

THE LASH FOR ANARCHISTS

Secretary Bonaparte Tell How to Punish the Reds.

WOULD MAKE ALL MEN SLAVES

Socialists and Anarchists Differ but All Spring from a Common Belief.

At the Cumberland, Md., Chautauqua Secretary of the Navy Charles J. Bonaparte delivered a strong and interesting address on "Anarchism and Its Cure," which was listened to and applauded by an audience of 3,000. Mr. Bonaparte took occasion to defend the many measures that have been advocated to stamp out anarchy in the United States and also to denounce those who have been attempting to interfere with the freedom of the press on the ground that certain editorial utterances have tended to stir up trouble. He also decried in emphatic terms the attempt made by certain interests to class Socialists as Anarchists, although he admitted that they both spring from one common belief, that of common equality. He said:

"A Socialist is essentially, though not always avowedly or even consciously, one who sees that the equality demanded by his own doctrine can be fully secured only among slaves. An Anarchist differs from a Socialist by demanding that all agents of governments be entirely abolished. If the Socialist had his way, his boasted equality would work chaos and make timid and simple serfs of the strong, brave and wise. The Anarchist holds that the man who possesses any kind of superiority over another wrongs the other by the mere fact of having it. Therefore comes anarchy, anarchy, anarchy, holding it to be a sin against equality for one man to be exalted above his fellows. Legislation cannot eradicate anarchy. We can, however, make the unlawful acts prompted by anarchy crimes where they are not already so and visit upon them such penalties as are particularly distasteful to that class of criminals."

"On Anarchists the death penalty should be unequivocally imposed by law and inflexibly executed whenever the prisoner has sought directly or indirectly, to take life. For offenses of less gravity, I advise comparatively brief, but very rigorous imprisonment, characterized by complete seclusion, deprivation of all comfort, and denial of any form of distraction, and which could be, to my mind, advantageously supplanted by a severe but not a public whipping. The lash, of all punishments, most men hold odious and disgraceful, and not merely for reasons of public policy."

NO WONDER BANK FAILED

President and His Friends Used Funds Playing Ponies.

In addition to the discovery of a private ledger kept by President Paul O. Stensland, of the wrecked Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, of Chicago, and in which was concealed a record of $191,000 of savings bank deposits, another sensational book came to light during the examination of Cashier Henry W. Hering. This private ledger showed Stensland in a new role—that of sport and racetrack gambler.

The book showed that the missing president in company with a coterie of friends, was a heavy plunger on the races. It contained memoranda of the campaigns on the turf. One day Stensland and his companions bet $75,000 to win $60,000 on a horse called Gen. F. The animals won. There were lots of losses, however, to offset this big winning.

Scandal in German Army.

The Kaiser is furious at the discovery of another great military scandal which has resulted in the arrest of a number of officers in the colonial troops who are accused of having swindled the state out of both wheat and corn for export. Even the military governor of Kamerun is said to be involved and has been ordered home to defend himself.

CROP REPORTS

Wheat and Corn Both Largely in Excess Over Last Year.

The government crop report, issued on the 19th, met the most sanguine expectations. The total winter and spring wheat yield is estimated at 772,000,000 bushels, which compares with an actual yield last year of 692,000,000 bushels. A new record is also indicated for corn, the yield being estimated at 2,713,000,000 bushels which compares with 2,707,000,000 bushels last year. These figures assure a large surplus of both wheat and corn for export, and inasmuch as there is no artificial support to the market, prices for the old crop have declined to a level that is stimulating foreign demand.

FOUR DROWN TO SAVE ONE

Sacrifice Unavailing in a Gay Party on the River.

Five persons prominent in the social life of Davenport, Wash., who had been enjoying an outing on the banks of the Spokane river, were drowned. The dead are: Miss Winnie Jones, A. L. Bergert, Mrs. A. L. Bergert, Roy Howard and A. L. Inman.

Nine Miners Killed.

An elevator in which 9 miners were going down to the Marchioness coal mine at Charleroi, Belgium, dropped 900 yards, smashing the car to atoms and instantly killing all its occupants. Their bodies were so crushed as to be almost unrecognizable.

By confessing that he killed Dominic Murfin, in Franklin, Pa., two weeks ago, Pasquale Vaccare saved Pasquale Cutella from going to trial for the crime. All are Italians.

PERSIA ADVANCING

Will Have National Assembly, Constitution and Reforms.

