

Home Circle Department.

A good book and a good woman are excellent things for those who know how to appreciate their value. There are men, however, who judge of both from the beauty of their covering.

The quotation: "If you have flowers for me, scatter them in my pathway while I live, that I may enjoy their beauty and inhale their fragrance," contains a beautiful sentiment, and certain it is that we are apt to forget the living, and keep our affections pent up to be poured out only after death for those that have gone we can do nothing, but for the living we can do much.

Girls, don't flirt and get acquainted with young men your parents know nothing about. Do not sit in the parlor making worsted dogs and all such rash, while your dear mother goes rotting around the house all day with the help of one girl to do the work of six, and going with a shabby old hat and cloak that you girls may wear silk tresses, etc. Oh, girls! When those busy hands are folded quietly over that aching heart that has ceased to beat, your hearts will ache, and you will think if mother would only come back he would be loved and petted as never before.

THAT BOY.

There are many things that he does not know. Remember that he is only a boy. You was a child once. Call to mind what you thought, and how you felt. Give that boy a chance. Keep near to him in sympathy. Be his hum. Do not make too many cast on laws. Rule with a velvet hand. Help him have a "good time." Answer his foolish questions. Be patient with his pranks. Laugh at his jokes. Sweat over his conundrums. Limber up your dignity with a game of ball or a half day's fishing. You can win his affection, and hold him steady in the path that leads higher up. That boy has a soul, and a destiny reaching high above the mountain peaks. He is worth a million times his weight in gold, if you do right by him.

COURTESIES.

Much of the pleasure of social intercourse depends upon a strict observance of the little courtesies and amenities of life. Too many save their sweetest smiles and choicest words and dearest attentions for strangers, while their friends are put off with the most meager crumbs of consideration and politeness.

This is nothing but a miserable piece of acting, and whoever assumes the role is bound to be found out sooner or later. It is in the home that all that is best in life should be diffused. There should be kindness, forbearance, gentle manners and loving forethought. Not only to strangers, but to the near and dear ones should the treasures of life be distributed. Then when one goes out into the world he is his own natural self. When he does a noble deed, or lives to others an elevating thought, he utters an expression to a nature ennobled by the cultivation of the pure and good and true.

Depend upon it that there is habit in manners as well as in tastes and morals. One cannot be a boor at his own residence and a gentleman at his neighbor's. One cannot be a tender, charitable, sympathetic woman abroad if he is a snarling, querulous creature in her own home.

KINDNESS UNSPOKEN.

Do you know that the world is full of indignity that never was spoken? That is not much better than no kindness at all. The fuel in the stove makes the room warm, but there are piles of fallen trees lying on rocks and on top of hills where nobody can get them; these do not make anybody warm. You might freeze to death for want of wood in plain sight of these fallen trees if you had no means of getting the wood home and making a fire of it. Just so in a family; love is what makes parents and children, the brothers and sisters happy. But if they take care never to say a word about it, if they keep it a profound secret as if it were a crime, they will not be much happier than if there was not any love among them; the house will seem cold, even in summer, and if you live there you will envy the dog when you call him poor fellow.

THE RIGHT NAME.

Mr. August Sherpe, the popular overseer of the poor, at Fort Madison, Ia., says: "Dr. King's New Life Pills are rightly named; they act more agreeably, do more good and make one feel better than any other laxative." AN INTERESTING TREATMENT.

E. H. MILLER SAYS HE HAS AT LAST DISCOVERED A POSITIVE CURE FOR INDIGESTION.

"For years," said the above druggist, "I have been waiting for some one to discover a remedy that really will cure dyspepsia."

"I recently learned that a new remedy, Pepsikola Tablets, had been placed on the market, and on investigation I found that at last there is a remedy that surely will cure."

"I laid in a big supply because I knew that as soon as the people began to know about this remarkable remedy there would be a big demand for it, and it is selling beyond my expectations."

It is not often a druggist sells a new remedy on a positive guarantee, but unless cured of nervousness, dizzy spells, sour stomach, coated tongue, palpitation and other symptoms of dyspepsia, Mr. Miller will hand back your money cheerfully and without argument.

No one should hesitate on trying a 25-cent box of Pepsikola Tablets, as they will not cost you a penny should they fail to relieve and cure the very worst case of indigestion and dyspepsia.

THE JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

Buildings and Grounds Will Make an Attractive Exposition City.

NORFOLK, VA.—On the southern shores of historic Hampton Roads, eight miles from the city of Norfolk, the Jamestown Ter-Centennial Exposition is rapidly nearing completion. Every department of the work is being carried on with marvelous speed, and what was only a year ago an attractively laid out park, has become an Exhibition beautiful, with immense exhibit palaces, State and Government buildings, all under roof, and for the most part of permanent construction. The Auditorium and Convention Hall, one of the principal buildings of the Exposition, is entirely complete, and is being used temporarily for the offices of the Governor of Works, of the Exposition, and his able corps of assistants, who are carrying on the work with such credit.

The State's exhibit palace, the largest and most imposing structure on the grounds, containing more than 350,000 square feet of exhibit space, is also complete, and will be turned over by the contractors in a few days to the Exposition Company, at which time the installation of the various exhibits of the resources of the different states will begin.

The Commercial pier of the Exposition, extending out into Hampton Roads for a distance of some 2,000 feet, was finished several weeks ago, and is now being used to bring in the construction material for the many buildings now in the course of erection. The various State buildings, grouped along the water front of the Exposition, are going up with remarkable rapidity, those of Rhode Island, New Jersey and Connecticut being ready for occupancy, and those of Virginia, Maryland, Massachusetts and Ohio almost as far advanced. The many attractions of the "War Path" that will correspond with the "Pike" or "Midway" of former Expositions, presents a lively picture of activity.

Push and progress are everywhere in evidence, and the work on the grounds and general landscape design, under the careful supervision of the architects in charge, together with the advanced state of construction of the buildings, gives every assurance that the Jamestown Ter-Centennial Exposition will be completed in every detail for the opening day, April 28th, 1907.

No. 21 McWhorter Hand Fertilizer Distributer

It distributes the fertilizer in a furrow, beside the growing crop, as a top-dresser or as a broadcast in any way that may be desired, from a narrow stream up to a uniform spread of over two feet, without removing or adding any parts or loosening a bolt, and in any quantity from a very few pounds up to forty or more pounds to the hundred yards of row.

The fertilizer can be instantly divided into two or more streams, and thus be applied beside or on two rows of plants at the same time.

For this work it is the ideal thing, making a beautiful and uniform spread of the fertilizer on any row or bed of strawberries up to two and one-half feet wide. The distributor is light, yet rigid and strong, and easy and pleasant to use by man or boy.

We make all sizes of Horse Fertilizer Distributers, also Potato Planters, Bean and Peanut Planters, and Paris Green Dusters. Send for Illustrated Catalog.

"1847 Rogers Bros"

SPoons, Forks, Knives, Etc.

have been made for over fifty years, steadily gaining in character of design, finish and general popularity, but best of all, the good old "Rogers" quality has been maintained. It would be hard indeed to improve upon the wearing qualities first exhibited by this brand, and which have made "1847 Rogers Bros." the most famous of all silverware. Do not experiment by trying something that has not stood the test of time. Buy "1847" goods, which have a well-known and well-earned reputation, and you run no risk. There are other "Rogers." The original and genuine has the prefix—"1847."
