Last Thursday evening a quiet wed ding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Meese, on Union street, when their daughter Bessie was married to Mr. Clyde Wagner, eldest son of Mrs. Morris H. Wagner. It was probably the most youthful wedding that ever occurred in the town, as both bride and groom are less than 19 years old, but they managed to secure the consent of their parents to marry, and they are now in a position to learn of the many responsibilities and cares that go with married life. However, we all trust that their matrimonial path may be as smooth as possible.

path may be as smooth as possible. Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treat-ing symptoms only. Symptom treat-ment is treating the result of your ail-ment, and not the cause. Weak Stom-ach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Kind Words from Model Newspaper Subscribers.

Occasionally some unreasonable newspaper subscriber will become offended when he receives a statement of his account, and set up a howl' about it. Others will ignore the statements and never make a settlement until forced to do so. But, thank God, many of them are more fair and reasonable than the two classes named. Following are some extracts of letters recently received from subscribers who believe in doing the square, honorable thing. and they are the kind of people who almost invariably get along well in the world and have many friends:

"Soly" Gilbert Fined $10.05 for "Cussing."

A Somerset dispatch to yesterday's Pittsburg Gazette Times is authority for the following:

For the following: For every time the name of the diety was mentioned by Constable William C. Gilbert here yesterday when he tried to convince Clinton C. Wagner, cashier of the Somerset Trust Com-pany, that his views concerning a boundary line between the two men's lots were correct, he was today requir-ed to pay 67 cents when arraigned be-fore Justice of the Peace J. H. Pisel. "Cuss words" to the amount of $10.05, including the costs, were used. The including the costs, were used. The law of 1794 governing profanity was the basis of the arrest.

Whether "Soly" got $10.05 worth of satisfaction out of his "cuss words," the dispatch does not state.
