

Republican Campaign Text-Book.

A departure has been made in the Republican Campaign Text-Book just issued, in that its contents are wholly devoted to live issues, and these are treated in the briefest possible way, yet comprehensively enough to include all necessary facts and figures.

First, there is a general statement of the issues of 1906, followed by a brief review of Republican legislation in general and the work of the Fifty-ninth Congress in particular. The Railroad Rate Law, Pure Food Law, Free Alcohol Law, Employers' Liability Law and the Meat Inspection portion of the Agricultural Appropriation Law are given in full, as is Chairman Tawney's clear explanation of the appropriations.

The Labor question is next fully presented, followed by Representative Watson's exposition of Anti-Trust proceedings. About one hundred pages are given to the Tariff, Agriculture and Manufactures, and the tables showing the various phases of industrial activity. Among other subjects treated under the tariff are:

- Protection and Free Trade;
- Customs Revenue;
- Home Market and Internal Trade;
- Wages and Prices;
- Export Discounts;
- Reciprocity;
- Free Hides;
- Revision, etc., etc., etc.

Some half hundred tables give official and authoritative figures down to the latest possible date. The work of the President and administration is then briefly presented, the condition and status of the Philippines, the Panama Canal, the Navy, Postal Service, Irrigation, etc., etc.

The President's letter to Representative Watson concludes the work, which has a copious index of over a dozen pages.

Scattered throughout the book are quotations from President Roosevelt and other Republican leaders. Among these is the extract from Senator Hanna's speech where he used the "stand pat" expression, it being the only instance in the Text-Book where the words "stand pat" are used. A page is given to Mr. Bryan and his views, with the comments of the New York World. A so-called "Prosperity Postscript" is added, giving treasury conditions, trade reports, etc., down to August 1.

For the first time in a political campaign, the Text-Book will have a general circulation, as together with other literature, it will be sent on receipt of one dollar by John C. Eversman, Assistant Treasurer, 1133 Broadway, New York.

Mrs. Pearl Mary Teresa Craigie, the novelist and playwright, better known under the pen name John Oliver Hobbes, died in London unexpectedly the other day from heart disease. The deceased was born November 3, 1857, the eldest daughter of John Morgan Richards. At the age of nineteen she married Reginald Walpole Craigie, of the Bengal Military Board. She was educated privately in Boston, London and Paris and showed marked literary ability early in life. She wrote a number of highly successful novels and plays.
