My Hair is Extra Long

Feed your hair; nourish it; give it something to live on. Then it will stop falling, and will grow long and heavy. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only hair-food you can buy. For 60 years it has been doing just what we claim it will do. It will not disappoint you.

"My hair used to be very short. But after using Ayer's Hair Vigor a short time it began to grow, and now it is fourteen inches long. This seems a splendid result to me after being almost without any hair for some time."—Mrs. J. H. Fiske, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ekerd received a letter from their son Thomas, last week, stating that he liked army life first rate, so far. He is at Long Island, N. Y., where he will drill for a couple of months, then be sent somewhere else.

Some time ago Wm. Rees and James Cochran, Jr., went away to enlist in the Regular army. James is now in the service as a heavy artillery man, and is located near New York City. His companion, however, returned home and did not enlist.

Edward Landis, a carpenter 34 years old, fell from the roof of the new dwelling house of Wm. H. Walker, a short distance east of Berlin, Tuesday evening of last week, fracturing his skull. He died a few hours later without regaining consciousness. He was unmarried.

Mrs. L. B. Simmons, of Jacksonville, Ill., is in this vicinity for a visit with friends. She will remain all summer. Mrs. Simmons was formerly Mrs. Dr. Stewart. She is a sister of the late Samuel Compton, and her husband used to practice medicine here about 40 years ago.

Norman B. Keim, while exercising one of his fine stallions, one evening last week, was kicked by the animal and pretty badly hurt. Several ribs are fractured, but a little thing like that won't keep an old horseman like Norman on the disabled list very long. At any rate we hope not.

There is getting to be entirely too much whooping, yelling and general vulgarity on our streets at night, both by people who are drunk and people who are sober, and much complaint is being heard on all sides. The town authorities and officers should see to it that all nuisances are abated.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jennings passed through Salisbury, yesterday morning, on their way to Jennings, Md. They have just returned from a delightful vacation. They went from Baltimore to Boston by boat, thence to the White Mountains, thence to Vermont, thence down the Connecticut river and returned home.

The man who went out to milk and sat down on a boulder in the middle of the pasture and waited for the cow to back up, was a brother to the man who kept a store and wouldn't advertise because he reasoned that the purchasing public would back up to his place of business when it wanted something.—Commercial Union.

Last Thursday Rev. Father McDonald, of West Salisbury, entertained at dinner the following named persons: Rev. Father Looney, of Meyersdale, Dr. Lauman and Miss Dites, of Johnstown, Pa., and Drs. Perry and Lichty, of Salisbury. The guests all agree that Rev. McDonald is a splendid entertainer, and that the dinner was one of the finest.

The old time method of purging the system with Cathartics that tear, gripe, grind and break down the walls of the stomach and intestines is superseded by Dade's Little Liver Pills. They cleanse the liver, and instead of weakening, build up and strengthen the whole system. Relieve headache, biliousness, constipation, etc. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

The Berlin Concert Band will furnish music. A restaurant in competent hands will provide meals at reasonable rates. Excursion rates on railroads. The Committee will endeavor to make this the best reunion yet held.

A hotel keeper in a nearby town writes that during a long experience in the hotel business he has accumulated a large quantity of rubber shoes left there by hotel guests, and wants to know how to dispose of the same. We are not very well versed in the rubber business, but without investigating we would advise the hotel man to try the Chicago packing houses, or else make blackberry wine of them.

You can see the poison Pine-ules clears out of the kidneys and bladder. A single dose at bedtime will show you more poison upon rising the next morning than can be expelled from the system in any other way. Pine-ules dissolve the impurities, lubricate the kidneys, cleanse the bladder, relieve pain and do away with back-ache speedily, pleasantly, permanently. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

Officer Frank Wagner has given notice that the dog ordinance must be complied with to the letter, and that he will kill all dogs whose masters fail to pay their license and have their canines properly tagged. We see where Frank is right, and we trust that he will have enough dogs to slaughter to keep the Balogna factories busy for at least a few weeks. Most dogs are better in "Bobunk" sausage than anywhere else.

If you want a Business Education, attend the Meyersdale Commercial College, Meyersdale, Pa. It's The Best School. Catalogue Free. 9-1

A jolly crowd of Salisbury and West Salisbury ladies went to Frostburg, Md., yesterday morning, in C. W. Stotler's large hack, drawn by four horses, with Herbert McKinley as driver. The following named ladies constituted the party: Mrs. Lloyd Beachy, Mrs. G. W. Stotler, Mrs. P. L. Livengood, Mrs. John M. Wright, Mrs. Chas. Paschke, Mrs. A. L. Williams, Mrs. P. Conley, Mrs. H. J. Christner and Mrs. Albert Emrich.

On Tuesday afternoon the following named young people drove out to Stanton's dam, near Grantsville, Md., to commune with nature and have a general good time: Dr. A. L. Haselbarth, George Hay, Wm. and James McClure, Ernest Livengood, Ellet Baumgartner, Harriet Haselbarth, Carrie Miller, Louise Schmucker, Florence and Maud Speicher, and Emma McClure. They took supper in Grantsville before returning home, and they report a pleasant time.

A hundred years ago the best physician would give you a medicine for your heart without stopping to consider what effect it might have on the liver. Even to this good day cough and cold medicines invariably bind the bowels. This is wrong. Bee's Laxative Cough Syrup with Honey and Tar acts on the bowels—drives out the cold—clears the head, relieves all coughs, cleanses and strengthens the mucous membranes of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

There is only one way in which to build up a town. That way is for all the people to work together, to put their shoulders to the wheel and help push the car of progress along. It means that you quit your back-biting and trying to down your competitor. Don't be a clam; be a progressive man in business. If your investments don't amount to more than a hundred dollars, spend a portion of your profits in advertising. The paper is here to help you, not to rob you. Be a stayer, not a quitter, and if you're sure your business will not stand advertising, you'd better advertise it for sale.

Dr. P. S. Keim and wife, of Roachdale, Ind., arrived in Salisbury, Sunday evening, for a visit at the doctor's old home. He is the youngest son of Mrs. S. C. Keim, and he left here nine years ago, shortly after graduating from Jefferson Medical College, of Philadelphia. "Pete," as he is familiarly known here, is looking exceedingly well, and he is fat and hearty, the cause of which he says is due to the fact that he has had plenty to eat in the Hoosier state, and a good cook to prepare it. He recently sold his practice in Indiana, and after he completes his visit here he will take a post-graduate course in Philadelphia, then look up another location. Mrs. Keim is an Indiana lady, and we trust that she is enjoying her visit here as much as her husband is enjoying his.

Once more we are going over our subscription list and sending out statements to all subscribers found to be a year or more in arrears. It is doubtful whether we have a delinquent subscriber among our entire army of readers who is not able to pay at least a portion of his or her account, and we therefore expect a prompt remittance from each and every one, of such amount as the subscriber feels able to spare. Do not let your indebtedness pile up on you, but rather square up to date and then pay for another year in advance, thus securing a lower rate and saving 25 cents. At any rate we expect our delinquents to do the best they can by us, for we have trusted and placed confidence in them because we believed them to be honest people. Those who betray confidence and trust placed in them are of all people the most despicable, and invariably they suffer in the end for their sin.

Fashionable Clothes.

Men are largely judged by their appearance. A good appearance—that is, a man tastefully dressed in well-fitting clothes of proper style. A courteous manner and a good impression go hand in hand toward success. You may be successful, even though you make a poor appearance, but your chances are better the other way.

We are showing a splendid line of correct clothing for Men and Boys in