For the first time in her history, Persia is to have a national assembly. This information was conveyed to the Persian minister at Washington in a cablegram from the grand vizier and minister for foreign affairs, who stated that, in view of the desire of his imperial majesty, the Shah, for the extension of national tranquility and for the welfare of Persia and all its inhabitants and in order to fortify the government it has been decreed necessary to give certain reforms and a constitution durable for the country and for the administration. The immediate organization of a national assembly for the realization of these reforms accordingly was ordered.

OMAHA DIVORCE CENTER.

Two Hundred and Thirty-two Cases Heard Since May.

Two hundred and thirty-two divorce cases have been disposed of in the District Court in Omaha since the May term of the court opened. In more than one hundred of these cases decrees of divorce were granted. Many of the parties to the proceedings live, or recently lived, outside of Nebraska, coming here for the sole purpose of filing petitions of divorce, because the laws of this State make it very easy for a dissatisfied husband or wife to obtain a legal separation. It has come to light that as a divorce center Omaha is making rapid strides, having long ago distanced St. Louis, Mo., which for years has been the lead.

GREAT PLOT UNEARTHED.

Leaders Arrested Confess to Widespread Conspiracy in Finland.

A message from Copenhagen says: A number of members of the Finnish revolutionary organization were arrested, and under pressure confessed the plans of the patriots. They revealed a widespread plot to blow up all of the government buildings at Helsingfors with dynamite, and to establish a dictatorship over Finland.

This being successful, it was planned to march to St. Petersburg to aid the opponents of the government there. The government is alarmed, and it is feared that Finland has been elected as the starting point for the revolution.

WHY MANY MEN GO CRAZY.

Lose Their Minds in the Effort to Support Women.

Interesting figures are obtained in a bulletin issued by the Census Bureau, concerning the number of insane persons in the United States. Although not made a part of the official record of speculations in the subject, there is an impression among those who assisted in the compilation of the figures that American males go insane as the result of their strenuous efforts to get the money wherewith to support the female members of their families in comparative ease, while among the foreign-born, insanity among the females results from the overwork their lords and masters compel them to do.

OIL FOUND IN PERU.

Rich Strike is Reported High Above Sea Level.

Near the shore of Lake Titicaca, in Peru, the highest navigable body of water in the world, being 13,200 feet above sea level, petroleum in large quantities has been found by the Inca Mining and Rubber Company, news of which was received by Albert E. Fowk, of Catskill, N. Y., who for 29 years was in Peru in the employ of that company.

The first three wells sunk had to be abandoned because of the pressure of flowing water from the lake, but in the fourth well difficulty was overcome by fastening steel rails over the casings.

Fifty-five persons were injured in an accident on the Fort Worth & Denver City railroad near Fruitland, Tex.

Grand Duke Declines Job.

Grand Duke Nicholas Nicolaievitch is declared by a member of his entourage, has declined to accept the post of commander-in-chief of all the troops of the Russian empire, wherever the martial law exists, which was tendered to him Aug. 4.

TERSE TELEGRAMS.

Seven hundred Ute Indians have left their reservation and are traveling through Wyoming killing game and stock.

It has been definitely decided that King Alfonso and Queen Ena of Spain will visit Lord and Lady Leith at Fyvie castle in Scotland a few weeks hence.

Thanks to the recent ukase of Czar Nicholas, the women of Finland will be able to cast their votes at the next election this fall the same as their husbands and brothers.

Fourteen men in a coal mine at Renard near Silesia, Russian Silesia, were killed by the breaking of a rope while their car was descending the pit.

An attempt to kill Grand Duke Nicholas was made by Russian troops he was reviewing.

Telephone Displaces Telegraph.

Official announcement was made that the Lackawanna railroad will dispense with the services of telegraphers and will control the movement of trains with automatic blocks and the telephones. This will be the first railroad in America to make such a change. Trains will then be controlled under rules practiced in England, where dispatchers are unknown.

Over 4,000,000 bushels of coal were shipped out of the harbor at Pittsburgh in one day.

LYNCHER GETS 15 YEARS

A North Carolina Jury Quickly Disposes of Man Who Leads Mob.

FIRST CASE IN STATE'S HISTORY

Leader of the Mob Arrested Tuesday, Indicted Thursday, Convicted and Sentenced Friday.

