Does Your Heart Beat

Yes, 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. This produces constipation. Poisons accumulate and are absorbed into the blood. Instead of being removed from the body daily as nature intended. Keep the bowels open with Ayer's Pills, liver pills. All vegetable.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Sole Agents, Elk Lick, Pa. H. M. YOUNG, Proprietor.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

NEWSY ITEMS GATHERED HERE AND THERE, WITH AN OCCASIONAL JOKE ADDED FOR SPICE.

Mrs. J. H. P. Long and two daughters went to Cumberland, Md., last Saturday, to visit friends and relatives for a week.

Those who attended the public sale of the personal property of the late Daniel J. Otto, last Saturday, report a very successful sale.

Mrs. S. L. Livengood is quite sick, suffering with a bad case of grip, which malady in its worst form is very prevalent in this locality at this time.

Miss Martha Matthews, who spent the winter with her sister, Mrs. T. Glotfelty, of this place, returned to her home at Selbysport, Md., this morning.

KODOL For Dyspepsia clears the stomach and makes the breath as sweet as a rose. KODOL is sold by druggists on a guarantee relief plan. It conforms strictly to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1

John Livengood, Jr., who for some time had been working at Mt. Pleasant, Pa., came home several days ago to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Livengood.

Mr. Watson's public sale, on John street, was quite well attended, last Friday, and goods brought fair prices. Rev. Fuller was the auctioneer, while Mr. Watson did the clerking.

Mrs. Andrews, a sister of Mrs. Arch Cochrane and Mrs. Wm. H. Fair, died of apoplexy, at her home in Ursina, yesterday. Deceased is survived by a husband and several children.

When you need a pill, take a pill, and be sure it's an Early Riser. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are safe, sure, satisfactory pills. The pills with a reputation. They do not gripe or sicken. They are sold here by E. H. Miller. 5-1

Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, the one Democrat to whom President Roosevelt would entrust the fate of his now famous railroad rate bill, will speak in the Donges opera house, Meyersdale, Friday evening, April 28th, on "The Race Problem."

Mr. Frank L. Meade, of Berlin, has secured employment in the Improved Traction Engine Company's works. Mr. Meade is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dickey, where his wife also is visiting for a few weeks.

"Good for everything a salve is used for and especially recommended for Piles." That is what we say about DeWitt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve. That is what twenty years' of usage has proven. Get the original. Sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1

J. O. Johnston, of THE STAR force, spent Easter with friends in Stoyestown. He had two grips when he came back, and one of them, we think, is the result of having his whiskers shaved off, and it still sticks to him, giving him a rich bass voice.

W. K. Niver died, Sunday, at his home in Syracuse, N. Y. He was one of the organizers of the W. K. Niver Coal Company. He suffered financial reverses several years ago, since when his health declined rapidly. He was at one time Mayor of Syracuse.

Use Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. Children like its pleasant taste, and mothers give it hearty endorsement. Contains no opiates, but drives out the cold through the bowels. Made in strict conformity to Pure Food and Drug Law. Recommended and sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1

Geo. Krausse, who served a three-year apprenticeship at carpentering, at the Williamson School of Mechanical Trades, in Delaware county, Pa., finished his trade, last week, and returned home. We wish the young man much success in his chosen avocation.

The P. S. Hay store has a window advertisement that is attracting a great deal of attention, evenings, after the electric lights are on. The novelty of the advertisement referred to gives the store quite a citified appearance, and must be seen to be appreciated.

The Hon. Benjamin R. Tillman, of South Carolina, will speak in Meyersdale, April 28th, at the Donges opera house. This is one chance of a lifetime to hear one of America's greatest, most fearless and prominent statesmen. His subject will be "The Race Problem."

What is it that tastes as pleasant as maple sugar and quickly relieves coughs and colds? Mothers who have used it will quickly answer, "Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup." The pleasant cold remedy that expels the cold through its laxative action on the bowels. Conforms strictly to the Pure Food and Drug Law. Contains no opiates. Sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1

Fred Diehl, of West Salisbury, who had been sick six weeks with lung fever and kidney trouble, is again able to be out, we are glad to note. But he looks somewhat thin and pale. Fred says his neighbors were exceedingly kind and helpful to him during his illness, and he returns his thanks through the columns of THE STAR.

Miss Grace Randolph, of Freeport, Pa., arrived in town last Thursday for a visit of a few days with friends. Miss Randolph clerked in the First National Bank, of this place, for a year or more, and made many friends during her residence in Salisbury. She resigned her position some time ago, which is now being filled by Miss Elizabeth Keitz.

Phineas Welfey and family moved onto a farm near Connellsville, this week, where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Welfey has lived in Salisbury many years, and he has always been a good citizen. He and his family have many friends here who regret their removal from the town, but all wish them much prosperity and happiness in their new home.

