Cough keep you awake?

Our White Pine Cough Balsam with tar touches the tickle. It is very unwise to let it run on. Many times a cough is nothing more than a slight cold, and can be stopped by the use of our Pine Balsam.

This is just the season of the year when the cool, blustering wind and nipping air are making coughs and colds pretty fast. If you are one of the victims, you need something, and we have that something. We are pretty positive about that.

Home Circle Department. A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

The fool destroys his own health while drinking to the health of others.

GOOD WORDS FOR GIRLS. Your mother is your best friend. Have nothing to do with girls who snub their parents.

Tell the pleasantest things you know when at meals. Do not expect your brother to be as dainty as a girl.

Exercise, and never try to look as if you were delicate in health. Introduce every new acquaintance to your mother as soon as possible.

Don't think it necessary to get married. There is plenty of room for old maids, and they are often happier than wives.

Never think you can afford to be dowdy at home. Cleanliness, hair well dressed, and a smile will make calico look like silk in the eyes of a father or brother.

Do not quarrel with your brother, do not preach to him and do not coddle him. Make him your friend, and do not expect him to be your servant, nor let him expect you to be his.

Don't call your mother "old woman." We often hear that from young men. Stop and think how it sounds. "Old lady" is bad enough, but the "old woman" applied to her who gave you life and nursed your infancy, is rude and unkind.

APPRECIATION. At a marriage anniversary an appreciative husband thus addressed his wife: "To you, my wife—as I review the past I am reminded that through all these years you have been a true, faithful and loving mother, ever ready with a word of encouragement in the darkest hours, always willing to bear more than your share of life's burdens, making many sacrifices for my own and our children's happiness and comfort, and I feel that surrounded by the perplexities and vexations of a busy life I may have failed to show to you my appreciation of your many virtues."

Boys, when you speak of your father, don't call him "the old man." Of course, you are older now than when you were taught to call him father. You are much smarter than you were then, you are much more manly looking, your clothes fit you better, your hair is combed differently. Your father has a last year's coat, a two-year-old hat and a vest of still older pattern. He can't write such an elegant note as you can, and all that, but don't call him "the old man." Call him father. For years he has been rustling around to get things together, he has been held to the thorny path of uphill industry, and the brightest half of life has gone from him forever. But he loves you, though he goes along without saying much about it.

HAPPINESS.

If you would increase your happiness and prolong your life, forget your neighbor's faults. Forget the temptations. Forget the fault-finding, and give little thought to the cause that provoked it. Forget the peculiarities of your friends, and only remember the good points that make you fond of them. Forget all personal quarrels. Obliterate everything disagreeable from yesterday; start out with a clean sheet for today, and write upon it for sweet memory's sake only those things that are lovely and lovable.

SOMETHING FOR BOYS.

Many people seem to forget that character grows; that it is not something to put on ready-made, with womanhood or manhood; but day by day, here a little and there a little, grows with the growth and strengthens with the strength, until, good or bad, it becomes almost a coat of mail.

Look at a man of business—prompt, reliable, conscientious, yet clear-headed and energetic. When do you suppose he developed all the admirable qualities? When he was a boy.

Let us see the way in which a boy of ten gets up in the morning, works, plays, studies, and we will tell you just what kind of a man he will make. The boy who is late to school stands a poor chance to be a prompt man. The boy who neglects his duties, be they ever so small, and then excuses himself by saying:—

"I forgot; I didn't think," will never be a reliable man. And the boy who finds pleasure in the sufferings of weaker things will never be a noble, generous, kindly man—a gentleman.

If you are Constipated, dull, or bilious, or have a sallow lifeless complexion, try Lax-ets just once to see what they will do for you. Lax-ets are little toothsome Candy tablets—nice to eat, nice in effect. No griping, no pain. Just a gentle laxative effect that is pleasingly desirable. Handy for the vest pocket or purse. Lax-ets meet every desire. Lax-ets come to you in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy.

