SENATOR Wm. C. Miller has introduced a bill taxing automobiles for county purposes; also abolishing work tax on roads; also fixing the compensation of supervisors at $1.50 per day. The bill is a good one and ought to pass.

THE United Mine Workers of America, as an organization, seems to be on its last legs. It has lost over one-fourth of its membership during the past year, and the amount in its treasury has dwindled from more than a million dollars to about $300,000. This state of affairs is all due to bad and unprincipled men in the organization, ill-advised and badly managed strikes.

NEWSPAPERS at Frankfort, Ind., have formed a trust, each agreeing to charge and get real money for all notices of meetings, entertainments, cards of thanks, obituary notices and resolutions of condolence. It is rapidly reaching the point where publishing a newspaper is nothing but a cold business proposition and where carefully manipulated, capital is the sole propelling agent. Every newspaper should charge advertising rates for the classes of matter here referred to.

HOW TO CURE CHILBLAINS.
"To enjoy freedom from chilblains, writes John Kemp, East Otisfield, Me., "I apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He also used it for salt rheum with excellent results." Guaranteed to cure fever sores, indolent ulcers, piles, burns, wounds, frost bites and skin diseases. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store. 2-1

Is It a Typographical Error?
Editor P. L. Livengood, of the SOMERSET COUNTY STAR, published at Elk Lick, this county, comments seriously on a paper published at Girard, Kan., and styled "Appeal to Reason." Brother Livengood is not tenderly attached to the publication, and there are not very many Somerset countians that are. Editor Livengood thinks the paper was misnamed, but after all it may have been only a typographical error. "Appeal to Treason" is likely the name intended.—Berlin Gleaner.

WISE COUNSEL FROM THE SOUTH.
"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking a few more bottles, I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at E. H. Miller's drug store. Price 50c. 2-1

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against Opium and other narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 2-1

Senator Miller and Representatives Endsley and Knepper Placed on Important Committees.
At the opening of the present session of the Legislature, Senator Wm. C. Miller was appointed to a place on committees as follows: Appropriations, Federal relations, Finance, Chairman of Law and Order, New Counties and County Seats, Public Health and Sanitation, Game and Fisheries. Representatives Knepper and Endsley were given appointments to important committees, especially those of Mines and Mining, Counties and Townships, and Public Roads, being of importance to their constituents. Mr. Endsley was assigned to the Committees on Constitutional Reform, Counties and Townships, Pensions and Gratuities, Public Roads, Mines and Mining. Representative Knepper to Congressional Apportionment, Insurance, Mines and Mining, Retrenchment and Reform.

BOROUGH NOMINATIONS.

Last Friday evening Republican Committeeman Daniel Livengood presided over a caucus held in Hay's opera house, at which time and place the following nominations were made for borough offices:
Judge of Election, R. S. Johns.
Inspector, Lew Martin.
Town Council, Elijah Newman, Howard Meager and Harvey Fogle.
School Directors, Richard Newman and Daniel Livengood.
Assessor, T. Wagner.
Auditor, Chas. Newman.
Street Commissioner, John W. Ringler.

Last night a Citizens' caucus was held in the E. Stalter building, and the following named persons nominated:
Judge of Election, R. S. Johns.
Inspector, P. M. Wahl.
Town Council, John Lichter, J. A. Winter and Frank Petry.
School Directors, Silas Wagner and A. B. Newman.
Assessor, T. Wagner.
Auditor, Russell Hay.
Street Commissioner, Alfred Wagner.

There are some good men on both tickets, and some on both that are not capable of filling any office creditably. But for this the people are to blame, as practically all of them have ceased to take interest in borough nominations. The Republican caucus was attended by not more than 20 or 25 persons, and the Citizens' caucus by only 14. Only a few people were seeking office, and they were nominated along with a larger number that were not after nominations.

The fact is, most of the good, sensible, substantial people of Salisbury borough have become disgusted with borough politics, for the reason that so few of our officers have been doing their duty. We have a few good officers in this town, and always have had, but it can be truthfully said of most of them that they have been sadly negligent in their duties, and for some years the official affairs of the borough have been going from bad to worse. The good citizens of the town have about decided to let the official rottenness continue until it breaks down under the weight of its own rottenness, as it is bound to do sooner or later, and then we will have a well officered town again, and caucuses will be more generally attended. As for ourself, we participated in no borough caucus this year, neither directly nor indirectly, and we are glad of it. Like the great majority of our citizens, we are disgusted with borough politics.

HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR COMPLEXION.
Every one who wants a good healthy color, a ruddy glow and a clear skin free from the effects of biliousness, sluggish liver and chronic constipation should get a 25-cent package of Laxakola Tonic Tablets to-day. E. H. Miller. 2-1

MAKING A GREAT HIT.