Mr. S. L. Bowen, of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Cure. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." Foley's Kidney Cure works wonders where others are total failures. Sold by all Druggists. 5-1

The local newspaper is what the people make it. If the people give it support, show an interest in its success by a liberal subscription that is paid up, if there is an appreciation shown in the paper's progress, and a local spirit displayed to assist in giving the newspaper support, these will reflect in the newspaper's columns, showing the civic pride and municipal development and growth of the people.—Newberne(N.C.) Journal.

Our friend Harvey S. Tressler recently purchased some eighty acres of very fine timber in Summit township, from Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Livengood, of Somerset. The timber is principally oak, hemlock and chestnut, and Harvey has already been offered a handsome sum of money in excess of the price he paid for the tract. We don't know of a man more worthy of a streak of good fortune than Harvey Tressler, and we congratulate him on his good investment.

Rheumatic sufferers can have a free sample of Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy with book on Rheumatism by simply writing Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. This book will explain how Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy successfully drives Rheumatism out of the blood. This remedy is not a relief only. It aims to clear the blood entirely of Rheumatic poisons, and then Rheumatism must die a natural death. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 5-1

WEDDING Invitations at THE STAR office. A nice new stock just received.

Rev. Dr. J. C. Mackey, of Uniontown, Pa., arrived here yesterday evening and preached to a very appreciative audience in the Brethren Church. He resided here about seven years ago, and was pastor of the Salisbury Brethren church at that time. Rev. Mackey is a speaker of fine ability, and his old parishioners and old-time friends are all glad to have him once more among us. His good wife, who is also very popular here, is with her husband on this visit.

William A. Brydon, aged 69, at one time a prominent coal operator, a former member of the Maryland Legislature, former president of the Allegheny county school board, and for eight years chief bookkeeper in the sub-treasury at Baltimore, died last week at his home, "Borderside," near Bloomington, Md. He leaves a widow, one daughter and six sons, including John C. Brydon, of Cumberland, general manager of the Davis Coal and Coke Company.

The "Tinkler" is away late in making its appearance, this week. There are several reasons for this. First, one of our printers was absent from the office for one day. Second, another of the hands is suffering from a bad case of grip. Third, a lot of our advertisers got around with a change of advertising copy at the very last minute. Fourth, the editor has been about half sick himself, all week, but here's your paper, just the same. It's a trifle late, but full of news.

The Somerset Democrat came out last week in a brand new Easter gown, or rather with a new dress of type, and changed from the old blanket sheet 9-column folio form to a neat 6-column quarto. The initial number of the new form has a handsome Easter cover in colors, and the change adds much to that paper's convenience and good appearance. We congratulate Editor Coffroth on his improved paper, and feel sure he will never regret having made the change.

A man from Mexico was here several days ago to examine the engines made by the Improved Traction Engine Company. He had heard of the fame of the Twentieth Century engine, manufactured here, and came to inspect the same. He was well pleased, and may place an order for a 50 H. P. engine to be used for hauling ore. In fact the company will likely get orders for a number of their engines to be shipped to Mexico, judging from what the visitor had to say.

J. C. Fravel's public sale, Tuesday, will be attended, and goods brought fair prices, especially his chickens, some of which brought as high as 70 cents apiece. The sale at T. F. Daugherty's residence, last Saturday, was called off, owing to small attendance. The goods, however, were hauled to Mr. Fravel's home, where they were sold, also, on the day of Mr. Fravel's sale. Rev. Calvin Fuller was the auctioneer, and P. L. Livengood the recording angel at both sales.

Tom Sufall, who held a job on THE STAR for about five years, was a welcome guest at THE STAR office and at the editorial mansion, last Friday. He is now employed by the Meyersdale Republican, but for some time has not been doing much type-setting, owing to lead poison, which sometimes hits printers hard. Tom didn't say a word about finely bred bird dogs while he was here, but we take it for granted that he still owns one or two of that kind, for what would life be to Tom without a "dorg?"

Grover Cleveland was 70 years old on Monday of last week. In 1882, at the age of 45 years, he was elected Governor of New York by nearly 200,000 majority, which made him the logical Democratic candidate for President. He was elected to the Presidency in 1884, defeated in 1888, and again successful in 1892. He is the only President the Democrats have elected since James Buchanan. He is the only ex-President now living, and resides with his family at Princeton, New Jersey, where, as elsewhere, he is respected by all.

Last Saturday night an ugly fight took place between Salisbury and Boynton, in which several Salisbury youths were the principals. As a result, one of the lads got a thorough mauling, while two of the others were hauled up before "Squire" Lowry for a hearing. The case went no farther, as the fathers of the two boys arrested paid all costs and salved the wounds of the walloped lad with a $5.00-non-porous plaster. The general opinion seems to be that all the boys implicated should have been at home at the time the fight occurred, and that all of them should have been walloped by their parents.

