THE NEW COURT HOUSE.

After a conference lasting about ten days between the County Commissioners of Somerset county, and the firm of Caldwell and Drake, contractors for Somerset's beautiful Temple of Justice, an agreement was reached on Friday afternoon, and the Court House was turned over to the County Commissioners to take immediate possession. By the terms of the agreement entered into between the Commissioners and the contractors, the Commissioners paid to the contractors the amount of money retained under the terms of the original contract of construction, less an amount aggregating seven thousand dollars, which the Commissioner will hold until they have an opportunity to make a complete inspection of the work, and with which sum of money they can remedy any defects disclosed in the inspection. It was also a part of the agreement between these parties that the occupancy of the building is not to be construed to be an acceptance of it, but that any and all matters of dispute are still open to adjustment. The furniture and electric fixtures, are all on hand to be put in place, and it will only be a short time until each office will be in running order. The next term of Court will be held in the new structure.

Somerset county should be congratulated upon getting this magnificent building at the cost incurred. The contractors say that if they were to begin the building at this time, that the cost would be one hundred thousand dollars greater than the amount expended.—Somerset Democrat.

The above is a true statement, in spite of all the rot and "hogwash" published by the Somerset Herald against the new Court House, during the past two years. The Herald took the absurd position that a new court house was not needed, and after the contract was let, then it declared that the building was contracted for at an extravagant price, etc., etc. But the Herald knew it was lying all the time, and all it was after was a political issue.

CURED OF LUNG TROUBLE.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at E. H. Miller's drug store. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. 2-1
