

Coffee—A Question of Taste

Don't let anyone tell you what coffee to buy. Connoisseurs and expert coffee judges differ in their tastes. The point is to get a coffee that suits your taste. GILLIES' COFFEES—"the finest obtainable," are blended to suit different tastes—all tastes. There are four distinct flavors, characteristic of coffees from different parts of the world, consequently four different prices. These different prices mean that some coffees cost more to import than others. If your choice is the lowest or the highest priced—you may be sure that you have the very best of its kind. GILLIES' 35 cent coffee is mellow, aromatic and very delicately flavored, while GILLIES' 30c coffee is rich, full-bodied and delicious—the 25c or 20c blend each has a distinctive flavor which may please you.

There is no use in threatening Bryan with defeat. He is used to it.
If winter keeps on lingering in the lap of spring, she ought to jab him with a hat pin.

In addition to the cold spring killing the peach crop, the mild winter did great damage to the plumbers' plum crop.

It would be less difficult to recruit an army of 12,000 Cubans if it were possible to give at least half of them the rank of general.

A MACON, GA. man has a bed quilt made entirely of cat skins. This ought to serve as a terrible warning to cats given to prowling at night.

W. T. STEAD says "Americans have no ears for anything but the clink of dollars." Americans look upon Mr. Stead as practically all ears.

BRYAN always can be depended upon to condemn himself out of his own mouth. He now says of Hearst, "we are going in the same direction."

"WHAT will Sec. Taft do?" asks the Chicago News. Well, if he wants to retain the President's good opinion of him, he will proceed to "do" Foraker.

"WOMAN," says Mr. Taft, "must not think that to benefit mankind she must necessarily become a wife and mother." Certainly not. Good cooks help a lot in this hungry world.

The question of whether or not a whale literally swallowed Jonah will probably not be settled, this season. People interested in the surprising things fish will do, are now attending to their own hooks and lines.

A WELL-KNOWN contemporary gives this modern definition of "Nerve": "What is nerve? It is doing the thing that the ordinary person thinks is impossible. It is setting your standard twice as high as your business associates would set it for you, and then reaching it. It is burning your bridges behind you and staking your all on your own endeavor. It is taking chances that are not chances—to ordinary people the risk would be enormous, but the man of nerve is not even taking chances, because he knows he can carry the thing through, and doesn't allow himself to become sidetracked or even annoyed by the people who say it can't be done."

W. E. COREY, of the United States Steel Corporation, who put away a good and faithful wife and took unto himself another after gaining wealth and fame, for no other reason, apparently, than because wife No. 1 was not deemed by him young and handsome enough to shine in high society, should have the contempt of all decent men and women. In reply to an invitation to attend the wedding of himself and wife No. 2, Corey received the following manly message from his 18-year-old son: "I have but one duty, and that is by my mother's side." That young man is a precious jewel, and that one message has made him greater and grander than all the wealth of the world could make his unprincipled and degraded father.

The Rockwood Leader makes the astounding statement that it took the editor of this paper two weeks to conjure up an answer to some of the Leader's "tommyrot" anent trolley lines. Bless your soul, dear boy, it only took us about two minutes, as there was really nothing in your remarks worth answering. The same can be said of your anti-trolley editorial of last week, and as a recent act of the Legislature will give trolley companies the right of eminent domain, the Leader and THE STAR ought both to be happy. Anyway, the Leader need not fear that the trolley will invade the sacred and grassy streets of Rockwood, though we can't quite understand how a trolley line would in any way injure a water plant. Editor Werner wants the trolley in Rockwood, providing it can come into the town without using the streets. Whether the Leader favors the back alleys, the subway or the elevated, it sayeth not, and we opine that the Leader neither knows just what it wants nor "where it is at."

THAT was not a scene to inspire one who loves his country that was enacted a few Sundays ago in San Francisco, when thousands of representatives of labor unions in a public demonstration hooted and hissed our national flag when it was brought into the hall by a German-singing society. The meeting was called to arouse sympathy and secure aid for the union men who are charged with the murder of ex-Gov. Steunenberg, of Idaho.

