A Hair Dressing

Nearly every one likes a fine hair dressing. Something to make the hair more manageable; to keep it from being too rough, or from splitting at the ends. Something, too, that will feed the hair, at the same time, a regular hair-food. Well-fed hair will be strong, and will remain where it belongs—on the head, not on the comb!

Farmers are warned against a set of swindlers going through the country selling barbed wire fencing. They offer to furnish a good eight-wire fence, with iron posts, for 8 cents a foot, and secure a contract that turns out to mean 8 cents a foot for each wire, or a total of 64 cents a foot.

Hon. Ira Milliron was visiting friends in Salisbury, last week. He is one of the Venango county members of the Legislature, and he is giving a good account of himself in many ways. We are always glad to note the advancement of energetic young men, and especially so if they ever resided in Salisbury.

Kidney complaint kills more people than any other disease. This is due to the disease being so insidious that it gets a good hold on the system before it is recognized. Foley's Kidney Cure will prevent the development of fatal disease if taken in time. Sold by all Druggists. 6-1

An Iowa reformer, while visiting in Washington, recently, took his little son with him to the Senate gallery. The boy seemed especially interested in the chaplain of the Senate. "Oh! he prays for the Senate, doesn't he?" asked the lad. "No," said the reformer, "he gets up and takes a look at the Senate, and then he prays for the country."

An Indiana man had formed a habit of attending church and timing the preacher, allowing him just 30 minutes for his sermon, and when the time expired, got up and walked out. He died, recently, and his friends had a church funeral. The preacher had him right up in front—he couldn't get away—and he soaked it to him for an hour and a quarter. There comes a time when every man can play even.

When your food has not been properly digested the entire system is impaired in the same proportion. Your stomach needs help. "One of our leading farmers," says a local paper, "found a cigar in his small son's pocket, the other day, on coming home after a shooting trip. The farmer confiscated the cigar and whipped the boy with the rope used to tie the family mule at night. Then the farmer lighted the cigar and started to smoke it himself. It was loaded. It exploded and burned the farmer's lilacs off his physiognomy and set fire to the barn."

A little Kodol taken occasionally, especially after eating, will relieve stomach, belching and heartburn. J. B. Jones, Newport, Tenn., writes: "I am sure three one dollar bottles of your Kodol positively cured me of dyspepsia, and I can recommend it, as that was three years ago, and I haven't been bothered since with it." Kodol is guaranteed to give relief. Sold by E. H. Miller. 6-1

Henry Dively, who has figured prominently in the courts of Somerset county from time to time, on charges ranging from larceny to horse-stealing, was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary, last Friday, by Judge Kooser, who also imposed a fine of $300 and costs of prosecution on Dively. This is the result of a horse-stealing scrape. Dively is an Allegheny township farmer who has more bad notoriety than good reputation.

Norman A. Maust, of Roanoke, Va., made the editor's heart glad, several days ago by remitting over seven "plunks" to apply on subscription to THE STAR. Mr. Maust says in his letter, "We are always anxious to see THE STAR, as it tells us what is going on at home. Tell all inquiring friends that we are all well and happy. We have fine weather here now, and Roanoke is prospering, and new homes are going up in every part of the city."

Mrs. Sally Livengood, who for some time has been living with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Dill, in Meyersdale, will sell a lot of household effects at her former place of residence, corner Ord street and Smith avenue, this borough, on Saturday afternoon, May 25th. Everybody should attend the sale, as many old-time articles will be sold that are eagerly sought after, these days. Mrs. Livengood is still quite active and enjoying good health, although not far from 90 years of age.

Negotiations have been opened by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company with the Kendall Lumber Company for the purchase of the latter's narrow gauge line extending north from Mountain Lake park. This line will be rebuilt, and the Baltimore & Ohio will then have a new direct line from Confluence on the main line, to Mountain Lake park, on the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern. While there has been talk of building such a cut-off for some years, it is now authoritatively stated that the railroad company intends to take the work up in earnest, says the Somerset Democrat.

For a cold or a cough take Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is BETTER than any other cough remedy because its laxative principle assures a healthy, copious action of the bowels and at the same time it heals irritation of the throat, strengthens the bronchial tubes and allays inflammation of the mucous membrane. Yesterday was the 43d anniversary of the battle of New Market, Va., in which some of the "Frosty Sons of Thunder" got a very warm reception. The old boys of the 54th Penna. Vols. were up against it hard on that occasion. Sixty-four men of the company Wm. J. Lichty and John J. Livengood belonged to were in the fight, and only thirty-two came out of it, says Mr. Lichty. Col. Campbell's horse, a fine steed captured on a former occasion from the rebels, got away from the colonel during the New Market fight, and went over into the rebel lines. The colonel seeing where he went, exclaimed: "Let him go; he knows he's a d-d rebel, anyhow!"

Edward Davis, who for a year or more was employed by the West Salisbury Feed Company, severed his connection with that concern on Tuesday last, he and his brother having purchased a tract of timber on Negro Mountain, which they will forthwith begin to convert into lumber. Edward will move to Springs, where THE STAR will keep him posted on the news of this locality. He is a most excellent young man, and like "Bert" Engle, the manager of the West Salisbury Feed Company, is very popular with the many customers of that concern. His place will be filled by Harvey Newman, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Newman. We wish abundant success to Mr. Davis in his new business, and also to the young man who will take his place in the store.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Dr. Shoop's Restorative sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 6-1

Of the women's publications which come to our table, The Ladies' World always seems to offer the most for the least—the stories are good, the special articles timely, the departments practical, the illustrations high class and the price moderate. The May number just to hand opens with a paper treating Jamestown and the Exposition in a very unusual and interesting way. A new serial by Hugh Pendexter, with illustrations by Pitney, opens attractively, and The Princess and the Flewman comes to a conclusion. There is short fiction by Elliott Flower and Elizabeth McCracken, in the opera series Gustav Kobbe tells the story of Aida, and music lovers will delight in the article on Lhevinne, the pianist. The fashion department is full of hints for summer clothes, with appropriate patterns. There is a lesson on remodeling the wardrobe, and the usual sensible helps in housekeeping, in the entertainment and care of children, in etiquette and the cultivation of good looks. If you do not know the magazine, get a copy and look it over. (New York: Fifty cents a year.)

IF YOUR BUSINESS will not stand advertising, advertise it for sale. You cannot afford to follow a business that will not stand advertising.
