

THE SOMERSET COUNTY STAR

P. L. LIVENGOOD, Editor and Publisher.

Entered at the Postoffice at Elk Lick, Pa. as mail matter of the Second Class.

Subscription Rates.

THE STAR is published every Thursday, at Salisbury, (Elk Lick, P. O.) Somerset County, Pa., at the following rates: One year, if paid spot cash in advance, $1.25; if not paid strictly in advance, $1.50. Six months, $1.00. Three months, $0.50. Single copies, 5 cents. To avoid multiplicity of small accounts all subscriptions for three months or less must be paid in advance. These rates and terms will be rigidly adhered to.

Advertising Rates.

Transient Reading Notices, 5 cents a line each insertion. To regular advertisers, 5 cents a line for first insertion and 3 cents a line for each succeeding insertion. No business notices will be mixed with local news items or editorial matter for less than 10 cents a line for each insertion, except on yearly contracts. Rates for Display Advertisements will be made known on application. Editorial advertising, invariably 10 cents a line. Legal Advertisements at legal rates. Marriage, Birth and Death Notices not exceeding fifteen lines, inserted free. All additional lines, 5 cents each. Cards of Thanks will be published free for patrons of the paper. Non-patrons will be charged 10 cents a line. Resolutions of Respect will be published for 5 cents a line. All advertisements will be run and charged for until ordered discontinued. No advertisement will be taken for less than 25 cents.

For that Dandruff

There is one thing that will cure it—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is a regular scalp-medicine. It quickly destroys the germs which cause this disease. The unhealthy scalp becomes healthy. The dandruff disappears, had to disappear. A healthy scalp means a great deal to you—healthy hair, no dandruff, no pimples, no eruptions. The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, Pills, Cherry Pectoral.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Livengood went to Huntingdon, Pa., Tuesday, to attend the commencement exercises at Juniata College.

The German Baptist Brethren have decided to erect a new church edifice at Pleasant Hill, in Milford township, this summer.

The cleansing, antiseptic and healing properties of Pinesalve makes it superior to family salves. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Stahl, of Westmoreland county, Pa., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miller, Monday and Tuesday.

On the 9th inst. a bouncing baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Hay. Weight, 12½ pounds. That's a prize baby, sure.

The sworn statement of the manufacturers protects you from opiates in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Sold by E. H. Miller. 7-1

Miss Rhoda Miller arrived in town several days ago for a visit with her many friends here. We understand her home is in Illinois.

John W. Miller has gone to Laneville, W. Va., where he is now conducting a restaurant. His family will join him there in the near future.

The crop of potato bugs promises to be very large this season, and small potatoes of the human species, like the poor, we have always with us.

Miss Minnie Livengood returned home from the Edgewood Park school for the deaf, near Pittsburg, last week. Her vacation will last until Sept. 5th.

Mrs. J. H. Yost, of Roanoke, Va., is this week visiting friends in Garrett county, Md. She also expects to visit friends in Salisbury before her return.

When applied and covered with a hot cloth Pinesalve acts like a poultice. Best for burns, bruises, boils, eczema, skin diseases, etc. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moore and their little daughter, of Chicago, are visiting friends in Salisbury. Mrs. Moore is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Marshall Bowlin, former well-known residents of this town.

For bloating, belching, sour stomach, bad breath, malassimilation of food, and all symptoms of indigestion, Ring's Dyspepsia Tablets are a prompt and efficient corrective. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

Mrs. Calvin Fuller, of West Salisbury, is visiting friends at Morrison, Ill. Rev. "Cal" looks rather lonesome since his wife is gone, but like the boy passing through the graveyard at night, he whistles and sings to keep up his courage.

Jeremiah Matheny, of Parkersburg, W. Va., arrived here several days ago for a visit with his sisters, Mrs. J. D. Miller and Mrs. E. H. Lambert. From here he went over into Fayette county to visit friends, accompanied by Mr. Lambert.

Attorney Clarence L. Shaver, law partner of Hon. J. A. Berkey, of Somerset, is to be married this evening to Miss Elizabeth Lynn, of West Newton, Pa. The happy event will take place at the bride's home. THE STAR extends its congratulations.

George Livengood, alias "Hawney," caught 33 trout in Tub Mill run, one day last week. "Hawney" says Tub Mill has lots of trout in it yet, but most of them are too small to take a hook, and "Hawney" seldom brings a trout home under two feet long.

William and James McClure returned home from the Pennsylvania College, at Gettysburg, last week. They are looking hale and vigorous, seem to have grown some, and no doubt their vacation will add still more to their stature and avoidupois.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Geidt, of Waynesboro, Pa., arrived in town last week for a visit with friends. Mrs. Geidt is a sister of C. W. Stotler and Mrs. D. Compton. Her husband has returned home, but Mrs. Geidt will remain in this vicinity for a more extended visit.

Morgan Williams and family will likely move to Johnstown, Pa., some time during the present year. Morgan and his brother William have purchased a livery business there, and we believe they have made a very good investment. We shall be sorry, however, to see these people leave good old Somerset county.

Every form of distressing ailment known as Piles originates internally. The real causes of the trouble is in side. ManZan is put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle, so the medicine can be applied where it will do the most good, and do it quickly. If you are suffering with piles you owe yourself the duty of trying ManZan. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

Lew S. Keim, of Elkins, W. Va., spent several days visiting Salisbury friends during the past week. He returned recently from Indiana, where he visited his brothers, Howard, Jonas and Peter. He found all of his brothers prospering and enjoying life to the fullest extent. Lew was also in attendance at the Dunkard Annual Meeting, at Springfield, Ill., and visited other places, including Louisville, Ky.