What is said to be the first instance of the conviction of a lyncher in the history of the state was furnished when George Hal, a white convict of Montgomery county, North Carolina who was one of the party that lynched three negroes in jail at Salisbury for the murder of the Lively family, was found guilty of conspiracy in connection with that crime and was sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary. The jury was out but 35 minutes and returned with a verdict of guilty, after several witnesses had been heard. Judge B. F. Long sentenced Hal to the maximum term provided for by law, 15 years at hard labor in the penitentiary. The evidence against Hal was overwhelming. He was remanded to jail. But four days have intervened between the time of the triple lynching and Hal's arrest and conviction. Monday night the three negroes were taken from a tree and their bodies riddled with bullets. Next day, Tuesday, Hal was arrested, Wednesday a special grand jury was summoned and indicted him for murder and Friday he was arraigned, found guilty and sentence pronounced.

The state sprung a surprise in the trial when the offense against the prisoner was changed from murder to conspiracy.

PRISONERS BREAK JAIL

One Fugitive Charged With Murder and Another Refuses to Leave.

Buck Kittlewell, alias Frank Howell, Jeff Taylor and Carl Gross, broke out of the county jail at Morgantown, W. Va., and escaped into Pennsylvania.

Kittlewell was being held on a charge of robbing the Baltimore & Ohio railroad office here and was also wanted in Cleveland, O. Taylor was brought here from the Marion county jail for safe keeping on a charge of murder, while Gross was serving a 30-day sentence for petit larceny.

Walter Flum, held on a murder charge, had a chance to escape, but refused to join them. Four steel bars were pried from the jail windows. It is believed they had assistance from the outside.

THREE NEGROES LYNCHED

Taken from Jail, Hanged to Trees and Shot.

A mob of 3,000 determined men forcibly entered Rowan county jail at Salisbury, N. C., removed therefrom three of the five negroes charged with the murder of the Lively family at Barber Junction, July 13, and lynched them.

Nease and John Gillespie and Jack Dillingham, supposed to be the principal actors in the crime, were the victims of mob vengeance.

The remaining negroes, Henry Lee, George Erian and Bella Dillingham, were not molested, and later officers hurried them off to Greensboro.

Against Negro Supremacy.

It is being suggested in England that a small party of American negro preachers, who have been advocating the Ethiopian propaganda, "Africa for the Africans," should be deported from South Africa. The government has taken no action. The agitation against the preachers has been revived by the recent trouble at Cape Town, for which they are held by certain London papers to be partially responsible. They have made no secret of their mission to South Africa, advising the natives to use their efforts to secure black supremacy in that part of the world.

CASHIER CLAIMS INNOCENCE.

Henry W. Hering, of Chicago, cashier of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, which closed its doors, was arrested in Chicago. He will be refused bail until his connection with the disappearance of nearly $1,000,000 from the bank's funds is cleared up. Paul O. Stensland, president of the defunct institution, is still a fugitive, and, although nearly 100 detectives are searching for the missing president, his whereabouts is a mystery.

Hering declared he did not know where President Stensland was and that he had had no communication with Stensland for more than a week. Hering strenuously denied any responsibility for the failure of the bank. Hering maintained that if he was guilty of breaking the banking laws of Illinois, President Stensland was responsible. Hering declared he never had benefited a single dollar by President Stensland's system of banking.

It was announced at the Treasury Department that the department would at once resume the purchase of silver bullion for the subsidiary coinage.

1,500,000-Pound Wool Clip.

PROHIBITION TICKET

Homer L. Castle of Pittsburgh Nominated for Governor.

By a vote of 12 to 4 the Pennsylvania state executive committee of the Prohibition party met in Harrisburg for the second time rejected Lewis Emery, Jr., as a candidate for governor. Vacancies on the state ticket were filled by the nomination of the following straight Prohibitionists:

For Governor—Homer L. Castle of Pittsburgh.
For Lieutenant Governor—H. D. Patton of Lancaster.
For Secretary of Internal Affairs—George Hoffman of Montgomery county.

With regard to Emery the committee took the position that he did not adequately represent those reforms for which the Prohibition party stands and for which it freely and gladly supported William H. Berry, Democrat, for State Treasurer last November.

The meeting was an adjourned session from the Pittsburgh session of three weeks ago, when Emery's name was first presented as a substitute for William H. Berry, who had declined the nomination for governor as tendered by the state convention. The vote then was a tie. Since then the sentiment has developed strongly for State Treasurer last November. CLAIMED MONEY WAS ALL GONE

Entire Sum Alleged to Have Been Stolen Lost in Stock Speculation, He Says.

