Expenses of the Candidates Voted for at the Last Primary.

Under an act passed at the last session of the Legislature, candidates for office are required to file sworn statements of their expenses during the primary election and general election campaigns. The new law also provides against the use of money for the purchase of votes, liquor and other corrupt purposes, and it defines what the legitimate or allowable expenses of candidates are. Announcement fees, printing, advertising, public meetings, conveying voters to the polls, etc., are all legitimate expenses, but heavy penalties are provided for resorting to corrupt practices.

The last Republican primary was held at a cost of $691, which is probably less than the cost of holding any other Republican primary election in the history of the county. The principal reason for the decrease in cost is due to the fact that the last primary was held only in the afternoon, which meant smaller pay for election boards.

The heaviest expense of the candidates was for advertising and printing.
Some of the candidates at the last primary have filed statements of expenditures as follows: N. E. Berkey, $151.
55; A. W. Knepper, $215.55; D. J. Horner, $327.75; J. W. Endsley, $428.50; J.
G. Ogle, $418.02; E. D. Miller, $1,020.83.
All of the candidates have not yet filed their statements, but the new law is mandatory and inexorable, and they must "file."

DEADLY SERPENT BITES

are as common in India as are stomach and liver disorders with us. For the latter, however, there is a sure remedy: Electric Bitters; the great restorative medicine, of which S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "They restored my wife to perfect health after years of suffering with dyspepsia and a chronically torpid liver." Electric Biters cure chills and fever, malaria, biliousness, lame back, kidney troubles and bladder disorders. Sold on guarantee by E. H. Miller, druggist. Price 50c. 7-1

June Flood.

The northern section of Somerset county was visited by a destructive flood, last Wednesday evening, caused by a cloudburst. The principal havoc was wrought in the Stonycreek valley at points from Shanksville to Johnstown. While there was no loss of life, the damage to property was great, and the loss will be considerable. The S. & C. branch of the B. & O. was put out of business for several days, and the replacing of culverts, bridges and fills will cost a large sum of money. The inhabitants of Hooversville, Holsopple, and the people of Johnstown sustained a very bad scare, but fortunately the loss was confined to property alone.
Somerset was inconvenienced greatly by the delay in receiving mail and in the interference with railroad transportation generally; many persons traveling to and from this place did so by the way of the new P. W. & S. railroad, which fortunately was not affected by the flood.—Somerset Democrat.

Hypnotic Pastors.

Hypnotic pastors are all right so long as they use their powers for good, but susceptible sisters should be visited by the pastor's wife instead of the pastor himself.—Connellsville Courier.

There is room for argument on the Courier's last assertion, and we're afraid that the susceptible sisters and the hypnotic preachers will not agree with the Courier.

AN ALARMING SITUATION frequently results from neglect of clogged bowels and torpid liver, until constipation becomes chronic. This condition is unknown to those who use Dr.
King's New Life Pills; the best and gentlest regulators of Stomach and Bowels. Guaranteed by E. H. Miller, druggist. Price 25c. 7-1

Elijah Livengood to Eret a Mam- moth Hardware Establishment.

Elijah Livengood recently purchased a lot of ground from E. H. Miller, between G. G. DeLozier's grocery and the E. Statler building, on Grant street, and will erect thereon a mammoth hardware establishment. Ground for the new building was broken this morning. It is said that the new store will be in charge of Daniel Livengood, the present affable and energetic manager of the West Salisbury Feed Company.

THE WISDOM OF ANIMALS.

You cannot induce a lower animal to eat heartily when not feeling well. A sick dog starves himself, and gets well.
The stomach, once overworked, must have rest the same as your feet or eyes.
You don't have to starve to rest your stomach. KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA takes up the work for your stomach, digests what you eat and gives it a rest.
Puts it back in condition again. You can't feel good with a disordered stomach. Try Kodol. Sold by E. H. Miller. 7-1

Richard Higgins, a young man who is well known around town, is in the Bradford lockup awaiting a hearing on the charge of catching trout under the size allowed by law. Fish Warden Conklin arrested Higgins on West branch, where Higgins was fishing.
When the fish were counted it was found that he had in his possession 54 undersized fish. The law covering the matter says that a fine of $10 must be imposed for every fish. The law also states that only 50 fish may be legally caught by one person in a day, with a fine of $25 for each fish over the stipulated number. If this is the case it will cost Higgins $840 to secure his freedom, as the alderman hearing the case has no discretion but to impose the fine.—Bradford Record.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFadden, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wagner for about a week, returned to their home in Pittsburg, Monday morning. Frank learned the tinning trade in the shop of C. R. Haselbarth in this town, and worked for Mr. Haselbarth fourteen years. He left here with his family some time during the Seventies, and this was his first visit to the old town in the last sixteen years. He is following his trade in Pittsburg now, and says he is getting along well. He is the same joking Frank as of yore, and his stock of wit and humor hasn't decreased a particle since he moved away from here. We greatly enjoyed a chat with him, last Saturday, and it was interesting to review the good old days of some twenty years ago.

Recently a church organization in a little Kansas town built a church. To pay for it they were obliged to call on the merchants of the community for donations. The merchants responded liberally, and $3,000 was thus raised from this source. The last man to subscribe was John Smith, a jeweler. "I will give $6 if you will let me add something to the list," he said. The permission was accorded him, and he wrote at the foot of the list: "J. Smith, $5; Sears, Roebuck & Co., $0; Montgomery, Ward & Co., $0." The church people saw the point when the minister read from the pulpit the list of donors to the building fund, and since the dedication of the church there have been no mail orders sent out from that Kansas town.—Eggingham News Leaf.

The stone-throwing boy is a nuisance wherever he abounds, and Salisbury has its full quota of such nuisances—boys who think they must be eternally throwing stones at something, or at nothing, just as their fancy dictates.
On Monday Mrs. Thomas Eckerd was struck in the face with a stone hurled at random by a careless, thoughtless boy, and the missile struck the lady dangerously near the eye, just grazing one of the lenses of her spectacles.
Had the stone struck a half inch higher, Mrs. Eckerd would doubtless have been blinded by broken glass. It's a great wonder some of the stone-throwing youngsters of this town haven't killed or seriously maimed some one long ago. The stone-throwing habit should be prohibited by parents and the authorities as far as possible.

Did you ever notice that "talk" does not hurt a man much? Perfection isn't looked for in a man, and when some one tries to injure a man by ranting about a few faults he has, the absent one, who is probably attending to his own affairs, is elevated in the hearers' estimation, while the informant is lowered accordingly. If a man knocks along, doing fairly well, people realize that while he has some faults, he has more virtues, and they are charitable enough to overlook these faults. But it is different with a girl or a woman.
No matter how good and pure a woman may be, let some one start an infamous lie about her, and everyone is willing to pass it along, and there is always some one to believe it. That lie can never be lived down. It may burn low, but the gossip-loving are ready with new fuel. Did you ever think how damnably mean some "goody-good" people are in this respect?—Ex.
