Cough
keep you awake?

Our White Pine Cough Balsam with tar touches the tickle. It is very unwise to let it run on. Many times a cough is nothing more than a slight cold, and can be stopped by the use of our Pine Balsam.

This is just the season of the year when the cool, blustering wind and nipping air are making coughs and colds pretty fast. If you are one of the victims, you need something, and we have that something. We are pretty positive about that.

Once tried, always used. We also handle a good line of Every-Day Working Trousers and Gloves. We solicit your patronage and invite you to our store. We have come to stay, and we solicit a liberal share of your patronage.

West Salisbury Feed Co.

No. 21 McWhorter Hand Fertilizer Distributer

It distributes the fertilizer in a furrow, beside the growing crop, as a top-dresser or as a broadcast in any way that may be desired, from a narrow stream up to a uniform spread of over two feet, without removing or adding any parts or loosening a bolt, and in any quantity from a very few pounds up to forty or more pounds to the hundred yards of row.

The fertilizer can be instantly divided into two or more streams, and thus be applied beside or on two more rows of plants at the same time.

TOP-DRESSING STRAWBERRIES.
For this work it is the ideal thing, making a beautiful and uniform spread of the fertilizer on any row of strawberries up to two and one-half feet wide. The distributor is light, yet rigid and strong, and easy and pleasant to use by man or boy.
We make all sizes of Horse Fertilizer Distributers, also Potato Planters, Bean and Peanut Planters, and Paris Green Dusters. Send for Illustrated Catalog

To Get the Skin
Thoroughly Clean

The dirt must be worked out—the skin must be kneaded like a cloth garment in the wash tub.

Pompeian Massage Cream is first rubbed into the pores loosening the imbedded dirt; then it is rubbed out, bringing the dirt with it, removing the cause of sallow, lifeless complexions, restoring healthy circulation; taking away wrinkles and animating the tissues.

For women—Pompeian Cream is a necessity. It makes the use of toilet powder unnecessary. Contains no grease, leaves no shine, and cannot induce growth of hair.

For men—it is most delightful after shaving. Takes away razor soreness and irritation.

Call for sample and book on facial massage.

Weak
Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well. If your back aches or is weak, if the urine is scanty, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can do for you. We think that with most of us our personal surroundings wield a great influence in making us happy or otherwise. We should therefore strive to make them always as pleasant as possible. So far as our means permit we should seek to adorn our homes with all that is bright and pleasant. We are all familiar with the boarding house advertisements which promise "all the comforts of home" for a few dollars per week, and though such advertisements are always sadly delusive, yet they are the strongest possible tribute to the fact that civilized man's highest ideal of happiness is in the life of the home.

The secret of success in life is to keep busy, to be persevering, patient and untiring in the pursuit or calling you are following. The busy ones may now and then make mistakes, but it is better to risk these than to be idle and inactive. Keep doing, whether it be work or recreation. Motion is life, and the busiest are the happiest. Cheerful, active labor is a blessing. An old philosopher says: "The firefly only shines on the wing." So it is with the mind; when once we rest, we darken.

Ask yourself hard questions about yourself, find out all you can about yourself. Ascertain from original sources if you are really the manner of man you say you are; if you are always honest; if you always tell the square, perfect truth in business deals; if your life is as good and upright at eleven o'clock at night as it is at noon; if you are as good a temperance man on fishing excursions as you are at a Sunday school picnic; if you are as good when you go out to the city as when you are at home; if, in short, you are the sort of a man your father hopes you are and your sweetheart believes you to be.

REAL HOMES.

There are husbands and wives whose love is so deep that each cares only to have what will do best for the other and for their children. These men and women belong to no particular class, they are to be found among the highly educated and luxurious classes, in the great middle classes and among the laboring people. Such folks are honest in their affections, honest with each other and honest with the world. Their homes are not places for show, but what the name implies—places of rest, happiness and inspiration of good work. These homes may consist of only two or three rooms or may be palaces, yet the influence is always good. It is always such homes that make the world sweeter and better, and experience shows us that they are common in our country.

The chief cause of unhappiness in life is discontent. It is a peculiar foible in human nature seldom or never to be satisfied with our own lot, and to be always envying that of some one else, entirely losing sight of the fact that no one can escape trouble, no matter what line of life he may adopt, and that no matter how bad his lot may seem he can always find many whose situations are infinitely worse.

THE MAN WHO LAUGHS.

The man whose "ha ha!" reaches from one end of the street to the other may be the same fellow who scolds his wife and spanked his baby before he got his breakfast, but his laughter is only the crackle of thorns under the pot. The man who spreads his laughter through his life—before late breakfast, when he misses the train, when his wife goes visiting, and he has to eat a cold supper; the man who can laugh when he finds a button off his shirt, when the furnace fire goes out in the night and both of the twins come down with the measles at the same time—he is the man that's needed.