Clinton B. Wray, charged with stealing $125,000 from the Union Trust Company of Pittsburgh, while employed there as a teller, was arrested in Toronto, Canada. With him at the time was Grace Loughrey, member of a well-known family, of Kittanning, Pa., with whom he became acquainted two years ago by talking to her over the telephone while she was working as a central operator at Kittanning.

It was through Miss Loughrey that Wray was traced by Perkins detectives after he left Pittsburgh about three weeks ago. He will be brought back and committed to jail, where Clifford S. Hixon, the individual bookkeeper of the trust company, who confessed that he and Wray stole $125,000, is confined in default of $20,000 bail.

Although the speculations of the two trusted employes extended over a period of three years, they were not suspected until about three weeks ago, a few days after both went on their vacations. Hixon was arrested last week and, after being "sweated" for about 24 hours, broke down and confessed.

Wray then said, in answer to questions, that he had lost all on stock gambling.

Bank Teller Commits Suicide.

Frank Kowalski, for five years paying teller of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, which failed shot and killed himself in his home, 340 North Carpenter street, Chicago. Criticism by neighbors and friends who accused him of a share in the downfall of the bank, is believed to have driven Kowalski to suicide.

Theodore Stensland, vice president of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, was arrested on a charge of violating the banking laws of the state. Earlier in the day the institution was placed in the hands of a receiver and Paul O. Stensland, president of the bank and father of the vice president, together with Cashier Hering, were officially declared fugitives from justice.

This action was taken by the authorities after developments and showed the finances of the failed institution were in a deplorable condition and had been for a number of years. Besides the discovery of many irregularities in the management of the bank, it was also found that even the safety deposit boxes owned and rented by the bank had been tampered with and rifled.

According to a census just taken by the Health Department of the Isthmian canal zone, the population of the zone is 22,137.

LIVES LOST IN FLOOD

Train Carrying Prospectors Isolated at Small Station—Bridges Down and Tracks Washed Away.

Special dispatches from San Angelo, Tex., on the Concho river, a tributary of the Colorado, say:

Thus far five deaths have been reported due to the flood and it is believed these deaths have not been confirmed, there is little hope that any of the reported victims will be found alive.

A train filled with prospectors is isolated at a small station between here and Ballinger, unable to proceed owing to bridges and tracks having been washed out.

Governors Have Narrow Escape.

Gov. Harris and Gov. Warfield, of Maryland, had a narrow escape from serious injury while making an automobile tour of Springfield, O., when crossing the Big Four tracks at the second crossing on West Main street. The fast northbound passenger train came within a few feet of striking the big touring car in which they were seated.

Chinese Must Pay $300 Head Tax.

The much-talked of general strike in Russia has proved to be an absolute fizzle and the workmen's council has prepared a formal announcement calling it off.

FIVE SEAL THIEVES SHOT

The Federal Officials Use Force in Dealing with Raiders in Alaska.

SOME PRISONERS WERE TAKEN

Washington Officials Say There is No Danger of National Complications Over the Affair.

A report of the killing of five Japanese fishermen and the capture of 12 Japanese prisoners on Attu Island, the western-most of the Aleutian group, the prisoners having been taken by the revenue cutter McCulloch, commanded by Captain J. C. Cantwell, was made to the Department of Commerce and Labor at Washington, D. C., by Edwin W. Sims, solicitor for the department, who is in Alaska to enforce the new law prohibiting all persons not citizens of the United States from fishing in Alaskan waters.

The Japanese killed were shot by Americans on Attu Island before the McCulloch arrived. Because of the encroachment of Japanese fishermen and sealers in Alaskan waters Congress was obliged, during the session just ended, to enact two laws calculated to encourage the fishing industry of Alaska among Americans, and to prohibit Japanese and other aliens from engaging in it.

The cable dispatch from Mr. Sims does not make entirely clear the character of the offense of which the Japanese were guilty, but it does show that the officers and crew of the McCulloch were in no way responsible for the killing, and that those who were captured were trespassers on American territory.

There is no reason to expect international complications, but there is no question that the situation in the Aleutian island is a delicate one, and that numerous difficulties are almost certain to be encountered in enforcing the laws protecting American citizens and their rights.

PROSPERITY IN IRON TRADE

Big Increase in Pig Iron Production Fails to Keep Pace With the Heavy Demand.

The "Iron Trade Review," says: "All indications point to great prosperity during the remaining months of the present year, and at least the early months of 1907."