W. C. T. U. Meeting. The Ladies of the W. C. T. U. wish to announce their meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. H. C. Shaw, Monday evening, Jan. 14th, at 7:30. All are cordially invited to attend.

RHODA RAYMAN, Secretary.

Court House Appointments. The County Commissioners left yesterday for Pittsburg on business incidental to the new court house, and for that reason postponed making the annual elections of the board. There will be few changes, but there has been a contest for janitor and fireman, whose duties will be increased when the new court house is occupied. It is said that Howard M. Wright has been practically agreed upon as janitor, vice Daniel Treutle, of Somersfield.—Somerset Standard.

Died of Diphtheria. James, a 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Easton, died of diphtheria, Tuesday forenoon, after an illness of only a few days.

The deceased was an unusually bright and affectionate child, and his death is a severe blow to the parents and other members of the family.

The funeral took place this forenoon at 10 o'clock, Rev. S. M. Cousins, of the United Evangelical church, officiating. Mr. Easton was not at home when death claimed the little sufferer, but was in Franklin county, Pa., where he is employed by the Ingersoll-Rand Drill Company. A message was sent to him early on Tuesday, informing him of the serious illness of his child, and upon its receipt he promptly started for home, but the beloved child had passed to the great beyond before he arrived here.

The death of the child is doubly sad to the bereaved father, who is a man passionately fond of his children, but cannot enjoy their company as much as he would like, owing to his employment being far from his home. His home-coming was always a source of much pleasure to himself and family, but in this instance it is sad beyond expression, and our hearts go out in sympathy to the bereaved, and we share in their heavy grief.

CURED OF LUNG TROUBLE. "It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at E. H. Miller's drug store. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

WINTER PRIMARIES. The Republican Primary elections or caucuses for borough and township nominations must be held not later than January 26th. Certificates of nomination must be on file in the office of the County Commissioners not later than January 26th.

N. B. McGRUFF, County Chairman.

AN INTERESTING TREATMENT. E. H. MILLER SAYS HE HAS AT LAST DISCOVERED A POSITIVE CURE FOR INDIGESTION.

"For years," said the above druggist, "I have been waiting for some one to discover a remedy that really will cure dyspepsia."

"I recently learned that a new remedy, Pepsikola Tablets, had been placed on the market, and on investigation I found that at last there is a remedy that surely will cure."

"I laid in a big supply because I knew that as soon as the people began to know about this remarkable remedy there would be a big demand for it, and it is selling beyond my expectations."

"It is not often a druggist sells a new remedy on a positive guarantee, but unless cured of nervousness, dizzy spells, sour stomach, coated tongue, palpitation and other symptoms of dyspepsia, Mr. Miller will hand back your money cheerfully and without argument."

No one should hesitate on trying a 25-cent box of Pepsikola Tablets, as they will not cost you a penny should they fail to relieve and cure the very worst case of indigestion and dyspepsia.

Printing Office Hints. Never send articles for publication without giving thy name, for thy name often secures publication of a worthless article.

Thou shouldst not rap at the door of a printing office, for he that heareth thee rap sneereth in his sleeves and looeth thee.

Thou shouldst never read the copy on the printer's case or sharp and hooked container thereof, or he may knock thee down.

Never inquire of the editor the news, for behold it is his business to give it to thee at the appointed time without asking for it.

It is not right that thou shouldst ask him who is the author of an article, for it is his duty to keep such things to himself.

When thou dost enter his office, take heed of thyself that thou dost not look at what may concern thee not, for that is not meet in the sight of good breeding.

Neither examine thou the proof-sheet, for it is not ready to meet thine eye, that thou mayest understand.

Prefer thine own town paper to any other, and if thou hast not done so, subscribe for it immediately, pay for it in advance, and it will be well with thee and thine.

WISDOM FROM THE SOUTH. "I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking a few more bottles, I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at E. H. Miller's drug store. Price 50c.

WINTER PRIMARIES. The Republican Primary elections or caucuses for borough and township nominations must be held not later than January 26th. Certificates of nomination must be on file in the office of the County Commissioners not later than January 26th.
