For Thin, Poor Blood

You can trust a medicine tested 60 years! Sixty years of experience, think of that! Experience with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; the original Sarsaparilla; the strongest Sarsaparilla; the Sarsaparilla the doctors endorse for thin blood, weak nerves, general debility.

But even this grand old medicine cannot do its best work if the liver is inactive and the bowels constipated. For the best possible results, you should take laxative doses of Ayer's Pills while taking the Sarsaparilla. The liver will quickly respond, and so will the bowels.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

NEWSY ITEMS GATHERED HERE AND THERE, WITH AN OCCASIONAL JOKE ADDED FOR SPICE.

Ex-Sheriff R. S. McMillen was a business visitor in Salisbury, yesterday. Mrs. J. L. Barchus and son went to Pittsburg, last Thursday, to visit friends.

To find out just how many people read the home paper, an editor has to do is to advertise the free distribution of government seeds. Great Caesar, how they do come a running! And the non-subscribers are usually the first to come, which shows that they, too, read the home paper, even if they do have to read it at the expense of other people.

Genial Stewart Boucher, who had been in the Internal Revenue service for some years, was in town today. He was returning from a visit to the old Boucher homestead in Garrett county, Md. Mr. Boucher is a good nurse, and is now following that occupation exclusively. He was not at the Markleton Sanitarium as a patient, lately, as reported, but was there as a nurse.

Mr. S. L. Bowen, of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Cure. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." Foley's Kidney Cure works wonders where others are total failures. Sold by all Druggists. 5-1

Walter Easton went to New York City, last night, to have a conference with the Davis Calyx Drill Company in reference to the sale of a recent invention made some time ago by Mr. Easton, and which several drilling companies are trying to get the exclusive use of. The invention has been patented by Mr. Easton, and it promises to make him a handsome sum of money.

A joke is told of a young lady of this town, who, in working with certain dyes for the hair, got the ingredient proportions somewhat confounded, and as a result, her hair showed up a beautiful egg plant, or purple hue. This involved a stay for several weeks in the country, with friends, but since that time she sensibly wears her hair as red as it desires to grow.—Western Press of Mercer.

Rheumatic sufferers can have a free sample of Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy with book on Rheumatism by simply writing Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. This book will explain how Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy successfully drives Rheumatism out of the blood. This remedy is not a relief only. It aims to clear the blood entirely of Rheumatic poisons, and then Rheumatism must die a natural death. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 5-1

At Marlboro, Massachusetts, Miss Anna Greenwood, aged 29, recently undertook to take down the receiver of a telephone at the same time she turned on an electric light. She was instantly killed. An examination showed a slight burn on the wrist, indicating that a cuff button had touched the switch as she turned on the light, the current passing through her body into the telephone instrument.

The discovery of a new counterfeit $10, buffalo, U. S. note is announced by the U. S. secret service. It is of the specie of 1901; check letter, A; Lyons, Register; Roberts, Treasurer. This counterfeit is apparently printed from woodcut plates of excellent workmanship, on two pieces of good quality paper, between which heavy pieces of silk had been distributed. The number of the note at hand is 3,592,737. This number compares favorably with the genuine, both as to color and formation of figures.

"Preventics" will promptly check a cold or the Grippe when taken early or at the "sneeze stage." Preventics cure seated colds as well. Preventics are little candy cold cure tablets, and Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis., will gladly mail you samples and a book on Colds free, if you will write him. The samples prove their merit. Check early Colds with Preventics and stop Pneumonia. Sold in 5c. and 25c. boxes by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 5-1

For the first time in the history of Columbia county, a postmastership has gone begging. Mrs. Howard Cole, who has had charge of the office at Coles Creek for a number of years, resigned some time ago, but the department refused to accept her resignation, as there has always been trouble in securing a postmaster there. An effort was finally made to secure her successor, but without avail. On last Saturday Mrs. Cole left for Mexico to join her husband, and left the office to take care of itself.

