Karo Corn Syrup is pure as Nature can produce it, pure as the utmost cleanliness and care in preparation can make it-all pure, natural goodness.

Karo Corn Syrup brings health to your cooking and table, and supplies every wholesome craving for sweetness.

The children can eat it morning, noon and night and be the better and healthier for it. It's delicious in candy, fine on griddle cakes and good for every home use.

Put up in airtight, friction-top tins which keep it pure and good till the last drop.

At all grocers-10 cents, 25 cents, 50 cents. The Syrup of Purity and Wholesomeness:

There are many sorts of liminents and pain removers on the mark-et, and most of them are really good. We make one of our own-we know what is in it—we know it does the work. It will help almost any kind of pain, from a plain bruise to a fairly active rheumatic ache. Just rub it in vigorously, and you rub the pain out at the same time

It is quite generally supposed that Pennsylvania leads all the other states in the production of petroleum, but such is no longer the case. For a long time Pennsylvania produced more oil than all other states combined, but for quantity of petroleum, California now ranks first, Texas second and Ohio third. The Western oil, however, is not of as good quality as that produced ranks first, Texas second and Ohio third. The Western oil, however, is not of as good quality as that produced by the Eastern states, and whon it comes to value of product, Ohio stands first, West Virginia second and Penn-sylvania third, while California drops first, West Virginia second and Penn-sylvania third, while California drops to fifth place

A Fusion Flutch at Rockwood.

The Fusion mass meeting held in Wolf's hall, Saturday evening, was as successful as anticipated. Exactly 67 persons gathered there to hear the Democratic and Lincoln speakers present their side of the case. Of these 67, 14 were minors and 23 were avowed straight Republicans. The meeting was presided over by N.S. Baker, who the national league. was secretary of the regular Republican rally held just a week earlier. On the stage beside the speakers were J. A. Phillippi, Zach Snyder, J. C. McSpadden, H. Snyder and John Wilkins. Attorney Charles W. Walker, of Som-erset, ras the first speaker. He dwelt entirely on the new capitol issue. Valentine Hay was the next speaker, and although he said some things which deserved applause, he is so well known here that his words were wasted. W. H. Koontz then made his usual flowery speech, and told of how near he was