Strange as it may seem there appeared no one in that frenzied moment to defend the emblem, although possibly hundreds would have done so with their very lives. This occurrence, however, proclaims a desperate situation in that demoralized city, and speaks danger to home and kindred interests. Love of country, love of home and love of God are one in essence. They are primary principles underlying all that is good, and they go down or rise with each other.

The organization of the forces of labor is right, but when in the name of unionism our country's flag is trampled under foot, dragged into the dust, and blackened with curses, it is time that liberty-loving patriots within such ranks shall assert themselves and disassociate unionism from anarchism.—EX.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.
There is probably no medicine made that is relied upon with more implicit confidence than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. During the third of a century in which it has been in use, people have learned that it is the one remedy that never fails. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. Republican Candidates.
The candidates who have announced for honors on the Republican ticket at the primary election to be held June 1st, are as follows:
For District Attorney, A. C. Holbert, John S. Miller and V. R. Saylor. Mr. Saylor, however, has since withdrawn.
For Poor House Director, Daniel Will, of Quemahoning, and W. W. Baker, of Somerset.
Delegates to State Convention, Hon. S. A. Kendall, of Meyersdale, A. J. Coleman, of Somerset township, and Thomas Turner, of Windber.
No other candidates will announce, as the time for announcing has passed by.

They Approve Our Tillman Lecture Editorial.
Elijah Livengood informed us, several days ago, that THE STAR's editorial on the Tillman lecture recently delivered in Meyersdale, was alone worth the subscription price of the paper. Many others have expressed themselves in a similar way, and in a letter just received from a very prominent business man in Grantsville, Md., we find the following:
"I enjoyed your editorial on the Tillman Meyersdale lecture. That was no less pointed than true. I was fooled down, thinking that the lecture would go off as originally intended, but was surprised to learn after arriving that the 'niggers' had changed the program."

A NARROW ESCAPE.
G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it, but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c. at E. H. Miller's Drug Store. 6-1

LETTER FROM A. C. HOLBERT.

To the Republican Voters of Somerset County, Pa.:
For the third time I am a candidate for nomination to the office of District Attorney, and having been twice defeated, I am, according to the customs of the Republican Party, "On the return." I have been an active Republican all my life and defeat has never changed my devotion to the principles of the Republican Party, and it never shall do so.
As to my competency to fill the position, I refer you to any one that knows me and will abide by his decision, whether he be friend or foe.
If nominated and elected, I shall fill the office in the best interests of Somerset county and its people; if defeated, I shall support the nominee.
Three weeks is the time allowed for campaign work, and Somerset is a large County; should I fail to see you, take it not as a personal slight, but remember that it is impossible in eighteen days to see every one in the county.
In view of these things, I ask your vote on the first day of June.
AARON C. HOLBERT.

WONDERFUL ECZEMA CURE.
"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta, Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being affected. We then employed other doctors, but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Electric Bitters, bought a bottle and soon noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured." Best of all blood medicines and body building health tonics. Guaranteed at E. H. Miller's Drug Store. 50c. 6-1

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, JOHN S. MILLER.

To the voters of Somerset County, Pa.:
I hereby announce to you that I am a candidate for the nomination of the Republican party for the office of District Attorney.
I am one of the younger members of the bar, having been admitted to the practice of law in the several courts of our county in the fall of 1904. I have always been a staunch Republican, and all my relatives, of whom I have a large number in the county, have always voted that ticket.
I most earnestly solicit your vote and support at the coming Primary, and if elected will fill the office according to the laws of the Commonwealth, the oath of office, and the best interests of the people of Somerset county; and will perform the duties of said office earnestly, actively, and with dispatch.
JOHN S. MILLER.

GOOD WORDS FOR CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips, of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale at Miller's Drug Store. 6-1
