John Snyder, a prominent resident of Stonycreek township, died Thursday morning from injuries sustained a few weeks ago by falling from a cherry tree. Deceased was about 45 years of age and leaves a widow and two daughters.—Somerset Herald.

Charles Benson was instantly killed by being run over by an engine on the B. & O. railroad at Rockwood Thursday. Benson is a native of Sweden and was employed as a block maker at J. C. McSpadden's stone quarry, about 3½ miles east of Rockwood. He was about 45 years old and single.

The old time method of purging the system with Cathartics that tear, gripe, grind and break down the walls of the stomach and intestines is superseded by Dade's Little Liver Pills. They cleanse the liver, and instead of weakening, build up and strengthen the whole system. Relieve headache, biliousness, constipation, etc. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

Mr. Jonas J. Beachy, of near Grantsville, Md., was a welcome caller at THE STAR office on Monday, and while here renewed his subscription for another year. He reports that Mrs. Beachy had a strawberry patch, this season, which contained seven rows, 78 feet long, from which she gathered seventy gallons of berries. Who can beat it?

Louis Martin, aged about 26 years and a miner employed in the fire clay mines at Mt. Savage, Md., was killed on Monday afternoon by a premature explosion of a charge of dynamite that he was preparing to set off. Both eyes were blown out, his nose and ears torn off, and he was otherwise terribly injured, but he lived for two hours after the accident.—Meyersdale Republican.

Every form of distressing ailment known as Piles originates internally. The real causes of the trouble is in side. Man-Zan is put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle, so the medicine can be applied where it will do the most good, and do it quickly. If you are suffering with piles you owe yourself the duty of trying Man-Zan. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

Mr. Emanuel Statler, Rockwood's pioneer coal operator and brick manufacturer, has come down from Salisbury to assist in the operation of the Central Savage works now under the management of his son, Mr. C. E. Statler. The Central Savage is overrun with orders for the well known "Rockwood buff" variety of brick, and the demand is increasing. It will require all of "Dad's" well known ability to prevent a hopeless congestion of orders at the plant.—Rockwood Leader.

No one would buy a sailboat with sails that could not be reefed. There is always that possibility of a little too much wind that makes cautious man afraid to go unprovided. The thinking man, whose stomach sometimes goes back on him, provides for his stomach by keeping a bottle of Kodol For Dyspepsia within reach. Kodol digests what you eat and restores the stomach. Sold by E. H. Miller. 9-1

Farmers' institutes will be held in every county of Pennsylvania under direction of the State Department of Agriculture during the season of 1906-1907. These institutes will be in charge of Deputy Secretary of Agriculture Martin. Three lecturers will be furnished by the department for each of the institutes without any cost to the local management. Those for Somerset county will be held as follows: Boswell, December 17, 18; Somerset, December 19, 20; Meyersdale, December 21, 22. Jacob S. Miller, Friedens, chairman.

You can see the poison Pine-ules clears out of the kidneys and bladder. A single dose at bedtime will show you more poison upon rising the next morning than can be expelled from the system in any other way. Pine-ules dissolve the impurities, lubricate the kidneys, cleanse the bladder, relieve pain and do away with back-ache speedily, pleasantly, permanently. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

Mrs. Elizabeth Shoemaker celebrated her 100th birthday anniversary Thursday, at her home, four miles from DuBois. Two hundred neighbors and friends were present. Mrs. Shoemaker is remarkably strong for a person 100 years old. She lives with her son, aged 67 years, on a farm, and does her own housework. Last week she walked a mile to visit a friend. She has not been sick in years. Thursday in response to addresses of congratulations she spoke for ten minutes, telling of many incidents of her home when the country round about was a wilderness. Mrs. Shoemaker does not use spectacles, can hear as well as ever, has most of her teeth and has none of the infirmities usual with those who have lived a century.—Ex.

Conductor Ira McDowell, of the Pittsburgh, Westmoreland & Somerset railroad is not kept so busy collecting fares on the passenger train running between here and Ligonier that he cannot stop to kill a rattle snake or two now and then. While the train was coasting down the steep grade on the western slope of the mountain Tuesday morning McDowell espied a rattler stretched out along side of the track. Leaping from the train he killed the reptile and was about to remount when he caught sight of its mate. This one was also quickly dispatched, and holding a dead rattle snake in each hand McDowell chased his train for more than a mile before he overtook it. The snakes had eight rattles and a button each.—Somerset Herald.

A hundred years ago the best physician would give you a medicine for your heart without stopping to consider what effect it might have on the liver. Even to this good day cough and cold medicines invariably bind the bowels. This is wrong. Bee's Laxative Cough Syrup with Honey and Tar acts on the bowels—drives out the cold—clears the head, relieves all coughs, cleanses and strengthens the mucous membranes of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

Charles Harden, of Frostburg, Md., his wife, and their three months old child are now confined in the Allegany county jail as a result of the arrest of the husband on a warrant sworn out by the wife charging him with non-support. At the hearing Harden was committed for the action of the October court. Mrs. Harden was required to give bond for her appearance as a witness, and being unable to do so was committed to jail with her husband, taking her baby along with her.

Four Fatalities at Boswell.

Three men, foreigners, were killed within a few hours Friday in the Merchants' Coal Company's mines at Boswell, Somerset county. One was caught between cars and badly crushed, and the other two were killed by a fall of slate. The funerals at Boswell on Sunday were accompanied by much display and pageantry, a brass band heading the funeral cortege.

A young child, a member of one of the foreign families residing at Boswell was drowned in the swollen waters of the Quemahoning creek Saturday.—Somerset Democrat.

Crushed in a Mine.

While at work in a room in mine No. 33 of the Berwind-White Company, on Monday, Lemon Statler, of Windber, a boy about 15 years of age, was fatally injured. The lad was caught between two cars and badly crushed.