Rest is the great restorer. We tire our muscles by exercise and then rest to restore them; yet a great many of us do not stop to think how little rest we give to our stomachs. As a usual thing no part of our bodies is so generally overworked as our digestive organs. A tired and overworked stomach will give signs of distress to which we pay no heed until at last Dyspepsia takes hold. Indigestion is just a warning, and if we heed the warning we can easily avoid further consequences. KODOL is a most thorough stomach relief. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach the needed rest and greatly assists in restoring it to its normal activity and usefulness. KODOL is sold on a guarantee relief plan. It is sold here by E. H. Miller. 5-1

To keep the flag painted on his corn crib is the curious request which is found in the will of George D. Higgins, which has just been admitted to probate, at Duxbury, Massachusetts. Mr. Higgins was a veteran of the civil war, and had an intense love for the flag. He always kept a painted flag on his corn crib, never allowing the colors to grow dim, and adding a star as new states were added. His will not only requests that the flag be kept painted, but also that stars be added when necessary, the stars to be "placed in proper order, as by a pattern shown, and that may be found in my tool chest."

The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is—and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any poisons enter into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package. For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison-marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and see. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simply refuse to accept any other. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 5-1

Judge Kooser has refused to appoint a commission to examine Joe DeFrancisco, the Coal Run murderer, on the ground that the case has passed his jurisdiction. In making a decree directed to Governor Stuart, he says: "No question of the sanity or insanity of the prisoner was raised upon the trial. The defendant was convicted of murder of the first degree, sentence pronounced, and a record of the trial, conviction and sentence has been transmitted to the Governor of the Commonwealth, for his action; thus, as I think, passing the matter to the control of the Executive. This Court, therefore, in refusing to appoint the commission prayed for, as it now does, respectfully refers the matter to his Excellency, the Governor of Pennsylvania, with the recommendation that a commission be appointed, to meet the purpose set forth in the petition, and that the commission be directed to act speedily."

He Was a Mail Order Chap.

A young man who does not believe in patronizing home industries, recently sent to Sears, Roebuck & Co., for a pair of trousers. In the pocket of the pants he found the following note: "Should this fall into the hands of a good-looking young man who desires to correspond with a lady of sweet disposition, kindly address,"—The aforesaid mail order "mutt" sent a letter to the address, and in a few days received the following reply: "Sir, my wife has just received a letter from you, addressed in her maiden name. Fifteen years ago, when she worked in a sweat shop, she might have written the note. She is now the mother of six children, and is my lawful wife. If you don't cut out writing to her, I will take a trip to your town and make you look like two cents worth of dog meat."

Garrett County Farmers in the Lead.

The following very truthful news item appeared in last week's issue of the Oakland Journal:
 "You will find by comparison that the farmers in Grantsville district are about up to date in many lines of agriculture. They raise the finest fruit in profusion—strawberries by the thousands of quarts. They have maple sugar groves that cannot be excelled anywhere in the world. Their farms are adapted to raising wheat, oats, rye, barley, buckwheat and about all of the grains with success. Some of their barns and dwellings are of the largest and best in the United States."

Right here THE STAR wishes to compliment the farmers in the vicinity of Grantsville, Md., on the splendid condition and high productive state that they have brought their farms up to. About 25 or 30 years ago the farmers in the vicinity of Salisbury, Pa., were far in advance of their Garrett county neighbors in the matter of high class farming; but, generally speaking, just the reverse is the case now, and there is no use in trying to deny it.

It is pretty generally conceded that farming in Elk Lick township has been on the down grade for a number of years. Of course, there are exceptions, and old Elk Lick still has some of the best managed and most highly productive farms to be found anywhere. But in many cases it is painfully evident that the sons who are now managing the farms are not the progressive and painstaking farmers that their fathers were before them. Many good farms have been allowed to run down. The land, fences and buildings are not kept up as they should be, the sugar camps are not being properly cared for, good orchards have been allowed to die off without new ones to take their places.

This deplorable state of agricultural degeneracy cannot be said to exist in the vicinity of Grantsville. The farms out there are, almost without exception, in the pink of high class agricultural condition. For every good fruit tree that grew in the vicinity of Grantsville 25 years ago, a score of them are growing now. And in all other respects the farmers of Grantsville district are in the very forefront of the noble pursuit of agriculture and cattle raising. If you want to see fruitful farms, luxuriantly growing crops, fine sugar groves, apple orchards, well kept buildings, fences, etc., make a trip to Grantsville before the next harvest is garnered.

In the meantime, the farmers of old Elk Lick, that is, a great many of them, ought to go to Garrett county and take lessons in farming, then get a hump on themselves and bring their farms back to the splendid condition they were in when Garrett county was at least 25 years behind the times in agriculture.
