

For Sprains and Bruises.

Somewhere around the house is pretty sure to get a bump or a knock every day, and quick comfort comes to those who are wise enough to have a bottle of our Nerve and Bone Liniment handy. There are many sorts of liniments and pain removers on the market, and most of them are really good. We make one of our own—we know what is in it—we know it does the work. It will help almost any kind of pain, from a plain bruise to a fairly active rheumatic ache. Just rub it in vigorously, and you rub the pain out at the same time.

Indigestion Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as certain diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else. It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

Home Circle Department. A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers (As They Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide).

Don't forget that the patient little woman you call your wife was once your sweetheart. A caress now and then, or a tender word costs so little and means so much to the woman of your choice.

Many a person goes down in defeat under life's burden, unhelped, uncheered, and when the eyes are closed and the hands folded, then comes, too late, love enough to have turned the battle and given victory.

If you will try as hard to win your boy's love as you at one time did to win his mother's, you will attain to a position of influence in his heart which will enable you to direct the current of his entire life into proper channels.

Much depends upon a cheerful start for the day. The man who leaves home with a scowl on his brow, and a snap at his children, and a tart speech to his wife instead of a kiss, is not likely to be pleasant company for anybody during the day; he will probably come home with the temper of a porcupine.

Another Thanksgiving is here. Another year with its many changes has quickly flitted by, and oh, the changes it has wrought! We think of many, many homes about us, and the vacant chairs occupied by loved ones a year ago. Many hearts will be heavy today, and eyes red with weeping. A world of changes and uncertainties. Let your hearts be kind today, let your words be soft and tender. Be happy while you may, make others happy while you can, and may this Thanksgiving Day be fraught with blessings rich for you, dear reader, even though you may wear the mantle of sorrow.

One day at a time conscientiously lived up to will keep the eyes bright and the cheeks round and rosy. Don't begin to worry about things, days beforehand. It will be time enough when they happen. It is the dread of what may come, not what it is, that makes one old before the time. If you lie awake half the night worrying about something that is going to occur the next morning, you will be far less able to face bravely and work out the problem than if you had made an effort and thought of something else till sleep came. It is not half as hard as it sounds, and will grow easier every time you try it. Perhaps after all the disaster will not befall you, or will be less awful than you anticipated, and just think what a lot of unnecessary wrinkles you have worried into your face.

There are more young men in the penitentiaries in this country learning trades than there are outside of them learning trades. The principal cause of this is that we are educating our young men for idle gentlemen, trying to make lawyers, preachers, doctors and clerks out of material that is needed for blacksmiths, carpenters, merchants, and other honest "hewers of wood and drawers of water." It is a mistake, and a big one, to teach boys and girls to believe that labor is disgraceful, and to do nothing for a living is more becoming to society. Hang such society! It is rotten to the core and is ruining our country; and there are sons and daughters who are now being educated to play the "leading lady" and "walking gentleman" in the great drama of life, who will light out for the poor house or the penitentiary before the curtain drops on the last sad act of the play to which they have been educated by their too indulgent parents.

SOMETHING FOR BOYS. Many people seem to forget that character grows; that it is not something to put on, ready made, with womanhood or manhood; but day by day, here a little and there a little, grows with the growth and strengthens with the strength, until good or bad, it becomes almost a coat of mail. Look at a man of business—prompt, reliable, conscientious, yet clear-headed and energetic. When do you suppose he developed all these admirable qualities? When he was a boy? Let us see the way in which a boy of ten years gets up in the morning, works, plays, studies, and we will tell you just what kind of a man he will make. The boy who is late at school stands a poor chance to be a prompt man. The boy who neglects his duties, be they ever so small, and then excuses himself by saying, "I forgot; I didn't think," will never be a reliable man. And the boy who finds pleasure in the sufferings of weaker things will never be a noble, generous, kindly man—a gentleman.

