John S. Miller, Esq., of Somerset, candidate on the Republican ticket for the District Attorney nomination, was passing his cards to voters in this borough, last Friday evening and Saturday morning.

Last Monday night was an exceptionally cold night for this time of year. We had no frost in this immediate vicinity, but in some localities the ground was frozen, and at some places ice a half-inch thick.

"Al" Swartzwelder was recently exhibiting about town a chipmunk or ground squirrel of the albino type. The animal was snow white, and had pink eyes. It was captured near Keystone Mine. "Al" and the chipmunk had an awful fight during its capture, but he finally overpowered the ferocious animal and made it his prisoner.

Mrs. S. Joyce, 180 Sullivan St., Claremont, N. H., writes: "About a year ago I bought two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It cured me of a severe case of Kidney trouble of several years standing. It certainly is a grand, good medicine, and I heartily recommend it." Sold by all Druggists. 6-1

Dr. "Al" Swartzwelder was in town, last Saturday and Sunday, dressed in his best Sunday clothes, and in his usual good humor. He planked down the price of a year's subscription, and ordered the paper sent to him at Keystone Mine, via Meyersdale. "Al" says the write-up of Salisbury's lobster police, in last week's issue, was alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

A little Kodol taken occasionally, especially after eating, will relieve stomach, belching and heartburn. J. B. The attention of farmers who make cider is called to the new food law, which states that every barrel of vinegar that is put out must be labeled plainly with the name of the person who barreled it, together with a statement as to whether the contents are composition acid, or real cider vinegar made without the chemicals. There is a heavy penalty for violating this law.

Our old-time friend and schoolmate Mr. J. O. Getty, cashier of the First National Bank of Grantsville, Md., was a business visitor at THE STAR office, last Thursday evening. He had with him two little sons, and all enjoyed the pleasant drive through the beautiful section of country lying between Salisbury and Grantsville. Chas. Landman, the jovial pop manufacturer who operates works in both Somerset and Meyersdale, was in town on Monday evening. He is one of the jolly fellows we are always pleased to meet, and he and his celebrated pop are popular wherever known. While talking with us concerning some of the cases in court, he started to tell us something about a case he had himself, last week, but just then somebody interrupted the conversation, and we did not learn whether his own case was a case of Anhauser-Bush or Old Cumberland Export.

For a cold or a cough take Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. Every man who hunts or fishes should provide himself with a copy of the game and fish laws, which will be sent him free on application to the state game commission at Harrisburg. When he wishes to ascertain what the law is in regard to any class of game or fish, he should begin at the back end of the book and leaf backward toward the front part of the book. Many laws in the front part of the book have been repealed by later acts. Practically everything that flies, swims or runs is protected by these laws during some portion of the year, and the penalty for the violation is not less than ten dollars for each offense. Ignorance of the law is not considered an excuse. The best thing a sportsman can do is to get a copy of the game laws, read up for himself and be his own lawyer, says an exchange.

Free Samples of "Preventics" and a booklet on Colds will be gladly mailed you, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis., simply to prove merit. Preventics are little Candy Cold Cure tablets. Frequently a person hears some remark detrimental to the farmer because he forbids persons hunting and fishing on his land. The farmer does not do this to be mean, but simply to protect his property, and even this he is not able to accomplish. There are boys, and we are sorry to say men, who carry guns who deliberately destroy property. They will shoot chickens, tame ducks and turkeys, and sometimes even put a load of shot into a horse to see it run. The man or boy who would do any of these acts is not entitled to the use of a gun, and the sooner some of them are apprehended in this nefarious work and made to pay for the property they destroy, the better it will be for the sportsman who likes to take a day's hunt once in a while. The farmer has the right to protect his property, and he should do so. All hunters do not do these things, but in such cases the innocent must suffer with the guilty.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidney, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Dr. Shoop's Restorative sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 6-1

The June issue of The Ladies' World, which has just been received, is so far the handsomest number of the year, and its literary, fashion and household departments are full of attractive material. Hugh Pendexter's serial story, "A Master of Mirth," opens the number, and following this are several short stories and articles, all of them excellent, including the final paper in Gustav Kobbe's entertaining "Opera Series." Grace MacGowan Cooke, who was seriously injured at the burning of Heligon Hall, Upton Sinclair's Colony house, contributes one of her best stories for children. The various departments are full of matter that will attract the ladies; the fashions show wedding and other garments, and the lesson in dress-making describes how to make them. There is a special article on "Wedding Observances," the "Care of the Hair" is practically treated, and sound advice is given about children in summer. A subscription for a year costs only fifty cents.

Say, do you know the kind of fellow who's just to the world's mind? The kind the world can't lose? The kind that folks enthuse over and take off their hats to? Why, it's the man who does. He's the fellow! Not the fellow whose grandpa got there; not the fellow who would if he could; not the gentleman who's going to some day; but the man who does, now, today, No sitting around, waiting, about him; no expecting something to happen; no looking for something to turn up. No sir! He calls the turn and turns 'em; he takes off his coat and doesn't care if he starts a little sweat; he doesn't need a big, brass-butened copper to tell him to move on; he keeps the procession humping to keep up with him; he is hustle from his feet up, and from his head down, he is not in the push, but he is the push—the whole thing; and say, the way he makes things come, and business hum, is a caution; the way the world takes that follow up and is good to him makes your heart glad; he's all right, he is; he greases the wheels of progress and keeps the world spinning around.—Ex.

Prof. Howard Miller Dead.
Prof. Howard Miller, a well known elder of the German Baptist Brethren church, who used to reside in Salisbury, died recently in Illinois. Our next issue will contain a more complete account of his demise.

Fatal Shooting Affray at Jerome.
At Jerome, which is a new mining town in the north of this county, a fatal shooting affray took place, last Sunday.

John Jones was out for a walk with his wife and daughter, and while passing a house where a foreign christening was taking place, he witnessed a fight in progress between some of the men in attendance. Jones claims that he was suddenly confronted by George Spizack, a foreigner, who drew a revolver on him. Supposing that Spizack intended to kill him, Jones drew a revolver and shot the foreigner, who fell mortally wounded.

A coroner's jury held an inquest on Monday, found that Jones acted in self-defense, and so returned a verdict, which disposes of the case.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

There is probably no medicine made that is relied upon with more implicit confidence than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. During the third of a century in which it has been in use, people have learned that it is the one remedy that never fails. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.