"Seven new blast furnaces, having an annual capacity of 800,000 tons, have been blown in this year, and others will be in operation at not far distant dates, but if the present demand continues, it is doubtful whether even this added capacity will be sufficient."

"Prices are advancing more rapidly toward those of the boom period of 1902 than conservative interests like to see, and in this tendency lies the only danger which now threatens a long continuance of prosperity. Carriage men admit that, in spite of the immense purchases of automobiles during the past 12 months, the railroads will not be in much better condition than they were last year to handle the crops, which will be very large."

BURNS HUSBAND AND SISTER

Demented Woman Kills Herself and Relatives by Cremation.

Dr. E. H. Denslow, of South Bend, Ind., husband of the demented woman who saturated her clothing with gasoline and set fire to it, died from burns received while trying to save his wife's life. Miss Eugene Balfour, sister of Mrs. Denslow, also died from the burns she received in an effort to extinguish the flames that were burning Mrs. Denslow to death.

SUIT FOR $500,000

Wife Alleges That Father-in-Law Has Caused Separation.

Mrs. George B. Rafferty, whose husband is a son of Gilbert T. Rafferty of Pittsburgh, has begun an action to recover $500,000 from the elder Rafferty on complaint that he has alienated the affections of her husband from her. Papers in the action have been filed in the supreme court in Brooklyn, N. Y., by Cantrell & Moore.

Mrs. Rafferty, whose father-in-law is a retired coke manufacturer, was Deborah McIntyre. Her mother had a photographing business in Alexandria Bay, N. Y. On October 23, 1901, the daughter was married to George Rafferty in Clayton, N. Y.

Through his attorney, Archibald R. Watson of No. 31 Nassau street, the elder Mr. Rafferty declares he will spend $1,000,000 to defend the suit, but will not give a penny to settle it.

Potted Stuff is Bad.

Reports of the analyses of about 50 samples of potted ham, potted chicken, hamburger steak and luncheon sausage and similar canned meats sold by packers, submitted to State Dairy and Food Commissioner Ankeny of Ohio, show the presence of preservatives, and in some cases traces of tin and zinc poison, attributed to the use of a poor quality of containers. One sample labelled "Potted Chicken" was found to be veal.

TRUE BILL ON NINETEEN COUNTS

Maximum Penalty is Forty Times Greater Than the Amount of Benefits Received.

A true bill—an indictment for accepting rebates in the form of remitted storage charges from the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railroad—was found against the Standard Oil Company by the Federal Grand Jury at Chicago. The oil company was required by the court to furnish $25,000 bond.

The indictment contains 19 counts, each count constituting an offense. The violations of the law cover a period from August, 1903, to February, 1905. The indictment, which is aimed at the corporation, is silent on both officials of the oil company and the railroads.

The indictment is drawn under the Elkins law. The punishment is a fine of $1,000 to $20,000 for each offense, and the maximum in the 19 offenses is $380,000. The total amount of rebates in monthly instalments is $8,501.72. The quick action of the jury came as a great surprise to the oil attorneys.

Details of the system by which the railroad company handles the product of the Standard Oil Company were laid before the grand jury during the morning by two officials of the railroad and one Government attaché. J. L. Clark, general Western freight agent and C. A. Slauson, local freight agent of the Lake Shore, and George T. Roberts, tariff schedule expert for the Inter-State Commerce Commission, were the men who testified.

J. J. Clark, one of the higher officials of the railroad were on the stand concerning the entire system of the Lake Shore in handling Standard Oil products.

Other witnesses who were present were Vice President D. J. Grammer of the Lake Shore; M. C. Tully, Auditor of the freight accounts of the same road, and R. M. Hutchinson, General Auditor of the company.

The rebates of Standard Oil to other railroads, notably the Chicago & Alton, Illinois Central, Rock Island and Evansville & Terre Haute, will be taken up next.

ROOSEVELT RESPITES TWO MEN

Negro Confessed on Scaffold That He Committed the Crime.

President Roosevelt granted a respite until November 1 of the execution of the death sentence in the case of Robert Sawyer and Arthur Adam, negroes, who are confined in the Wilmington, N. C. jail, having been convicted of murder and mutiny on the high seas.

The stay was granted because of the confession of Henry Scott, who said on the scaffold just before he was hanged that he had killed the three officers and the cook of the schooner H. A. Berwind, which sailed from Philadelphia July 6, 1905, and for which the three were convicted. Another negro also implicated in the mutiny was killed by Scott.
