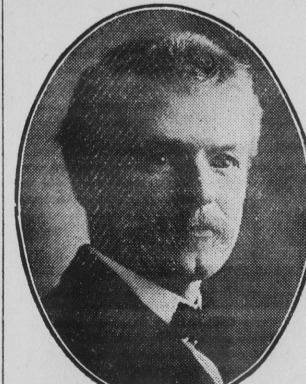

A vote for me is a vote for the soldier's friend. A vote for me is a vote for one who believes that the poor man should ride upon railroads at two cents a mile as well as the rich. A vote for me is a vote for one who has lived with, associated with, and known the wants of the people of Somerset county.

I again ask you to consider carefully what I have said in my letter of last week and what I say in this letter. Do not fail to attend the election and vote for the man of your choice.

Very truly yours,
E. D. MILLER.

POSTMASTER ROBBED.

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters; which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Biliousness, Neuralgia, Weakness and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements. A wonderful Tonic. At E. H. Miller's drug store. 50 cents. 6-1

JOHN G. OGLE.

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF SOMERSET COUNTY:—

I am a candidate for Congress, and never having had an office, and having been a faithful Republican for 34 years, ask now that I be given some recognition by the Republican party.

Respectfully,
JOHN G. OGLE.

Have you tried Thompson's homemade Gingerbread? Just the kind your grandmother baked. Get it at Thompson's, opposite Hay's Hotel. 6-1

The Electric Road.

In this issue we print another charter notice for the electric road people who failed in getting the charter applied for on May 7th, owing to certain things in their first application which conflicted with the charter granted a few years ago to the company that started to build a road and had to quit for want of funds. The new company feels confident of getting a charter at the next hearing, June 7th, and there is no doubt whatever that the road will be built and in operation within the next six months.

A MOUNTAIN OF GOLD

could not bring as much happiness to Mrs. Lucia Wilke, of Carroll, Wis., as did one 25c. box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, when it completely cured a running sore on her leg, which had tortured her 23 long years. Greatest anti-septic healer of Piles, Wounds, and Sores. 25c. at E. H. Miller's Drug store. 6-1

HON. E. D. MILLER looks like a Congressman, talks like a gentleman, acts like a gentleman and is a gentleman. He has filled various positions of public trust, and his official record, as well as his personal record, can be appropriately likened unto a clean page in a good book. Who ever heard a breath of scandal or reproach hurled at E. D. Miller when he was in the Legislature? His record is as clean as the driven snow is white.

Of the four candidates for Assembly, three of them—Knepper, Endsley and Horner—have pledged themselves to do all in their power for the repeal of Pennsylvania's hideous and despotic vaccination law, if elected. The vaccination issue is the most important one of this campaign, and the compulsory vaccination of either children or adults is an insult to a free and patriotic people. Down with the damnable humbug, under any and all circumstances?

Ogle says he has not invaded Cooper's home county. Why? For the simple reason that Cooper is more popular in Fayette county than Ogle is in Somerset, and "Johnny" knew it would do him no good. But how about invading the Green county candidate's home county, Mr. Ogle? You made a sneaking, dark-lantern invasion there, "sonny" but the very people you thought to interest in your behalf only laughed up their sleeves and exposed you. Deny it if you dare. The people of Greene are not as green as Mr. Ogle thought they were.

Thus far this has been a pretty clean campaign, and The Star had hoped to see it remain free from personal abuse between the various candidates. However, little "Johnny" Ogle came out last week with a very uncalculated whine in the Somerset Herald, the very paper we and others have heard him denounce as "the old mud-slinger." He makes some very harsh and uncalculated remarks against Hon. E. D. Miller and others, and all because he has not been given the field to himself as a candidate for Congress. He forgets that this is a free country, and that all loyal Republicans have an equal right to announce for office at a Republican primary. However, you can usually count on a little swell-head of Ogle's stripe making a fool of himself at the proper time to knock his little boomlet silly.

JOHN G. OGLE, candidate for Congress, was a caller at The Star office yesterday. "Johnny" seemed to be somewhat scared and rattled, and, in fact, he was real downright mad on account of running across so many people that refuse to agree with him that he should have the Congressional field all to himself. He felt very sore because of the stiff opposition he is encountering, but he mustered up courage enough to have his face and announcement printed in this paper. He thinks Miller ought to get out of his road, but "Johnny" isn't so big that he is likely to run over any person, and besides, it's a free country, you know, and Miller is one of the kind of stalwart Republicans that always remained loyal to his party, no matter whether his own friends or the friends of the opposite faction won at the primary. E. D. Miller is a stalwart Republican in the true sense of the word, also a gentleman.

It was amusing to read Ogle's announcement in last week's Somerset Herald, especially that portion of it which stated how he yielded his place in the Congressional race of four years ago to J. A. Berkey. No Republican in Somerset county of any note or influence, save only Ogle's brother-in-law, Judge Kooser, would admit for one moment, four years ago, that Ogle ever had a place in the race. Even Brother-in-Law Kooser regarded Ogle's threatened candidacy as an absurdity, but added that he would have to support his brother-in-law if he decided to run. Ogle used to say that he was clubbed off the track. Now he says he yielded his place for the sake of harmony. The fact is he stepped aside for no other reason than that he realized that the only Republican of any note that would support him was his brother-in-law, Judge Kooser. J. A. Berkey was an easy winner, four years ago, and he could have won with Ogle and Harvey M. Berkey both in the field.

A BAD BURN.

For a painful burn there is nothing like DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. There are a host of imitations of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve on the market—see that you get the genuine. Ask for DeWitt's. Good, too, for sunburn, cuts, bruises, and especially recommended for piles. The name E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, is on every box. Sold by E. H. Miller. 6-1

NORMAN E. BERKEY.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF SOMERSET COUNTY:—

Having announced my candidacy for the endorsement of Somerset county, at the Republican primary election to be held on Saturday afternoon, May 26, for the office of Senator in the General Assembly from the Thirty sixth Senatorial district, of which Somerset county is a part, I earnestly solicit the support of all Republicans, to the end that I may receive this county's nomination. It has been twelve years since a Senator from this district was elected from this county, and certainly we are entitled to representation by a home man in the next Assembly. I promise, if given this county's endorsement at the primary, to give my best efforts in pressing Somerset county's claim before the district conference.

NORMAN E. BERKEY.

FOR STATE SENATOR.

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF SOMERSET COUNTY:—

I am a candidate for the nomination for State Senator at the Republican Primary election to be held Saturday, May 26, and if given the endorsement of the county will make an honorable effort to secure the district nomination.

I will favor a measure making a uniform railroad passenger rate of two cents per mile.

Giving trolley lines the privilege of carrying express and freight.

The placing of the responsibility for food adulteration on the manufacturer. An increased state appropriation for making permanent roads.

Equalization of taxation. My past record is a guarantee of my future conduct. Soliciting your vote and influence, I remain

Respectfully yours,
JOHN C. WELLES.

Milford Township.