Rest is the great restorer. We tire our muscles by exercise and then rest to restore them; yet a great many of us do not stop to think how little rest we give to our stomachs. As a usual thing no part of our bodies is so generally overworked as our digestive organs. A tired and overworked stomach will give signs of distress to which we pay no heed until at last Dyspepsia takes hold. Indigestion is just a warning, and if we heed the warning we can easily avoid further consequences. KODOL is a most thorough stomach relief. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach the needed rest and greatly assists in restoring it to its normal activity and usefulness. KODOL is sold on a guarantee relief plan. It is sold here by E. H. Miller. 5-1

MODEL Meat Market!

Take notice that I have opened a new and up-to-date meat market in Salisbury, one door south of Liehliter's store. Everything is new, neat and clean, and it is a model in every respect. I deal in all kinds of Fresh and Salt Meats, Poultry, Fresh Fish, etc. I pay highest cash prices for Fat Cattle, Pork, Veal, Mutton, Poultry, Hides, etc.

I GUARANTEE TO PLEASE YOU and want you to call and be convinced that I can best supply your wants in the meat line. CASPER WAHL, The Old Reliable Butcher.

THE ABOVE PICTURE will give you some notion of the style and character of our new spring showing of "Pelham Clothes." We will outfit you at a little less than anybody else, and a little better, when style and tailoring is counted. Don't take our word for this statement, but come here and see how true are these facts. They are ready-to-wear clothes, that rival the product of the finest custom tailor. We, of course, have our usual unusual new spring showing of other fashionable accessories of dress. BARCHIUS & LIVENGOOD.

We call attention to the advertisement of Reich & Plock's closing-out sale of pianos, organs and sewing machines, which appears on fifth page of this issue. Reich & Plock are a thoroughly reliable firm, and they are surely offering some great bargains. Their word can at all times be relied upon, and it affords us pleasure to say that if we wanted to buy one or a dozen pianos, we would buy every one of them from Reich & Plock. We purchased a $400 Bush & Lane piano from them last December, and we wouldn't take $600 for it if we couldn't get another instrument like it. The bargains they offer in pianos, organs and sewing machines are all bargains worth taking advantage of, and such bargains as are seldom offered anywhere.

WE HAVE IT! The Original, Old Reliable BEACHY'S HORSE & CATTLE POWDER, the kind you used to buy. 25c. per lb. Elk Lick Drug Store.

More than is generally noted, by even thoughtful observers, and far more than any other institution in the city, is the newspaper a representative of the community in which it is published, and the accepted criterion by which that community is rated favorably by strangers. Whatever other information a stranger may seek concerning a city where he proposes to make his home, to invest his money for profit, he is sure to include the local paper among the subjects of investigation, and often the character of the community for business enterprise and progress, as reflected in that paper, controls the judgment and determines the action of the investigator. As the result of nearly a lifetime of close and careful observation, we know this to be true.—Petersburg (Va.) Index Appeal.

FINE MILLINERY DISPLAY! We want you to call and inspect our superb line of Trimmed Hats. The ladies who have been inspecting our Spring and Summer Millinery are delighted. Prices the lowest, goods the nicest and best. Auction Called Off! Our auctions advertised for April 13th and 15th have been called off. Too busy unpacking new and seasonable goods of all kinds to bother with auctions now. ELK LICK VARIETY STORE, C. T. Hay, Manager.

Appearances Deceptive. On one occasion Daniel Webster was on his way to Washington, and was compelled to proceed at night by stage from Baltimore. He had no traveling companion, and the driver had a sort of felon look which produced no inconsiderable alarm in the Senator. "I endeavored to tranquilize myself," said Webster, "and had partly succeeded, when we reached the dark woods between Bladensburg and Washington—a proper scene for murder or outrage—and here, I confess, my courage again deserted me. Just then the driver turned around to me, and, with a gruff voice, inquired my name. I gave it to him. 'Where are you going?' said he. The reply was, 'To Washington.' I answered, 'Upon this the driver seized me fervently by the hand and exclaimed, 'How glad I am! I took you for a highwayman.'"

New Store! New Goods! We have opened a fine new general store in the M. J. Glotfelty building, Ord St., Salisbury, Pa., and invite you to come and inspect our nice, new line of Dry Goods, Shoes, Groceries, etc. Prices As Low As The Lowest! We start with an entire new stock, and we handle only the best and purest brands of goods. We solicit a share of your patronage, and we guarantee a square deal and satisfaction to all. Howard Meager & Co.