IS MARRIAGE A FAILURE. Is the sun a failure because some persons experience "sun stroke"? Is the ocean a failure because some are so unfortunate as to sink in water? Is sweet, fresh water a failure because some are drowned in it? Is fire a failure because it sometimes causes loss and suffering? Is commerce a failure because all do not succeed in it? Are railroads a failure because accidents occur? Is the atmosphere a failure because of wind storms? Is human society a failure because of a few evils in it? Is education a failure because some do not turn knowledge to good account? Are all human relations failures because all find not perfect happiness in them? Questions like the foregoing could be continued indefinitely, but it is very evident marriage is no more a failure than any of the things above mentioned. What would human beings become without the homes that marriage brings? They would sink far below the brutes. Unworthy, bad people may themselves be failures in marriage, or worse out of marriage, but marriage itself is a success.

HOW IS YOUR SCHOOL? Your school, of course, is progressing, but we fear with many it is only a matter "of course." You hear the bell ring at nine in the morning, you know your children are not on the ramparts at home, turning things topsyturvy all the day, but outside of this we fear your personal knowledge is very lame. Now there should be daily watchfulness and care on the part of the parents. Inquiries should be made of scholars, of their progress, and an active interest taken in their advancement. Occasional visits should be made to the school room by every parent. Communication should be frequent with the teacher in regard to the child. In every possible avenue the parent should exhibit a real interest in the school, standing and progress of the child. The knowledge of such interest will put the child on his guard and mettle and spur him on to greater exertion. The gist of the matter is, if you would have your schools what they ought to be and what you desire they should be, you should have no less interest than the teacher or scholar, no more think of losing this interest than they, from the time the school opens in the fall until it closes in the spring or summer.

NO QUESTION ABOUT IT. PEPISKOLA MUST CURE INDIGESTION. IT IS FREE. E. H. Miller, Elk Lick, continues to sell people with the understanding; must positively cure dyspepsia and indigestion or it will not cost a penny. Experience has proven that Pepsikola Tablets cure dyspepsia in forty-nine cases out of fifty. That is a remarkable statement, but the facts in the case easily be verified.

There is every reason to have confidence, for Mr. Miller will hand back your 25 cents without hesitation should you fail of being cured. All kinds of food can be eaten freely—it is more easily digested, there is no fullness or distress after eating, and aiding the stomach to assimilate an digest, Pepsikola Tablets make morbid, red blood to strengthen the body. They are just the thing if you feel run down, nervous, tired and debilitated and need something to give you new life and new energy.

Don't hesitate a minute, but go right to Mr. Miller and try Pepsikola Tablets, with the understanding that you must be decidedly benefited or the cost is nothing. 12-1

The youthful orator came down from the platform at the close of his address, and many people pressed forward to shake him by the hand. He accepted their congratulations with a smiling face, but his eyes were on a certain auditor who lingered in his seat. The lecturer pressed through the throng about him and extended his hand to the waiting man. "I want to thank you," he said, "for the close attention you gave to my remarks. Your upturned face was an inspiration to me. I am sure you never changed your earnest attitude during my lecture. "No," said the man, "I have a stiff neck."

Competition between our two hach lines still continues to be fierce. La-Monday Frank Wagner and Ed. Tedrow got into an encounter over son passengers that both were after Meyersdale, and while they were "scrapping," both were arrested by Meyersdale policeman. The affair cost them $5.00 apiece, and it now appears that C. W. Statler, the mail contractor whose employ Tedrow is, has decided to take Wagner into court. The matter should be dropped, friends and neighbors, and neither of you will have anything to gain by going to law. The prosecutor will withdraw the suit he will make friends by doing so.

A merciful man is merciful to his beasts. We like to see our farmer when they drive into town on a cold stormy day, put their teams in a barn or cover them with blankets. In the heat of summer they can always find shade in which to leave the animals that brought them safely to town. There are many, however, who on cold days will rush for a stove themselves and leave their horses in the storm, while in the heat of summer they see the shade and leave their horses in the sun. There is something wrong about the man who thus abuses his team. He may be a good man, may belong to the church, may not swear, smoke or have many bad habits, but we would not care to be his horse.