He never tells his neighbor to have faith. Somehow he puts faith into him. He delivers no homilies; the sight of his beaming face, the sound of his happy voice, and the sight of his blessed daily life, carry conviction that words have no power to give. The blues flee before him as the fog before the west wind. He comes into his own home like a flood of sunshine over a meadow of blooming buttercups, and his wife and children blossom in his presence like June roses. His home is redolent with sympathy and love. The neighborhood is better for his life, and somebody will learn of him that laughter is better than tears.

The world needs this man. Why are there so few like him? Can he be created? Can he be evolved? Why is he not in every house, turning rain into shine and winter into summer all the year round until life is a perpetual season?

HUSBAND AND WIFE.

Of the union of husband and wife, which is the most intimate and confidential relationship on earth, there must be something more than superficial admiration, one for the other. These two have pledged to one another a lifelong consecration. Their interests are to be in common. Nothing can affect one without equally affecting the other. For weal or woe they have joined hands, and to the whole outside world they present a united front.

And yet if testimony should be taken, it would be found that many married people have not been perfectly happy during the years of wedlock. There has been friction. There has been disappointment. The little rift has been suffered to open the way for estrangement.

"We decided," said a man whose long life has been singularly tranquil and satisfactory—"we decided, my wife and I, when we were married, that we should never let the sun go down on any lack of peace between us. We would ask one another's pardon if necessary, but we would never quarrel. One or the other should always give up a point on which both could not agree, and whatever else came to us, we resolved to have no discord."

Lend a helping hand. If a man is unfortunate, try to lift him up. The people who knew this or that was going to happen, the "I told you so" people, are a detriment to the community. If they would always say a good word instead of a discouraging one, how much better things would be.

WHEN A MAN TELLS YOU it does not pay to advertise, he is simply admitting that he is conducting a business that is not worth advertising, a business conducted by a man unfit to do business, and a business which should be advertised for sale. 1t

Interesting Watch Meeting.

On the last day of the old year a goodly number of our people assembled in the Brethren church, at 9 o'clock p. m., where a watch meeting was held until the new year was ushered in.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U., and a very interesting program, consisting of songs, recitations, addresses, etc., was rendered.

Mrs. Annie Emerick presided over the meeting, and appropriate addresses were made by Revs. H. S. May, L. F. Young and L. Z. Robinson, also by Mrs. Jones, county president of the W. C. T. U., and by Mr. Green, a school teacher of Garrett county, Md.

The program was very interesting, and appropriate, and the meeting was greatly enjoyed by all. One of the most pleasing features of the entire program consisted of some pretty song-sung by the little folks.

THE RIGHT NAME.

Mr. August Sherpe, the popular overseer of the poor, at Fort Madison, Ia., says: "Dr. King's New Life Pills are rightly named; they act more agreeably, do more good and make one feel better than any other laxative." Guaranteed to cure biliousness and constipation. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store. 2-1

A Panther Scare.

Yesterday morning about 8 o'clock while Silas Durst and another man were plowing in a field near the artisan well, up Meadow run, their horses became badly frightened by the screaming noise of some wild beast in the woods just outside of the field. The horses refused to proceed any farther toward the woods, and while the men could not see the animal for the dense fog and the underbrush, they could nevertheless tell by the blood-curdling noises that a fierce wild animal was not far away.

Mr. Durst has heard many a wildcat squall, but he says in this instance the growler of the jungle was not a wildcat. Old hunters like Alfred and Silas Wagner are of the opinion that the animal was without doubt a panther, judging from Mr. Durst's description of the various noises it made.

The locality spoken of is about 1 1/2 miles southeast of Salisbury, near the foot of Meadow Mountain, where panthers have been frequently seen and heard during years that are past.

The next time Mr. Durst goes out plowing on that portion of his farm he will doubtless take a pocket cannon or a battle ship with him.

New Year Reflections.

Start right.
Continue right.
Wind up the year right.
Resolve, and stick to it.
Avoid past errors and mistakes.
Profit by your follies, and be wiser.
Be stable in your ways, strong in the right.

Rebuke wrong, turn from sin, cling to the good.
If you stumble, get up; if you fall, don't give up.
Attempt something, have a purpose, persevere.

Speak kind words often, harsh ones very seldom.
If you blunder, let it be on the side of right, rather than wrong.

Don't scowl, don't frown, but wreath your face in smiles.
Don't drown yourself in doubt, buoy up your life with hope.

Be good-natured at home, good-natured abroad, and you'll live long and enjoy it.
Be cautious in judging, great in forbearance, accuse little, forgive much.

Accept our reflections, take this paper, read it carefully, send it to your friends, and may your New Year be happy, and all the year pleasant.

IF YOUR BUSINESS will not stand advertising, advertise it for sale. You cannot afford to follow a business that will not stand advertising.
