A NARROW ESCAPE.

The final blow to Candidate Emery's hopes of securing the Prohibitionist nomination for governor was administered yesterday by the state executive committee of the Prohibition party in session at Harrisburg. The committee met for the purpose of filling the vacancy on the party ticket caused by Mr. W. H. Berry's withdrawal. This vacancy had occurred under extraordinary circumstances. It was a matter of common knowledge that Mr. Berry had allowed himself to be nominated for governor by the third party with the express purpose of turning the nomination over to Mr. Emery later on. The move was made possible through a deal between Mr. Emery's backers, the Wanamaker managers, and a group of Prohibitionist leaders to whom a political recompense was promised. Mr. Berry retired according to program, but the Wanamaker people failed to deliver the promised goods to their allies in the third party camp, and as a consequence the deal collapsed. At the same time Dr. Silas C. Swallow, the strongest figure among the Pennsylvania Prohibitionists, made a public exposure of Mr. Emery's fitness for a place on the cold water ticket, which effectually clinched matters.

In the face of all this Mr. Emery did not despair of adding the Prohibitionists to the train of nondescripts which is supporting him and which includes more "isms" than ever before got together anywhere outside of Kansas. To the last moment, the Emeryites kept up their impudent play for the Prohibition vote. The farce ended yesterday, however, with the nomination of a straight-out Prohibition ticket. Homer L. Castle, of Allegheny county, previously the nominee for lieutenant governor, was nominated for governor; H. D. Patton of Lancaster was chosen to succeed Mr. Castle in second place, and the nomination for secretary of internal affairs was given to George Hoffman of Montgomery county, in place of E. A. Coray, an Emery man, who found it discreet to withdraw.

The personality of these candidates is of little interest, inasmuch as they will have not the ghost of a show at the polls. It is of vital interest, however, to note that the third party has been able, at the last moment, to escape the trap set for it by the Wanamaker agents and to preserve its integrity and its good name. The escape has been a narrow one, and it should convey a warning of permanent value to the really sincere members of the third party organization; a warning against the influence of an over-ambitious element within their own ranks; a warning, above all, against the temptation to enter into deals or dickers with self-seeking politicians having no sympathy with the Prohibition cause and no honest purpose in negotiating with its disciples. Had the third party linked itself with the Democracy, the Wanamakerites, the Lincolnites, Referendumites and the rest of the variegated assemblage behind Mr. Emery, there would have been an end of whatever dignity and usefulness it deems itself to possess. Surely it will profit by its present experience and avoid such pitfalls in future.—Pittsburg Gazette Times, Aug. 8th.

HON. ALLEN F. COOPER NAMED BY CONFEREES ON TWELFTH BALLOT.

On Thursday afternoon, Aug. 9th, the Republican conferees of the Twenty-third Congressional District, composed of Somerset, Fayette and Greene counties, met at the Hotel Lincoln, Pittsburgh, and nominated the Hon. Allen F. Cooper, of Fayette county, to succeed himself in the National House of Representatives, the nomination being made on the twelfth ballot.

The conference was called to order at 1:30 p. m., and organized by electing Hon. Allen P. Dickey, of Greene county, chairman, and W. A. Kephart, Fayette; R. W. Munell, Greene, and A. C. Holbert, Somerset, secretaries.

The roll of conferees was made as follows: John R. Byrne, J. Q. Von Swearington, A. W. Kephart, Fayette; Allen P. Dickey, R. W. Munell, Edward Martin, Greene; A. C. Holbert, N. B. McGriff, H. D. Moore, Somerset, all of whom were present.

On motion the conference proceeded to ballot vive voce in alphabetical order of the counties, the first ballot resulting Cooper, 3; Craig, 3; Miller, 3; with the same result until the tenth ballot had been taken, when an adjournment was had of ten minutes, at the expiration of which time the conference was called to order and proceeded with the eleventh ballot, which resulted in three votes being cast for each candidate as before. When the twelfth ballot was taken resulting, Cooper, 5; Craig, 1; Dickey and Munell of Greene having voted with the Fayette conferees for Cooper, and Martin for Craig, A. C. Holbert moved that inasmuch as the ballot thus far taken showed Allen F. Cooper had received a majority vote of the conference, the ballot be made unanimous, which was seconded by N. B. McGriff, and on vote of conference the ballot was made unanimous at 3:55 p. m.

