Every part of town is patrolled by the solders and the authorities seem to have the situation well in hand.

This condition came as the result of numerous and repeated attacks or attempted attacks, upon white women by negroes. The list of an even dozen of such attacks within the limits of Fulton county, within the last nine weeks, when four attempts at such crimes were reported. Flaring headlines in the special editions of afternoon papers wrought the populace to a high pitch of excitement.

The usual Saturday night crowds were largely increased by men and boys who thronged the downtown streets. There was no leader and no overt act until late in the evening. About 10 o'clock a negro shoved a white woman from the sidewalk on Whitehall street, in the center of town. Almost simultaneously a negress made an insulting remark to a white man on an adjoining street, and he administered what he considered due punishment. From this start the mob began its work of destruction.

Five thousand men and boys thronged the downtown streets looking for negroes. News that a rich had started brought thousands more from their homes in the suburbs and residence districts, until fully ten thousand men thronged the downtown section. They made attacks on the incoming street cars. Each car was scanned for negroes.
