For Coughs and Colds

There is a remedy over sixty years old—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Of course you have heard of it, probably have used it. Once in the family, it stays; the one household remedy for coughs and hard colds on the chest. Ask your doctor about it.

"I have had pneumonia three times, and Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has brought me safely through each time. I have just recovered from my last attack, aged sixty-seven. No wonder I praise it."—E. V. Higgins, Stevens Point, Wis.

The winds of March have no terror to the user of DeWitt's Carbolic Witch Hazel Salve. It quickly heals chapped and cracked skin. Good too, for boils and burns, and undoubtedly the best relief for Piles. Sold here by E. H. Miller. 4-1

On Monday of last week the mother of Mrs. S. A. Kendall, of Meyersdale, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. A. Hurber, at Liscomb, Iowa. High waters and floods in some parts of the country made it impossible for Mr. and Mrs. Kendall to attend the funeral.

You should be very careful of your bowels when you have a cold. Nearly all other cough syrups are constipating, especially those containing opiates. Sold by E. H. Miller. 4-1

The would-be maple sugar experts that were predicting a record-breaking crop as late as the middle of March, this year, are not having much to say, these days. The season has thus far been almost a total failure, and it can't amount to much at best, from now on. In fact many sugar makers believe that the maple sugar season of 1907 is already at an end.

"Preventics" will promptly check a cold or the Grippe when taken early or at the "sneeze stage." Preventics cure seated colds as well. THE STAR was in error, a couple of weeks ago, when it stated that Henry Swauger purchased the old homestead of the late John Wegman, at Grantsville, Md. Mrs. Annie Murphy, a daughter of the late Mr. Wegman, informs us that she and her husband, Nicholas Murphy, purchased the old homestead and intend to pull down the old house and erect a new one.

"In 1897 I had a stomach disease. Some physicians said Dyspepsia, some Consumption. One said I would not live until Spring. For four years I existed on boiled milk, soda biscuits, and doctors' prescriptions. I could not digest anything I ate; then I picked up one of your Almanacs and it happened to be my life-saver. I bought a fifty-cent bottle of KODOL and the benefit I received from that bottle all the gold in Georgia could not buy. In two months I went back to my work, as a machinist, and in three months I was well and hearty. May you live long and prosper."—C. N. Cornell, Reading, Ga., 1906. The above is only a sample of the great good that is daily done everywhere by Kodol For Dyspepsia. It is sold here by E. H. Miller. 4-1

Lew M. Leonard, who unwittingly and unwillingly disappeared, last Wednesday night, turned up, Saturday, safe and sound, much to the relief of his relatives and friends. Mr. Leonard was in town, Wednesday, and remained until about 9 p. m., watching the rising waters, and then started for his home across the "Yough" river, by way of the C. & O. bridge. On arriving at the bridge he found it crowded full of coal cars, and in the inky darkness did not deem it safe to make the attempt to cross it. Finding an empty box car at hand, Mr. Leonard decided to climb in, get out of the storm and sleep till morning. Some time in the night the car in which he slept was taken to Connellsville, and Lew woke up to find himself thirty miles from home, and no way to get back or notify his friends of his whereabouts. He remained there till Saturday, and came home on the first train.—Confluence News.

FOUND AT LAST.

J. A. Harmon, of Lizenore, West Va., says: "At last I have found the perfect pill that never disappoints me; and for the benefit of others afflicted with torpid liver and chronic constipation, will say: take Dr. King's New Life Pills." Guaranteed satisfactory. 25c. at E. H. Miller's Drug store. 4-1

Peter Burkett, Father of 33 Children, Brings Five to Jumonville.

Peter Burkett, a Clearfield county Civil War veteran, was in Uniontown, Friday, en route to Jumonville, where he placed five children in that institution.

Burkett holds the record for Pennsylvania, being the father of 33 children, 21 of whom are living. The ages of the five children brought to the Jumonville school range from six to 14 years. Mr. Burkett is 76 years old, and survives three wives. During the Civil War he was a member of Company E, 148th Pennsylvania Volunteers.—Connellsville Courier.

Was It Infantile?

A 7-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vogel died on Monday, and the day following it was buried. There is talk of its body being taken up for examination, as many people seem to be of the opinion that the child came to its death under suspicious circumstances.

We don't know whether there is any ground for suspicion or not, but the general opinion seems to be that the County Coroner should immediately investigate the matter and establish the innocence or guilt of the person suspected of foul play, according as the facts will warrant.

Teachers' Institute.

A teachers' institute will be held at West Salisbury, Saturday, April 6th. Following is the program: Song—"Vacation days are coming." Invocation—C. Hersberger. Recitation—Elsie Maust. "What shall we do with the dull pupils?"—Chas. Butler. Topical talk—Chas. J. Newman. Recitation—Florence Compton. "How can we interest patrons in school work?"—N. D. Hay, Ralph Moser, Rev. Stover. "Why do we not take more interest in our institutes?"—Pearl Hay, Minnie Ridinger, Cora Peck. Farewell address—John H. Bender.

Funeral of A. D. Statler.

The body of Alvin Statler, the young man who was drowned, last week, as the result of trying to cross the river at Keystone Mines, a full account of which appeared in THE STAR a week ago, was discovered the next morning by Conrad Lindeman, about a mile from where the drowning took place. One hand of the dead man was discovered sticking up out of the water, and Mr. Lindeman at once made his discovery known.

The body was promptly taken to Meyersdale and prepared for burial by Undertaker Reich, who soon had it in a very presentable condition.

The funeral took place from the residence of the deceased man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Statler, conducted by Rev. S. M. Cousins, of the United Evangelical church, and Rev. H. S. May, of the Reformed church, Saturday forenoon.

The last sad rites were witnessed by a large concourse of people who knew and esteemed the young man while he lived for his many excellent qualities.

A Plucky but Foolish Woman.

There is a plucky young woman up in Jenner township who owns a farm and doesn't want it embellished with "modern improvements." She is Miss Laura O'Connor, a sister of Judge O'Connor, of Cambria county. She drove Chief Engineer Newhouse and eleven assistants in the employ of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad from her farm, and had them arrested besides. At a hearing before Justice Kaufman, last Friday, the entire engineering corps was bound over for May term of court. Chief Newhouse also preferred charges against Miss O'Connor for carrying concealed deadly weapons, and the fair prosecutrix and defendant gave bail in the sum of $300 for her appearance at court.—Rockwood Leader.

Wonder if Miss O'Connor isn't some relation to Editor Werner. The former seems to think that railroads should not be permitted to be built on account of spoiling farms, and the latter is "fernist" trolley roads, because they sometimes utilize portions of county roads. Both of them should take to the woods and stay there until they get over their old foggy notions about such things.

The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is—and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any poisons enter into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package. For this reason, mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison-marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and see. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simply refuse to accept any other. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 4-1