Prominent citizens of Frostburg of Welsh birth have been advised of a visit to this country not later than September of a male chorus of probably 40 voices from Rhondda Valley, Wales. All are artists, traveling in Europe under leadership of Vocal Director, William Thomas. They have enjoyed the honor of appearing before King Edward four times, three at his invitation. Their United States itinerary will include Frostburg.—Frostburg Journal.

The old time method of purging the system with Cathartics that tear, gripe, grind and break down the walls of the stomach and intestines is superseded by Dade's Little Liver Pills. They cleanse the liver, and instead of weakening, build up and strengthen the whole system. Relieve headache, biliousness, constipation, etc. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

A short time ago "Bine" McPherson, of McPherson's Corners, was given a dog that was a cross between a bulldog and hound, by an Oil City man, who found the animal too savage to be kept safely in town. Mr. McPherson had been put to considerable loss by chicken thieves, and gave out that the canine was a terror. On Sunday night the thieves visited his farm and stole all of the chickens they had previously overlooked, and stole the dog besides.—Oil City Derrick.

Bob Burdette says that the good things in this world are always the cheapest. Spring wheat costs less than corn whiskey; a box of cigars costs as much as two or three bibles; a gallon of old brandy costs more than a barrel of flour; a full hand in poker costs a man in twenty seconds more than his church subscription amounts to in three years; a town election costs more than a revival of religion; people sleep half an hour in church free, but a nap on a Pullman costs $1.50 to $2.00.

You can see the poison Pine-ules clears out of the kidneys and bladder. A single dose at bedtime will show you more poison upon rising the next morning than can be expelled from the system in any other way. Pine-ules dissolve the impurities, lubricate the kidneys, cleanse the bladder, relieve pain and do away with back-ache speedily, pleasantly, permanently. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

Mrs. Wm. C. Livengood died of cancer of the stomach, last Saturday, at her home near Springs postoffice, Elk Lick township. Deceased was aged 64 years, and she was a daughter of the late Peter Wagner, who is yet well remembered by most of our older citizens. Mrs. Livengood is survived by her husband and a number of children, also by several brothers and sisters. The funeral service was held at the Springs Mennonite church, last Sunday afternoon, Rev. G. D. Miller officiating.

We have received a copy of a Home-stead paper with some articles by Cyclone Kirkland marked. In one of them he claims to have foretold the San Francisco disaster. If he would do a little foretelling on our crops it would interest us more. We would like to know if the corn will have two ears to the stalk and whether we will beat Alf. Atkinson and John Gibson with the first ripe tomato. If Cy. Kirk will solve these questions we'll support his ticket, all right.—Freeport Journal.

A hundred years ago the best physician would give you a medicine for your heart without stopping to consider what effect it might have on the liver. Even to this good day cough and cold medicines invariably bind the bowels. This is wrong. Bee's Laxative Cough Syrup with Honey and Tar acts on the bowels—drives out the cold—clears the head, relieves all coughs, cleanses and strengthens the mucous membranes of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

The engagement of Mr. Frank R. Lyon, general superintendent of the Somerset Coal Co., and Miss Mary Elizabeth Beerits, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Beerits, of Somerset, was recently announced at a special dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brydon, at their beautiful home in Frostburg, Md., to Miss Beerits and a number of her Frostburg and Somerset friends. The betrothed are among the most popular and highly esteemed young people in Somerset, and the happy event that will make them man and wife will be a fall event.

George Rees and Frank Hartline, who enlisted in the U. S. marine service several years ago, returned home last week on a 15-day furlough. Young Rees informed us that he has about all of the Marine service he cares for, and that as soon as his term of enlistment expires he will know better than to enlist again. Aside from seeing a big lot of the world, most young men are not much in love with the life of a marine. Rees says he was in the Philippines 31 months, and if you ask him he will tell you that those islands are no God' country like this.

The cabin in which Abraham Lincoln was born, passed through Johnstown, Saturday afternoon, on its way back to Kentucky, to take its place on the very site it stood when the martyred president first blinked his baby eyes at the light of day. The cabin was recently purchased from the hands of speculators by the Lincoln Farm Association, which some time ago bought the old Lincoln farm at public sale, and is converting it into a park. A special car, elaborately decorated, is carrying the cabin, and everywhere it is being received with great interest.—Johnstown Democrat.

"Go home and take those bathing suits off. This is no bathing resort." Rev. George M. Schoener, pastor of St. Cecilia's Catholic church, Rochester, Pa., roared this from the pulpit at many of his fair hearers, recently, and the fashionable suburb of Pittsburg is in spasms over it. Father Schoener was speaking of the "Peekaboo" shirtwaists which many of the fashionable ladies of the congregation were wearing that warm day. "The church of God is no place for an unseemly display of gayety clothing and those queer shirtwaists," continued the man of God, and the women left the church hurriedly after the service was concluded.

Abraham Peck, a well known citizen of Somerset county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Geo. E. Reitz, near Listie, Pa., on the 9th inst. He was a son of the late John Peck, who for years resided in Addison township, about a mile from the famous "Big Spring." Abraham Peck, like all the other members of the John Peck family, was a person of true worth and sterling integrity, respected by all who knew him. For a number of years prior to his death he suffered with a complication of ailments, and at the time of his death he was in his 63d year. He is survived by his wife and one daughter. Deceased was a faithful and consistent member of the German Baptist Brethren church.
