Dowie's personal expenses were $87,000 a year. As the original Elijah was fed by the ravens, Dowie's birds must have worked overtime, says a western exchange.

The First National Bank of Kitzmillsville, in Garrett county, Md., opened its doors for business on Monday, the 18th inst. The name of that village is awful enough to keep bank robbers out of the town, and it's doubtful if it won't keep business away from the bank.

A MAN with official itch who seeks and accepts a Democratic nomination while declaring himself a pink of Republicanism, ought to be as closely watched as the man who having been caught in his neighbor's hencoop after midnight explains that he was only looking for a place to sleep. Each is as worthy of trust as the other. One is hungry for office, and is willing to ride any old crow-bait going the Harrisburg way; the other is hungry for his chicken, and is willing to risk his reputation and life for a plump pullet. They are two of a kind—a pair, if you please.—Somerset Standard.

GOVERNOR JOSEPH W. FOLK, in addressing the retail merchants of Missouri, at their convention, a few days ago, spoke against the mail-order business and favored advertising in the town papers. He said in part: "We are proud of our splendid cities, and we want them to increase in wealth and population, and we also want our country towns to grow. We wish the city merchants to build up, but we also desire the country merchants to prosper. I do not believe in the mail-order citizen. If a place is good enough for a man to live in and make his money in, is good enough for him to spend his money. No merchant can succeed without advertising in one way or another. Patronize your town papers, build them up, and they will build the town up, and build up for you increased trade and greater opportunities.

A HARD LOT

of troubles to contend with, spring from a torpid liver and blockaded bowels, unless you awaken them to their proper action with Dr. King's New Life Pills; the pleasantest and most effective cure for Constipation. They prevent Appendicitis and tone up the system. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store.

Big Peach Crop.

William J. Voorhees, special solicitor of the United States Express Co., from New York City, has been looking into the extent of the peach crop, in this locality, as a basis for their arrangements to furnish cars. Mr. Voorhees expressed the opinion that 400 carloads from Romney would be a conservative estimate, and stated that he would report that estimate to his company. Jos. Shingleton and others, who have kept in touch with conditions here, estimate the probable shipment from this place, for the season, at 500 carloads.

Campbell Pancake, who has been furnishing baskets to the growers in this community, has already sold and ordered enough baskets to make 400 carloads of peaches. It is thought by some that the crop, if the people are able to market it, may exceed, by far, even the larger estimate.—Cumberland Courier.

ELECTRIC ROAD SURE.

Jennings Syndicate Secures Charter and Road Will be Completed at Earliest Possible Moment.

The Jennings syndicate last week secured the charter which will enable them to connect Meyersdale, Salisbury and other towns with a system of electric railways. The first link of the system to be built will be between Meyersdale and Salisbury, and there is now little or no doubt that electric cars will be hauling passengers in the two towns mentioned, before snow flies.

The old Pittsburg company that partly graded a road between Salisbury and Meyersdale, several years ago, and sought to dispose of a lot of watered stock and complete the road with gas and wind, did all in their power to keep the Jennings people from getting a charter. However, the old company succeeded only in delaying the new company, and now that the charter is granted, we are informed by one of the leading men in the new company that work is to begin just as soon as the preliminary arrangements can be made, and that the road will be in operation at the earliest possible moment.

The new company has the money, the charter and the good will of the people, and we feel safe in saying that Salisbury and Meyersdale will have street cars before many moons shall wax and wane. Hip, hip, hurrah!

ONLY 82 YEARS OLD.

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by E. H. Miller, druggist. Price 50c. 8-1

REFORM FAKIRS.

Political suits with no evidence to sustain them, lifting the lid of the State Treasury and uncovering nothing but cash, making charges with no basis of truth, for political effect only, assassinating character and destroying reputation—these are the moves of the enemies of the Republican party. It remains to be seen whether the great body of Republican voters are going to be deceived again this year.

The lid has been lifted and Mr. Berry has received in full to his Republican predecessor for the millions of dollars turned over from a Republican administration. Philadelphia contractors have been hauled into court but after making all possible political capital out of the charges, the suits have been dropped on advice of eminent council that the evidence was insufficient to sustain the grave accusations.