Mine No. 33 is located near Rummel. The boy was immediately taken to the Windber hospital, but no sooner had he been admitted to the institution than he died. His father and mother live near Rummel. He is one of a large family. His mother was almost prostrated when she heard of the boy's death.—Somerset Standard.

GALVESTON'S SEA WALL makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher uplands. E. W. Goodloe, who resides on Dutton St., in Waco, Tex., needs no sea wall for safety. He writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption the past five years and it keeps me well and safe. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now it's gone." Cures chronic Coughs, La Grippe, Croup, Whooping Cough and prevents Pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at E. H. Miller's drug store. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. 9-1

LEGS CUT OFF.

And Loss of Blood and Shock Caused Death of Harry Ringler.

While mowing grass in his meadow east of Addison, Tuesday afternoon, Harry Ringler had a fainting spell and fell off the mower and in front of the cutter bar, and both his legs were hacked completely off, one above the ankle joint and the other below the knee.

Persons ran to his assistance at once, and medical attention was summoned, but owing to the great loss of blood and the severe shock there was no hope for him and he lived only six hours after the accident.

The Ringler family have met with many misfortunes lately. Only about three weeks ago Mr. Ringler lost his wife and two children by typhoid fever, and there are now left three small orphan children. Mr. Ringler was about 42 years of age, and a substantial and highly respected citizen.—Somerset Herald.

May Divide Meyersdale.

Upon the petition of a number of Meyersdale voters for an order from Court providing that borough for election purposes, Judge Kooser has appointed William P. Meyers, Simon Martenev and Jacob W. Peek, commissioners, to examine the conditions and make a report to the court at the next term of Quarter Sessions. If the commissioners determine that the district should be divided they are to make a plot or draft of any proposed new election district, unless the division recommended can be described by natural boundaries. The last assessment shows that the town has eight hundred and twenty-nine voters—too many for a single precinct.—Somerset Standard.

Gov. Thomas' House Burns.

The old homestead on what is known as the Governor Frank Thomas farm, near Frankville, Garrett county, was entirely consumed by fire on a recent night. The blaze was undoubtedly of incendiary origin as the property was unoccupied and was undergoing repairs at the time. The house, constructed back in the sixties, was a queer but attractive looking building, of many gables, wide verandas and large, airy rooms. Governor Thomas added many improvements to the place in the shape of outbuildings after his return as U. S. minister to Peru under the Grant administration and occupied the property up to the time of his untimely death in 1875. He was killed by a Baltimore & Ohio train. The farm belongs to John Gleason, of Piedmont.—Garrett Journal.

IN SUMMER.

Why does the sun burn? Why does a mosquito sting? Why do we feel unhappy in the Good Old Summer Time? Answer: we don't. We use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, and these little ills don't bother us. Learn to look for the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. on the box, to get the genuine. Should be kept handy. Sold by E. H. Miller. 9-1

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

A Worthy Old Lady Honored.

Mrs. Catharine Blough, wife of the late Rev. Henry Blough, and mother of our fellow townsman Jacob Blough, reached the ripe age of 80 years on Tuesday of last week. The occasion was fittingly celebrated at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jacob M. Kaufman, who resides near Davidsville, this county, and with whom the venerable Mrs. Blough now has her home. The following named relatives and other persons participated in the anniversary celebration: Children: Harvey, Jacob, Elias, Ephraim and William Blough, and Carrie, the wife of Jacob M. Kaufman. Grandchildren: Lloyd, Morris, Norbert, Omar, Orpha, Clemens, Stella, Minton, Clinton, Charles, Earl, Floyd and Bruce Blough, Vinnie Kaufman and Mrs. Lulu Arnold. Other friends: Mrs. Harvey Blough, Mrs. Elias Blough, Mrs. Jacob Blough, Jacob M. Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Shetler, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac S. Kaufman, Mrs. Lizzie Kaufman, Mrs. David Weaver, Mrs. Hiram Blough, Amos Kaufman, Harry Kaufman, Mrs. Mary Berkey, Mrs. Simon Layman, Sylvester Blough, Leroy Blough, Roy Weaver and Goldie Shetler. The occasion was a most enjoyable one, and Grandma Blough was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents. THE STAR wishes the good old lady a goodly number of other days just as happy as the one on which her 80th birthday anniversary was celebrated.

All Moonshine.

Moonshine whiskey has been drifting into Ohio and Confluence lately, but the source has long been a mystery. Some wise revenue officers are said to have made a thorough search for the secret still, but with little success. These "revenuers," as they are known by mountain folk, pretended to have a superior knowledge of the matter, but the fiery stuff continued to find its way into both towns after the government men had left. It remained for a force of Wabash surveyors to clear up the mystery. While working about Confluence they heard tales of the mysterious still, but thought some of the natives were romancing. It is said, however, that one of the party became slightly acquainted with the illicit booze. A few days ago while running lines in the neighborhood of Bidwell, between Confluence and Ohio, a party of the engineers located a spring. While still in the neighborhood they unearthed the missing still. Some moonshine whiskey was also located, but the moonshiner was missing. No signs of him have been discovered.—Connellsville Courier.

The New Court-house.

It now seems to be a certainty that the court-house contractors will not have the new building far enough advanced to hold the September term of Court in it, as announced several weeks ago. They are, however, pushing the work as rapidly as possible, and some of the delay is caused by the fact that changes have been made and other work added that was not included in the original contract. The hundreds of visitors who inspect the building weekly are loud in their praise of it, and as a rule all are patiently waiting for the finishing touches.—Somerset Standard.

HAVE YOU A WANT?—If so, try a small "ad" in THE STAR. Many wants can and are promptly supplied if advertised in this paper. tf