The chairman directed the secretaries to prepare the necessary certificates, and they were properly signed by the chairman and secretaries and sworn to by the same before a Notary Public.

On motion conference adjourned sine die.

AT PEACE WITH THE WORLD.

There is nothing so pleasant as that bright, cheerful, at-peace-with-the-world feeling when you sit down to your breakfast. There is nothing so conducive to good work and good results. The healthy man with a healthy mind and body is a better fellow, a better workman, a better citizen than the man or woman who is handicapped by some disability, however slight. A slight disorder of the stomach will de-range your body, your thoughts and your disposition. Get away from the morbidness and the blues. Keep your stomach in tune and both your brain and body will respond. Little indiscretions of overeating can be easily corrected, and you will be surprised to see how much better man you are. Try a little Kodol For Dyspepsia after your meals. Sold by E. H. Miller. 9-1

One Person Prohibited by Law From Paying Another's Taxes.

Philadelphia, July 26.—The purchase of poll tax receipts by political organizations constitutes a crime under the new Roberts corrupt practices act, according to the interpretation of the law by a special committee of the Civil Service Reform Association of Philadelphia. Secretary Samuel B. Scott for the Reform association has issued the following statement:

"The paying of the poll tax for another is now clearly forbidden by law, and under the terms of the new 'corrupt practice act' the person or committee who attempts it will be liable to a heavy penalty. The act defines 'election expenses,' including 'all expenditures of money or other valuable thing in furtherance of the nomination of any person or public office, or to defeat the nomination or election to public office of any person or persons.' Since the purchase of tax receipts for others is done for no other purpose than in furtherance of the election of some person to public office, any money spent in this way comes clearly under the head of election expenses."

POSTOFFICE ORDERS.

Opened by Mistake Excuse Will Hereafter Not Be Good.

The Postoffice Department has recently made two very important orders.

Hereafter the "opened by mistake" excuse will be a mistake that will cost $200. The Postoffice Department has ruled that mail must be looked over before leaving the office and that any letter put in your box by mistake must be returned before leaving the office under the penalty of $200 for failure to do so.

The other is that no mail must be given out to children either coming or going to school. This is an order that will be appreciated by the patrons of the local office, for when school is in session it is a veritable nuisance the way the children crowd into the office.

THE END OF THE WORLD of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years ago Kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters. They also cured me of General Debility." Success cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints, Blood diseases, Headaches, Dizziness and Weakness or bodily decline. Price 50c. Guaranteed at E. H. Miller's drug store. 9-1

Silver on the Yough.

Harry E. Clark declares he has struck a bonanza on the Gleason farm, three miles above Mr. Keesport, on the Youghiogheny river. He has been prospecting for precious metals, and today he announced to Alderman C. A. Gleason, of McKeesport that he had uncovered a six inch vein of horn silver, which will run $2,000 to the ton. He says he has had experience in western mines and knows what he is talking about. Clark offered A. C. and F. S. Gleason $12,000 for their interest in the property. He says he has had three essays made of the ore and each time it showed an increase in value.

Clark is a member of the Bessemer Contracting and Ballast Company, of McKeesport. When he first went to the Gleasons they had no faith in the mine. Clark agreed to shoulder the expense of a thorough investigation, and in return was to receive a working share of any profits. He engaged a dozen laborers for a week and they have been digging. The alleged richness of the mine was discovered Saturday, when Clark himself, who had been at the mine almost a day and a night, sunk a pick into the vein. Then he lit his pipe.—Connellsville Courier.

HALF MILLION COAL DEAL.

Tract of 3543 Acres in Greene County Sold by Jasper Augustine.

One of the biggest coal deals reported in several months and one of which reminds one of the big deals of which Fayette county is famous was consummated in Uniontown Wednesday, when Jasper Augustine sold 3,543 acres of coal in Wayne, Gilmore, Center, Jackson and Morgan townships, Greene county, for a consideration of half a million dollars. James R. Barnes being the purchaser.

This was an average of $141 an acre and it is said this coal has advanced in price nearly double during the past year. It is on the prospective route of the Wabash and is generally considered a good proposition. Mr. Barnes purchased it for speculation and expects to dispose of it in a short time. Messrs. Barnes, Thompson and other Uniontown men own coal all surrounding this tract.—Uniontown News-Standard.