We do not believe the average voter is going to continue to swallow the nauseating dose of slander and abuse and vilification which are the output of the so-called reformers of Pennsylvania. Reasonable men are not likely to believe those who have failed to make good in a former campaign.

It must be evident to any intelligent person that the real animus of the present attack upon the Republican party is a desire to control for political purposes the Republican organization. It is admitted that the Republican nominees are absolutely unassailable as to character and ability, and that the platform of the party is the best in forty years; but notwithstanding these admissions, men who call themselves Republicans are preparing to defeat the ticket and repudiate the platform, accepting instead the Bryan declarations of the Democrats and a ticket made up of three unconverted Bryanites and one rule-or-ruin Republican.

We shall be much surprised if there is not a turn of the tide presently that will utterly destroy the censorious and self-seeking combination now masquerading as the only real thing in the way of reform.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

A SWEET BREATH.

A sweet breath adds to the joys of a kiss. You wouldn't want to kiss your wife, mother or sweetheart with a bad breath. You can't have a sweet breath without a healthy stomach. You can't have a healthy stomach without perfect digestion. There is only one remedy that digests what you eat and makes the breath as sweet as a rose—and that remedy is KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA. It is a relief for sour stomach, palpitation of the heart, and other ailments arising from disorder of the stomach and digestion. Take a little Kodol after your meals and see what it will do for you. BOWSER AND THE BUMBLEBEES.

Addison Man and His Team Meet With Bad Accident.

Addison, July 19.—A nest of bumblebees that became enraged started trouble for William Bowser, of near Addison, last Saturday morning, which had serious results.

Bowser was mowing grass in the meadow with his team. The mowing machine and the horses passed over a bumblebee's nest. The bees resented the disturbance of their home, and alighted on the horses and man and began stinging. The team ran away, and after going some distance pulled the machine against a small tree in the meadow. The cutter bar was hurled forward and cut off both hind legs of one of the horses, the members being entirely severed from the body.

In the collision Bowser was fortunately thrown back of the cutter bar, but sustained the loss of four fingers. He became entangled in the lines, and this was his salvation, for he was thrown to one side. Otherwise he would have been in front of the cutter bar. The bees followed the team more than 100 rods, and were still stinging the horses and Mr. Bowser when the machine collided with the tree.

A TRAGIC FINISH.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth Melver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at E. H. Miller's drug store. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. 8-1

SWALLOW AND EMERY.

By Arthur G. Burgoyne in Pittsburg Gazette Times.

Cold water is a harmless thing. You'd hardly think it fitted. To give to human speech a sting and breed retorts quick-witted. And hence it causes wonderment That from its use should follow Such thrusts unkind, and truculent As Emery gets from Swallow.

It is not strange at all to find A gentleman addicted To liquors strong and much inclined To topping unrestricted Emitting fiery calls for gore Like Caesar or like Rollo; But who'd expect a warlike roar From water fiends like Swallow?

No doubt this is the reason why The Wanamaker party Relied on landing high and dry The coy Prohibs. With hearty Assurance of success in sight They made their profers hollow. They never thought they'd have to fight A paladin like Swallow.

And so when Berry threw aside The temperance nomination, He thought the way was open wide For Emery's exaltation. "Here, take it, Lew," he said and looked Like Jove or smooth Apollo. How could he know that he was booked To get the gaff from Swallow?

Proceeding with the easy game Lew Emery, brisk and merry, Prepared without delay to claim The place bequeathed to Berry. "Methinks," mused he, "these wat'ry folk Are wondrous green and callow." But ah, just then the warcloud broke And—biff!—along came Swallow.

Then came the jabs and uppercuts And kinder demonstrations. In vain were Emery's "ifs and buts," In vain his explanations. And now, too late, alas, he knows, That enemies who wallow In rum are not the fiercest foes. They don't compare with Swallow.

AN OVERWORKED STOMACH.

Try a little KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA after your meals. See the effect it will produce on your general feeling by digesting your food and helping your stomach to get itself into shape. Many stomachs are overworked to the point where they refuse to go further. Kodol digests your food and gives your stomach the rest it needs, while its reconstructive properties get the stomach back into working order. Kodol relieves flatulence, sour stomach, palpitation of the heart, belching, etc. Sold by E. H. Miller. 8-1