The J. L. Tempest Dramatic Company Deservedly Popular Here.
The J. L. Tempest Dramatic Company, now playing a week's engagement in Hay's opera house, is deservedly popular here, and making a great hit. Each night the audience is larger, and one and all are delighted with the well rendered plays, fine specialties, etc.

This company played here a week, last spring, and was then pronounced the best theatrical company that ever visited our town. And so it was, but this year it is still better, and it is a common thing to hear people remark that they have often paid a dollar to see plays not half so good as those rendered in Hay's opera house, this week, by the Tempest people. They are very nice folks, too, and aside from their good acting they are very sociable and courteous, seeming like old acquaintances to all they come in contact with. Ira Hay, our efficient opera house manager, also deserves great praise for the improvements he recently made in the opera house. He has put in a fine system of electric lighting, which adds greatly to the stage effects.

Last night the company rendered "Lady Audley's Secret," also gave an after concert. Both were fine, and the house was crowded. Tonight the play will be "A Lawyer's Troubles," and on Friday night, "East Lynn." By all means turn out and see something good. The Tempest people give nothing else.

PRESCRIPTION FOR HEADACHES.
When you have headache or other nerve pain try Ake-In-The-Head tablets and you can have your 10 cents back if your headache or neuralgia is not relieved in 15 minutes. No matter what the cause is, one tablet gives relief. E. H. Miller. 2-1

KEEP TO THE RIGHT.

"Keep to the right" is the law of the road, which, when obeyed, saves one a world of trouble.

Society is a public highway on a grand scale—a great turnpike whereon a hurrying, jostling, wrestling crowd of badly-assorted humanity is ever thronging. Here is life in all its better phases—childhood with its golden hair and wondering eyes; youth with its widening, thoughtful outlook; manhood with its firm step and earnest purpose; old age with its bowed form and whitened locks. Here, too, are thickly strewn the wrecks of life—misguided childhood, headstrong and wayward; erring youth, rioting in frivolity and dissipation, and sowing the seeds of physical decay and moral death; vicious manhood, treading the downward road; and decrepit old age, sinister and sere, with its painful memories and hopeless future—all commingling in the one great journey from the cradle to the grave.

How much discord, inharmonious, and jostling would be avoided in this journey if each traveler would only keep to the right. There is a pitfall before you, young man; a temptation to do evil; a snare for your feet. You are forming habits of idleness, dissipation and extravagance, which will stick to you like the shirt of Nessus, hampering your noble efforts, and eventually dragging you down to the gateway of despair. Keep to the right and avoid it. That is a doubtful business venture, sir, in which you are about to engage; one perhaps involving loss of self-respect and sacrifice of manly principle. You see where, by taking advantage of your neighbor's ignorance, you can get the best of him in a trade; or by some smart trick of the law you can evade some responsibility you have willingly assumed, or shirk some duty that lies in your way. Keep to the right. There, only, is the path of honor.

When tempted to deal in gossip or scandal; to play tyrant in your family; to withhold the gentle word of love or praise from her who walks by your side; to lower the standard of your honor, or do ought that would make you less manly or noble in the eyes of good men and angles—keep to the right.

Keep to the right. These golden words should be engraven in letters of living light on the temple of every human soul. They should stand forth as finger posts at the junction of every wrong; at the point of every divergence from the straight path of rectitude; by every wayside temptation. Keep to the right—spurning every ignoble thought, every unmanly action. Thus will you lay up treasures for a grand old age, and life will bear for you its richest fruits.

REFORMS IN LAW PRACTICE.

We heartily agree with the Connellsville Courier in the following, which recently appeared in that paper:

The Westmoreland Bar Association suggests a decided improvement in practice in the way of a short deed, that is, a deed stripped of the legal verbiage and senseless jargon borrowed from the old English law, a plain statement of the conveyance in everyday language. Such forms have been adopted in most of the states, and in many have been in use for years past. They are highly satisfactory.

Pennsylvania is among the few states that have clung to the ancient forms of the jurisprudence borrowed from the mother country more than a century ago. It is true that some reforms have been made in our legal practice. The old declaration, which was filed with every suit, charging the defendant with every crime and wrong in the calendar, has been superseded by a plain statement of the cause of action. The short deed will be another reform along the same line, and it ought to be adopted. The Westmoreland bar is to be commended for its common sense in leading the movement for more simple and sane law forms. The law, in its forms and its application, should be plain enough for any intelligent layman to understand, even if he is not permitted to practice it before the bar of justice.

Civil Service Examination.
