LDING

dminis-puilding the W. t of its

be the of any ouse in expres-ny per-ion sin-

ulatory

orches-Boston

of all.
east for which Fifteen out, indealers dle the others and all and viglad to ed call ed just ng con-jobbing of sup-e read-brough-the W.

to ob-

1 shoes ad cus-waiting ew job-oled to bed the

ch will ne cus-gely-in-Douglas et long ries in it will while d floor.

use on ase asin two t land-fourth, dow is the enase in word er hall, e man-of the direct-nilding, ht, and ng sky-

ed the

H. T. Hor

ad are om oc-of the comes sistant s, cor re de open and oleting m are

is for

cham-north-This n ma-tre in in oil The ample years 142 st in

not istrict

1965 PULS PULS.

BRIT IN CRITICAL STATE AND THE STAT

yourself as going into the presence of God and informing Him that somewhere in some forgotten corner of His universe there was some unknown creature, unknown to Him, that was perishing for want of Him, and you were the only guide qualified to show the way to that creature, we may say, with all reverence that you could expect God Himself to rise up and followed Jairus to the house of sorrow. My friends, let us comfort ourselves with the assurance that any such message as that will move the Lord today just as in the days of Jairus. Whatever pain or sorrow there is in your own house or the house of your friend, you may go to Him straightway and tell Him, and when you return you may be sure that you are taking His presence with you. Be sure a man of that kind is a privileged character; he takes precedence of all. When Jarius has finished speaking, Jesus rises up and follows him.

Now that is only the first part of our text. This is the second nart.

follows him.

Now that is only the first part of our text. This is the second part:
"And so did His disciples." As disciples it was their business to follow Jesus, and now Jesus was following Jairus. Is not this a most excellent example for any loyal church? The question that ought to come to us is the question of leadership, human leadership of a Christian church, and, of course, I shall often expect to find that kind of leadership in the church

Our Father's hand is at the helm of the universe, not ours. Do not try to carry the labors of the deck hand and the responsibilities of the Pilot. "Trust in the Lord with all thy heart. * * * In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths."

God We Can Trust.

he for any loyal church? The on that ought to come to us is the stion of leadership, human thip of a Christian church, and, cse, I shall often expect to find of of leadership in the church Men and women experienced to the standard of the changlessness of that which passes not.—Matthie D. Babcock.

become his neighbor is your neighbor. We should be ready to help every person who needs our assistance.

HAD HIM.

He—Isn't dinner ready yet?

She—No, dear. I got it according the time you set the clock when you came in last night, and dinner will be ready in four hours.—Harper's Bazar.

A Girl in Kansas. Dick-You are such a funny girl. never did know how to take you.

Kitty (coyly)—You never tried.—

Kansas City Independent.

sum is to be spent in instalments of $50,000 per year for seven years Modern study of the life history of the mosquito, says Forest and Stream has shown very clearly that if undertaken intelligently, schemes for the extirpation of the pest may be entirely successful; and the time has come when public moneys may reasonably be devoted to such work. The experience and success or failure of the New Jersey mosquito campaign will be watched with much interest.

HIS TASTE.

"What is the real secret of the art of hanging pictures?" asked the lady with the lorgnette.

"The real secret," said the artist, "is to hang most of them in the garret, where they don't show."—Detrict Free Press.

"The spending pictures?" asked the lady with the lorgnette.

"The real secret," said the artist, "is to hang most of them in the garret, where they don't show."—Detrict Free Press.

"What is to be spent in instalments of some and the time of naturalization.

"To Sleep Well.

To Sleep Well.

Difficulty in going to sleep is a common affliction and a worse one than might be supposed; but in half the cases it is a self-inflicted misery.

Idleness is not the least frequent cause; and the following remedies for sleepless nights will not be tried in vain by all who deplore their misery.

When restless, rise and rub limbs with a good coarse towel, or a flesh brush, or even with the hands, says the Pittsburg Press. Or, before retiring, take a cold bath, and rub well down before getting out of it; or, if cold baths do not agree, have a warm one; or have a good brisk walk in the open air; or, if this is too much, run up and down stairs a half-dozen times, and then to bed directly.

The real secret," said the artist, "is to hang most of them in the garret, where they don't show."—Detrict Free Press.